

POSTSCRIPT.

FROM PAPERS BY WEDNESDAY'S PAPER.

LONDON, August 3.

From America we have accounts two days later than any before received. By these it appears, that Mr. Erskine was not present at the examination of the men at Washington; but still it is maintained that they are American citizens. Barron was dismissed from the Chesapeake in great disgrace. It is alleged against him, that he ought to have been ready to oppose his enemy while his ship had a plank remaining whole. Mr. Munroe has received dispatches from his government, and has had an interview with Mr. Canning. The Americans insist on the right of search being abandoned by Britain; the doctrine is opposed by us; and, if the dispute is not and cannot be adjusted, blows must and will most assuredly be resorted to.

August 4.

The differences with America are likely to be adjusted. The right of searching ships of war, has nevertheless, it is said, been insisted upon by our ministers.

August 8.

A considerable sensation was produced in the city yesterday, by a report that an embargo would be laid this day on all American vessels. Several captains belonging to that country caught the alarm, cleared their vessels out in ballast, and immediately took their departure. The situation in which this country stands with respect to America, is certainly very critical, but we trust their difficulties are not so incapable of accommodation as to require to have a proceeding as this. The Americans, with all their noise and impudence, had not, according to the last accounts, proceeded to this extremity. Refusal of supplies, and prohibition of intercourse with the shore, it appears, were the harshest measures recommended at the most violent of their meetings. We understand that orders have been expedited at Liverpool, and other ports, to prevent for the present, the departure of any foreigners from this country, notwithstanding any passport that may have been granted for that purpose. It is possible that this measure has given rise to the rumour of the intended embargo. We are informed that the American minister yesterday communicated to our cabinet, the proclamation of the American executive.

The Pilot, a London paper, of the 8th ult. after publishing the President's proclamation, subjoins the following remarks:

Notwithstanding the adverse sentiments which breathe throughout the above State-Paper, both in regard to the late affair between the Leopard and the Chesapeake, and other transactions alluded to in that document, we are not wholly without hopes, that a spirit of conciliation, the misunderstanding between the two governments may be removed. We are happy to see that the door of accommodation is yet closed; but that the American government, which we learn from an article in the Washington Herald, was about to send a schooner from Baltimore, with an extraordinary minister to this country, for the purpose of requiring explanation. Is there a misunderstanding in the country, which in the present position of surrounding circumstances, can lead to an interruption of the peaceable relations between the two governments."

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the plantation of the late Thomas Wm. Walker, near Queen-Anne, Anne-Arundel county, on Wednesday night the 6th inst. a Negro Woman named CHARITY, a dark mulatto, about 5 feet 1 inch high, about 35 years of age, she has a broad flat face, with large thick lips, and has a habit of sucking her tongue; she is uncommonly homely, and took with her her youngest son named Moses, about 8 or 9 years of age, much darker than his mother, and at times staggers a little when he walks, from a hurt he got when an infant; they have both been seen in London-town and that neighbourhood—the said woman took with her all her clothing, consisting of a green cotton jacket, a striped country cloth petticoat, a brown rolls petticoat, a dark calico gown, a white cotton jacket and petticoat, and two oznabirg shifts: she may have changed some of her clothing in order to deceive. Whoever apprehends said woman and boy, or the woman alone, and will secure her in gaol so that I get her again, shall receive, if taken within 20 miles from home, 10 dollars, if over that distance, the above reward, and reasonable charges if brought home.

SAMUEL TYLER.

N. B. I forewarn any person or persons from harbouring said negroes, or from taking them on board any vessel at their peril.
