THE DISCOVERY.

MY landlady knock'd at my chamber this morning— Who's there! 'I have come, Sir, to give you the warning, 'That the ladies have sent for you over the way.' The ladies have sent! what the devil's to pay! 'I know not,' (said she,) 'but may-hap there's a ball, 'A book or a party—I know not at all! Send compliments back—tell them I'll be in, When I've sever'd the bristles that sprout on my chin— To a man who has liv'd to see thirty long years, And would marry whenever the right one appears, To be sent for by ladies when just out of bed, 'Tis no wonder fond fancies should fly in his head. How a fellow in such a predicament feels! Notwithstanding, I dress'd me from head to my heels; Then in cap-a-pee order tripp'd over the way, To hear what these nymphs of Kentucky might say. My reception (so early,) was rather too cool; I talk'd some, I walk'd some, but felt like a fool. After waiting an hour in awful suspense, I took up my hat and was coming out thence, When one of the ladies sent out for a beau, Who instantly waited her orders to know: 'I have only to tell you,' (said she,) 'tis my rule 'On the first day of April to—gaze on a fool!' How they laugh'd at the fellow! He turn'd to retire, Swore he'd not call again should the house be on fire. Then I, like a ninny, discover'd my case, And the laugh was reit'er'd five times in a place. But the wit of it was, that the ladies for me: Never sent!—'twas the trick of my landlady D. So that when I return'd she was laughing all high, To think what a fool she had made of POOR I.

APRIL 1.

KENTUCKY GAZ.

From a London paper.

A MOST solemn event took place on Thursday last in the Collegiate church of Southwell. A young man of the name of Cock had been for sometime attached to a young woman of the same place, but peculiar circumstances, joined to his ill state of health, had retarded their union. Cock was in the last stage of a consumption, had been confined within doors five weeks and to his bed several days; his speedy dissolution appeared certain; nevertheless, on Wednesday evening he determined on being carried to the object of his affection on the ensuing morning. Accordingly about 9 o'clock he was with difficulty dressed, and the house standing on the verge of the church-yard, assisted by the arm of his intended brother-in-law, performed his walk to the sacred edifice with a firmness which astonished the numerous spectators who were assembled at such an unusual scene. Throughout the whole of the ceremony his efforts still supported him. The minister closed the book; exhausted nature could do no more;—the bridegroom sunk lifeless at the altar! He was immediately conveyed home and every restorative medical aid could suggest was ineffectually administered—the vital spark was totally extinguished.

For Sale,

MY HOUSE and LOT, in the city of Annapolis, on a credit, or will be exchanged for wet goods.

SAMUEL MACCUBBIN.

Land for Sale.

Pursuant to an order of the court of Calvert county the subscribers will sell, by public auction, at the court-house in said county, on MONDAY, the 28th day of September next, if fair, if not the next fair day, all the real estate of the late Mr. JAMES WEEMS, consisting of the following tracts of land:

THE tract on which the said James Weems resided, lying about two miles from Patuxent river, and containing 640 acres. The soil of this land is well calculated for the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco; there are about 30 acres of excellent meadow ground upon it, not now in an improved state, but can be put so with very little labour or expence. A considerable part of this land is very heavily covered with wood, among which there is a great quantity of superior timber; there is also upon this tract a large two story brick dwelling-house, containing four rooms and a passage on the first floor, and six rooms and a passage in the second story, also a cellar under the house divided into five apartments, one of which is intended for a kitchen, and most conveniently fixed as such; there is also a barn, stable, corn-house, and other convenient out-buildings.

One other tract of land lying near the court-house containing 450 1/2 acres; upon this tract there is a small but very convenient framed dwelling-house with a kitchen, and other necessary out buildings. This land produces extremely well, there is some excellent meadow land upon it, and an ample quantity of wood for fencing and firewood. This tract is now in the possession of Mrs. Weems, (the widow of the above said James Weems,) to whom it was laid off by the commissioners as her portion of the land, and it will be sold encumbered with her life estate.

Two other tracts of land lying very near the last mentioned tract, one containing 100 acres, the other 162 acres; upon the first of these two tracts there is a small wooden dwelling-house, also a quantity of excellent wood and timber; on the other tract there are several wooden dwelling-houses, and one tobacco house, also a sufficiency of wood for fencing and firewood.

It is thought needless to give a more full description of these lands, as it is presumed no one will purchase without first viewing them, and on application to Dr. Nathaniel T. Weems, who lives adjacent to the first mentioned tract, he will shew all the different tracts.

These different tracts of land will be sold in a body, or in parcels, as may best suit those who wish to purchase; the purchasers to give bond, with approved security, for the purchase money, to be paid in three equal annual payments, the whole interest to be paid yearly, and on the ratification of the sale by the court, and a full payment of the purchase money, a deed of conveyance will be executed to the purchasers agreeable to an act of assembly in such case made and provided.

FREDERICK SKINNER, JAMES DUKE, PARKER BOWEN, } Commissioners.

IN CHANCERY, July 11, 1807.

Francis W. Sheid,

vs.

Joseph Scott, and others.

THE object of the bill in this cause is to obtain a decree for the sale of the real estate of JOHN DAY SCOTT for the purpose of paying his debts, on the ground, that the personal estate is insufficient for that purpose. It is stated that Joseph Scott, one of the defendants and heirs of the deceased, hath removed out of the state; it is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette before the seventh day of August next, give notice to the absent defendant of this application, and of the substance and object of the bill, that he may be warned to appear here in person, or by a solicitor of this court, on the seventh day of December next, to shew cause, if any he hath, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.
