SONNET.

CHILDHOOD! I love to mark thy cherub smile, Thy spring elastic, and thy bustle pace, Anxious the painted intellect to beguile, With fear, hope, transport, pictur'd in thy face. And, if thou feel'st a parent's furr-wing eye, Lipping with awe, to kiss away her pain, Let fall a trickling tear, thou know'st not why, Then be thee joyous to thy sport again. Ah! who would check the raptures of thy mind With ferocious warnings of the future doom: Round infant brows a wreath of cypress bind, And tear youth's flow'rets in their earliest bloom? Few are the roses that life's eve adorn, Noon brights th' buds that open'd with the morn.

Family Medicine.

Just received from RICHARD LEE and Son, and for Sale by Gideon White, Church-street, An Assortment of PATENT MEDICINE.

For the prevention and cure of bilious and malignant fevers, is recommended Lee's Anti-Bilious Pills.

Each article has on the outside wrapper, the signature of

RICHARD LEE and SON.

Without which, none are genuine.

Prepared by Richard Lee and Son, Baltimore.

PERSONS wishing to purchase this valuable medicine, are requested to be particular in inquiring for Lee's anti-bilious pills, put up in wooden boxes having on the outside wrapper the signature Richard Lee and Son—this is necessary, as there are other pills of the same name.

THE operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile, and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—produce a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colds, which are often of fatal consequences—a dose never fails to remove a cold, if taken on its first appearance. They are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe headach—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkable efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Messrs. Richard Lee and Son.

The high opinion I have of your bilious pills, and a desire to make known their utility for the benefit of mankind, I wish you to publish the following:

For two months past, I have been afflicted with a violent sickness at the stomach, an inclination to vomit, and a loss of appetite—by taking two doses of your pills, I am restored to a perfect state of health—which induced my wife to try them also, which was attended with the same good effects, being now able to attend to her domestic concerns: in my opinion, this medicine is unequalled in stomach and bowel complaints, not being attended with that griping pain, common to other remedies.

JOHN SCOTT,

Delancy-street, near Columbia Gardens. Balt. Dec. 10, 1807.

In CHANCERY, JUNE 15, 1807.

William Kilty,

against

John Hamilton Brown, Charles Carrell, and Jennett his wife, Harriet Brookes, George W. Whitaker, and Anne his wife, and Eleanor Brookes, heirs of John Brown.

THE object of the petition in this case is to compel the defendants, the heirs of John Brown, to set forth what real estate descended to them, and where the same is situated, what part has been sold, to whom, and for what sum, and to account for the proceeds of the said sales, and to procure a decree for the sale of the said real estate, or what remains unsold, or so much as may be necessary for the payment of the debts therein mentioned, for which the personal estate is alleged to be insufficient.

It is stated by the petitioner, (being the chancellor of the state and interested in the suit,) to the chief judge of the third judicial district, that John Hamilton, one of the defendants, who is the eldest son of John Brown, therein mentioned, and would have been his sole heir if the act to direct descents had not taken place, has appeared in court to the said petition, and the appearance of the said John Hamilton Brown to the said petition being entered on the docket, it is thereupon, on the application of the petitioner, ordered by the honourable Jeremiah Townley Chase, chief judge of the third judicial district, that the petitioner cause a copy of this notice to be inserted at least three weeks successively in the Maryland Gazette before the twentieth day of July next, to the end that each of the heirs of the said John Brown, who are defendants in the said petition, may have notice of the said petition, and of its substance and object, and may be warned to appear in the Chancery court on or before the thirtieth day of November next, in person, or by a solicitor, to shew cause, if any they have, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.

JEREMIAH TOWNLEY CHASE, chief judge of the third judicial district.

True copy.

NICHOLAS BREWER, Reg. Cur. Can.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the deceased are requested to bring them in legally authenticated to Nicholas Brewer, Esquire, register in chancery; and those indebted to the estate to make payment to the said Nicholas Brewer, whom I have authorized to receive the same.
