PHILANTHROPY REWARDED.

LOUD howl'd the wind, all heaven was fabled o'er, Lightning in wild confusion seem'd to fly, Oid ocean, mad'ning, lash'd the wave worn shore,

THE DYING CHILD.

THE taper was just glimmering in the socket as the weary and sorrowful mother awakened from a momentary slumber, to renew her anguish; she turned her eyes on her expiring infant, whose dim orbs were slowly moving in their hollow abodes.

FRANKFORT, (Ken.) Oct. 22.

The following communication from governor Harrison was received by the last mail.

The undersigned the governor of the Indiana territory and superintendent of Indian affairs, is happy to have it in his power to inform his fellow citizens that there does not at present exist the smallest probability of an Indian war. Confidential agents whom he has employed to visit the several tribes have lately returned, and brought with them the result of several meetings and councils held by the chiefs, in all of which it was unanimously determined to preserve their relations of peace and amity with the United States, even if a war between us and Great-Britain should take place.

The few Indians upon the lakes who are under the British influence, are too contemptible in point of number and character as warriors, to undertake any hostile enterprise without the aid and concurrence of the Indians of the Wabash, who are decidedly for peace. The undersigned pledges himself for the peaceable disposition of the Delaware, Miami, Wea, Piankashaw and Kickapoo tribes.

WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON.

Vincennes, 13th October, 1807.

Information, corroborative of the above, has been also received by us from general Wells, dated at Staunton, on the Miami, in the state of Ohio.

The stories of Indian hostilities and massacres, circulating in several of the public prints, as having been committed at Detroit, are destitute of foundation. No families have been murdered, nor any persons have been injured at all, by the Indians of that place. [Phil. pap.]

A letter from captain Field, at Leghorn, received at Salem, mentions the massacre at Constantinople of fifteen thousand Christians, by the Turks.

SAMUEL HAWKINS.

NOTICE.

THIS is to give notice to all my creditors, that I mean to apply to the judges of Baltimore county court, or some one of the judges thereof in the next session of the court, after this notice has been published two months, for the benefit of an act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at November session, 1805, entitled "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and of the suppli-ment thereto, passed at November session, 1807. 6

JOHN GADE.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT I intend to petition the judges of Baltimore county court, or some one of them, for the benefit of an act of insolvency of this state, passed at November session, 1805, and the suppli-ment thereto, passed in 1806, to relieve me from individual debts as well as from those contracted under the firm of Sotheren and Dunn, which I am unable to pay. 4

JOHN SOTHEREN.

IN CHANCERY, November 5, 1807.

William Biggs, Frederick Biggs, Joseph Biggs, and others,
against Edward Digges, Henry Digges, Frances Digges, Edward Neale, Joseph W. Clagett and wife, Susanna Digges, Mary Neale, and Elizabeth Neale.

THE object of the bill is to obtain a conveyance to the complainants the Biggs, for part of a tract of land called "the Rich Level," situate in Frederick county; the bill states, that John Digges was seized in fee of the whole tract, and for a valuable consideration, which has been paid, he sold the same to Casper Rice and Jacob Shroyer, who divided the land between them, that John Digges leaving Edward Digges his heir at law, who devised his real estate to two thirds of his two brothers, William and Henry, the remaining third to his three daughters Elizabeth, Eleanor and Mary, that the purchasers, and those claiming under them, since the contract, which was in the year 1748, have possessed the land, a conveyance has been made for Record; the bill also states, that the defendants are the heirs at law of the said William and Henry Digges, Elizabeth, Eleanor and Mary, and that Edward Digges, the defendant, has set up a claim to the land, and brought an ejectment to recover it from the Biggs's, to whom the right of Jacob Shroyer by mesne transfers, has been made, that Edward Digges is out of this state.

It is thereupon, on the motion of the complainants adjudged and ordered, that they cause a copy of the order to be inserted three weeks, before the 30th day in the Maryland Gazette, to the end that said Edward Digges may have notice of this application, of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear, in person, or by a solicitor in court, on or before the first Monday of April next, to shew cause, if any there be, wherefore a bill should not pass as prayed.

3X true copy,
NICH. BREWER, Reg. Cur. Ga.
