NOTICE.

THIS is to give notice to all my creditors, that I mean to apply to the judges of Baltimore county court, or some one of the judges thereof in recess of the court, after this notice shall have been published two months, for the benefit of an act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at November session, 1805, entitled "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and of the supplement thereto, passed at November session, 1807.
JOHN GADE.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT I intend to petition the judges of Baltimore county court, or some one of them, for the benefit of an act of insolvency of this state, passed at November session, 1805, and the supplement thereto, passed in 1806, to relieve me from insolvency as well as from those contracted under the act of Sotheren and Dunn, which I am unable to pay.
JOHN SOTHEREN.

St. Mary's College.

Grand Lottery, Baltimore,

AUTHORISED by the general assembly of the state of Maryland, the scheme of which is the most brilliant ever offered to the citizens of the United States, containing besides a large number of other good prizes

- 1 prize of 30,000 dollars,
- 1 do. of 15,000 dollars,
- 3 do. of 10,000 dollars,
- 2 do. of 5000 dollars,
- 8 do. of 1500 dollars,
- 7 do. of 1000 dollars,

Not two blanks to a prize, and the lowest prize is twelve dollars. The scheme contains only 21,500 tickets; 10,000 of which are actually sold to a company of gentlemen in New-York, to whom the managers have obligated themselves to commence the drawing in the city of Baltimore, on THURSDAY the 31st day of DECEMBER next, and to draw 500 tickets per day.

Tickets and shares are now selling in a variety of numbers and very rapidly, at TEN Dollars and a HALF each; for a short time, at
G. & R. WAITE'S.

Truly fortunate Lottery office, corner of Market and Charles streets Baltimore.

The grandeur of the scheme of the above lottery, together with an assurance from the managers that it will positively commence drawing on the 31st day of December next, have been a sufficient inducement for the subscribers to come to the city of Baltimore for the express purpose of facilitating the sale of the tickets.
G. & R. WAITE.

One of the above firm will personally attend the drawing daily, to take down the numbers correctly as will also one of their clerks.

The next New-York lottery will not commence drawing till April next—tickets of which lottery may be had at Waite's offices, No. 62 and No. 38 Maiden Lane New-York.

Distant adventurers accompanying their orders with bank notes, of any description to either of Waite's offices, in New-York or Baltimore, may have tickets and shares forwarded to any amount with the utmost punctuality, and the earliest advice sent them of their success. All prizes sold by G. & R. Waite, will be paid by them.

In CHANCERY, November 5, 1807.
William Biggs, Frederick Biggs, Joseph Biggs, and others, against

Edward Digges, Henry Digges, Frances Digges, Edward Neale, Joseph W. Clagett and wife, Susanna Digges, Mary Oneale, and Elizabeth Oneale.

THE object of the bill is to obtain a conveyance to the complainants the Biggs, for part of a tract of land called "the Rich Level," situate in Frederick county; the bill states, that John Digges was seized in fee of the whole tract, that for a valuable consideration, which has been paid, he sold the same to Casper Rice and Jacob Shroyer, who divided the land between them, that John Digges died, leaving Edward Digges his heir at law, who devised his real estate to two thirds of his two brothers, William and Henry, the remaining third to his three daughters Elizabeth, Eleanor and Mary, that the purchasers, and those claiming under them, since the contract, which was in the year 1748, have possessed the land, a conveyance has been made for Rice's part; the bill also states, that the defendants are the heirs at law of the said William and Henry Digges, Elizabeth, Eleanor and Mary, and that Edward Digges, the defendant, has set up a claim to the land, and brought an ejectment to recover it from the Biggs's, to whom the right of Jacob Shroyer, by meane transfers, has been made, that Edward Digges is out of this state.

It is thereupon, on the motion of the complainant adjudged and ordered, that they cause a copy of this order to be inserted three weeks, before the 30th inst. in the Maryland Gazette, to the end that said Edward Digges may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear, in person, or by a solicitor in this court, on or before the first Monday of April next, to shew cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.
True copy,
NICH. BREWER, Reg. Cur. Can.

A Night School

IS now opened for the accommodation of such as cannot attend a day school, those who wish to avail themselves of the present opportunity may depend on having the greatest care and attention paid to their improvement in learning. Hours of attendance from 6 till 9 o'clock. The terms of tuition will be made known by applying to
JOHN W. H. CARROLL,

Who begs leave to remind those who send to his day school, that the weather calls loudly for each person's quota of wood for the winter season—such as will not send wood will please to take notice, that after the expiration of their month, he will not teach for less than ten shillings per month, or four dollars per quarter, to be paid in advance.
