Farmers Bank of Maryland,

JUNE 25, 1807.

NOTICE is hereby given to the stockholders in this Bank on the Western Shore; that an election will be held at COOLIDGE'S TAVERN, in the city of Annapolis, on the first MONDAY in August, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 3 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of choosing seventeen directors of said Bank to serve for 12 months from said day of election.

By order, JONA. PINKNEY, Cashier.

Farmers Bank of Maryland,

July 22, 1807.

NOTICE to Stockholders, that the third instalment of ten dollars a share, on their stock, comes due and payable on the 13th August next; and that if any stockholder failing to make regular payment of such instalment, such stockholders money in bank will remain free from interest, and not entitled to dividend until such instalment or call shall be made good; and the dividend thereafter to be paid to such stockholder, as well upon the money by him regularly paid as upon the money paid after default, will be calculated only from the time when said last instalment was made good.

By order, JONA. PINKNEY, Cashier.

ANNAPOIS, 22d July, 1807.

To the Stockholders in the Farmers Bank of Maryland.

FINDING it inconvenient to serve for the ensuing year as a director of the Farmers Bank, I beg leave to decline a post at the next election.

WILLIAM STEUART.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber, after returning his sincere thanks to his friends and the public for their favours, and being extremely anxious to bring his business to a close, requests all those indebted to him and settle their respective accounts, by giving their notes (if not convenient to pay the same;) and those who are indebted by bond or note are also earnestly requested to discharge the same. The previous state of the subscriber's health renders this absolutely necessary. In my absence my son HENRY GRAMMER is fully authorized to settle and pay receipts for me.

FREDERICK GRAMMER.

Annapolis, July 17, 1807.

HENRY GRAMMER,

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public, that his father having declined business in his favour, he carries on the same at the OLD STAND, and requests a continuance of their custom.

Public Sale.

In pursuance of an order from Anne-Arundel county court, the subscribers will offer at public sale, on the premises, on FRIDAY, 21st August next,

ALL that tract or parcel of land situate and lying in Anne-Arundel county, containing of about sixty acres, and known by the name of Rawlings's tavern. The improvements are an excellent dwelling-house, with three rooms and a passage on the lower floor, with fire places in each room, several convenient rooms up stairs, a kitchen adjoining the house, a pailed garden, and a most excellent spring of water within a few steps of the door.

This property is well calculated for a tavern, having been occupied as such for a number of years, and may be truly said to be as good a stand as any in the county. It is presumable a further description of this property is unnecessary, as those inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the day of sale. This property will be sold on a credit of twelve months, on the purchaser's giving bond, with approved security, with interest from the day of sale; and on payment of the purchase money an indisputable title be given by

For Sale,

MY HOUSE and LOT, in the city of Annapolis, on a credit, or will be exchanged for wet goods.

SAMUEL MACCUBBIN.

Land for Sale.

Pursuant to an order of the court of Calvert county the subscribers will sell, by public auction, at the court-house in said county, on MONDAY, the 28th day of September next, if fair, if not the next fair day, all the real estate of the late Mr. JAMES WEEMS, consisting of the following tracts of land:

THE tract on which the said James Weems resided, lying about two miles from Patuxent river, and containing 640 acres. The soil of this land is well calculated for the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco; there are about 30 acres of excellent meadow ground upon it, not now in an improved state, but can be put so with very little labour or expense. A considerable part of this land is very heavily covered with wood, among which there is a great quantity of superior timber; there is also upon this tract a large two story brick dwelling-house, containing four rooms and a passage on the first floor, and six rooms and a passage in the second story, also a cellar under the house divided into five apartments, one of which is intended for a kitchen, and most conveniently fixed as such; there is also a barn, stable, corn-house, and other convenient out buildings.

One other tract of land lying near the court-house, containing 450½ acres; upon this tract there is a small but very convenient framed dwelling-house with a kitchen, and other necessary out buildings. This land produces extremely well, there is some excellent meadow land upon it, and an ample quantity of wood for fencing and firewood. This tract is now in the possession of Mrs. Weems, (the widow of the aforesaid James Weems,) to whom it was laid off by the commissioners as her portion of the land, and it will be sold encumbered with her life estate.

Two other tracts of land lying very near the last mentioned tract, one containing 100 acres, the other 162 acres; upon the first of these two tracts there is a small wooden dwelling-house, also a quantity of excellent wood and timber; on the other tract there are several wooden dwelling-houses, and one tobacco house, also a sufficiency of wood for fencing and firewood. It is thought needless to give a more full description of these lands, as it is presumed, one will purchase without first viewing them, and on application to Dr. Nathaniel T. Weems, who lives adjacent to the first mentioned tract, he will shew all the different tracts.

These different tracts of land will be sold in a body, or in parcels, as may best suit those who wish to purchase; the purchasers to give bond, with approved security, for the purchase money, to be paid in three equal annual payments, the whole interest to be paid yearly, and on the ratification of the sale by the court, and a full payment of the purchase money, a deed of conveyance will be executed to the purchasers agreeable to an act of assembly in such case made and provided.
