

ROBERT WRIGHT, Esquire,
GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND,
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS some notorious villain did on the eighteenth day of October, instant, attempt to assassinate judge James B. Robins, on his return from Caroline county court, near Denton, and did, from an ambuscade, fire a ball at him, which entered his right shoulder, and passed out below his right breast, and another ball which passed through the cape of his coat, and struck his ear: And whereas, there is reason to believe the said assassin is a certain John Whirlow, alias John Rigging, formerly committed to Worcester county gaol by said judge Robins; to answer to a certain crime, and who, by two letters to said judge Robins, threatened to assassinate him, which said Whirlow, alias Rigging, was, on the day before the perpetration of said villainy, supposed to be in Denton, inquiring when said judge would return home: And whereas, it is the duty of the executive, in the execution of the laws, to endeavour to bring all malefactors to justice: I have therefore thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the council, offer five hundred-dollars reward, to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring to justice the perpetrator of said offence, in lieu of the reward offered by William Potter, Esq. Given in council, at the city of Annapolis, under the seal of the State of Maryland, this 21st day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seven, and of the independence of the United States of America the thirty-second.

ROBERT WRIGHT,

By his Excellency's command,
NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the council.

Ordered, that the foregoing proclamation be published three times in each week, for the space of two weeks, successively, in the American and Federal Gazette at Baltimore, and the Star at Easton.

By order, NINIAN PINKNEY.
