

ELECTION.

Monday being the day appointed for the election of delegates to the General Assembly of Maryland, the following gentlemen were elected:
 For the city of Annapolis—John Muir and Arthur Shaff, Esquires.
 Anne-Arundel county—John S. Belt, Charles D. Hodges, Osborn Williams and Richard Merriken, Esquires.
 City of Baltimore—Thomas B. Dorsey and Robert Stewart, Esquires.

On the 18th of Aug. Buonaparte, (whom the Paris papers style the mighty emperor) delivered a speech to the senate at Paris, from which we select the following passages.
 "The house of Bradenburg, which was the first to conspire against our independence owes its present existence to our friendship for the mighty emperor of the North. A French prince shall reign on the Elbe. All nations rejoice that the influence of England on the continent has been annihilated. I wish for a maritime peace: no desire of revenge will ever influence my determination in that respect. Nor can I indulge such a sentiment towards a nation which is the sport of parties, who tear her to pieces, and mislead her concerning her true interests and those of her neighbours."

Last evening we were favoured with the following extract of a letter from the consignees of the ship Delaware, to captain Thompson of said ship, dated "AMSTERDAM, August 24, 1807."
 "We have to inform you, that the American consul, Mr. Bourne, told us to-day, that he had received a verbal message from Mr. Munroe, the American minister in England, by which that gentleman advised that all American vessels that should be ready for sea, should get off as soon as possible north about; whereas those vessels that were not ready, should be kept at anchor."

The president and directors of the national Bank of France, have given notice, that from and after Monday, the 10th of August, 1807, the discounts upon all notes of hand, will be reduced to four per cent. per annum.

An attempt has been made to set fire to the dock-yard at Chatham. [London pap.]

It is reported that the Rochefort Squadron have lately made an attempt to get out. It is said to be bound to Buenos Ayres with troops. [Ibid.]

The president of the United States arrived in the city this morning, at 11 o'clock, from Monticello. The heads of departments are all expected in the course of to-morrow and Monday. [Wash. Fed.]

From Halifax, September 17.
 Capt. Warland, in 9 days from Halifax, informs, that the British August packet had arrived at that place; that the Jason had returned from New York, with 50 of her crew in irons; that the Bellona, capt. Hardy, had sailed for the Chesapeake; and that a temporary embargo was to be laid the day after he came away, on account of the sailing of some transports, with troops on board, supposed for Quebec.

Cure for the Fever and Ague.
 We are indebted for the following recipe for the fever and ague to a gentleman of Philadelphia, who has made several recent applications of it, with uniform and complete success:—
 Take three drachms of best Peruvian bark, 1-2 drachm of Venus treacle, the juice of 2 lemons, (or 30 drops of the essence of lemon;) mix them with a gill and a half of Port wine, in a phial, of this mixture, take one third in the morning, one third at noon, and the remainder at night, the day the fit is expected to come on. One application of the medicine in this manner, is sufficient.

Married, on Thursday evening last, at Hampton, by the Rev. George Dashiell, CHARLES W. HANSON, Esq; to Miss REBECCA RIDGELY, daughter of Gen. Charles Ridgely.

WE are authorized to state that JOHN CORD is a candidate for the Sheriff's office, at the ensuing election.

Poet's Corner.

ORIGINAL.

For the Maryland Gazette.

On presenting Miss J. B. with a comedy, entitled "Matrimony," she having presented the author with the "Honey Moon."

ENWREATH'D with all the flow'rs of bliss,
 The Honey Moon you gave;
 I spent it with a dying kiss,
 As thy soft bosoms wave.

The humid kiss, the deep-drawn sigh,
 And that soft blushing cheek;
 The heaving breast, the languid eye,
 Thy extacy bespeak.

But then 'tis strange, I swear 'tis so,
 I scarce refrain from laughter,
 The Honey Moon before should go,
 And Matrimony after.

But we who soar so far above
 The common rules of man,
 Contemn the ties of human love,
 As 'neath our noble scan.

Fond hearts no other bands require
 Than mutual love divine,
 A little of celestial fire,
 Man's ruder frames refine.

Then let the softer passions live
 In Hymen's sea we lave,
 'Tis Matrimony which I give,
 The Honey Moon you gave.

SELECTED.

LINES.

ADDRESSED TO MISS LONG, A LITTLE LADY.

WHERE any thing abounds, we find,
 That nobody will have it;
 But when there's LITTLE of the kind,
 Don't all the people, crave it?
 The God of Love's a LITTLE wight,
 But beautiful as thought;
 Thou too art LITTLE, fair as light,
 And every thing in SHORT.
 O! happy girl! I think thee so,
 For mark the poet's song—
 "Man wants but LITTLE here below,
 But wants that little LONG."
