State of Maryland, sc.

Anne-Arundel county, Orphans court, November 4, 1807.

ON application by petition, of JOHN IAMS, administrator of THOMAS IAMS, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, it is ordered, that he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week, for the space of six successive weeks, in the Maryland Gazette.

JOHN GASSAWAY, Reg. Wills for Anne-Arundel county.

THIS IS TO GIVE NOTICE,

THAT the subscriber, of Anne-Arundel county; hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, in Maryland, letters testamentary on the personal estate of THOMAS IAMS, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the 31st day of March next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand, this 4th day of November, 1807.

JOHN IAMS, Administrator.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the plantation of the late Thomas Wm. Walker, near Queen-Anne, Anne-Arundel county, on Wednesday night the 6th inst. a Negro Woman named CHARITY, a dark mulatto, about 5 feet 1 inch high, about 35 years of age, she has a broad flat face, with large thick lips, and has a habit of sucking her tongue; she is uncommonly homely, and took with her her youngest son named Moses, about 8 or 9 years of age, much darker than his mother, and at times staggers a little when he walks, from a hurt he got when an infant; they have both been seen in London-town and that neighbourhood—the said woman took with her all her cloathing, consisting of a green cotton jacket, a striped country cloth petticoat, a brown rolls petticoat, a dark calico gown, a white cotton jacket and petticoat, and two oznabrig shifts: she may have changed some of her cloathing in order to deceive. Whoever apprehends said woman and boy, or the woman alone, and will secure her in gaol so that I get her again, shall receive, if taken within 20 miles from home, 10 dollars, if over that distance, the above reward, and reasonable charges if brought home.

SAMUEL TYLER.

N. B. I forewarn any person or persons from harbouring said negroes, or from taking them on board any vessel at their peril.

St. Mary's College.

Grand Lottery, Baltimore,

AUTHORISED by the general assembly of the state of Maryland, the scheme of which is the most brilliant ever offered to the citizens of the United States, containing besides a large number of other good prizes

1 prize of 30,000 dollars,
1 do. of 15,000 dollars,
3 do. of 10,000 dollars,
2 do. of 5,000 dollars,
8 do. of 1,500 dollars,
7 do. of 1,000 dollars,

Not two blanks to a prize, and the lowest prize is twelve dollars. The scheme contains only 21,500 tickets; 10,000 of which are actually sold to a company of gentlemen in New-York, to whom the managers have obligated themselves to commence the drawing in the city of Baltimore, On THURSDAY the 31st day of DECEMBER next, and to draw 500 tickets per day.

Tickets and shares are now selling in a variety of numbers and very rapidly, at TEN Dollars and a HALF each, for a short time, at

G. & R. WAITE'S.

Truly fortunate Lottery office, corner of Market and Charles streets Baltimore.

The grandeur of the scheme of the above lottery, together with an assurance from the managers that it will positively commence drawing on the 31st day of December next, have been a sufficient inducement for the subscribers to come to the city of Baltimore for the express purpose of facilitating the sale of the tickets.

G. & R. WAITE.

One of the above firm will personally attend the drawing daily, to take down the numbers correctly as will also one of their clerks.

The next New-York lottery will not commence drawing till April next—tickets of which lottery may be had at Waite's offices, No. 64 and No. 38 Maiden Lane New-York.

* * * Distant adventurers accompanying their orders with bank notes, of any description to either of Waite's offices, in New-York or Baltimore, may have tickets and shares forwarded to any amount with the utmost punctuality, and the earliest advice sent them of their success. All prizes sold by G. and R. Waite, will be paid by them.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY

ROBERT WRIGHT, Esquire,

GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS some nefarious villain did, on the eighteenth day of October, instant, attempt to assassinate judge James B. Robins, on his return from Caroline county court, near Denton, and did, from an ambuscade, fire a ball at him, which entered his right shoulder, and passed out below his right breast, and another ball which passed through the cape of his coat, and struck his ear: And whereas, there is reason to believe the said assassin is a certain John Whirlow, alias John Rigging, formerly committed to Worcester county gaol by said judge Robins, to answer to a certain crime, and who, by two letters to said judge Robins, threatened to assassinate him, which said Whirlow, alias Rigging, was, on the day before the perpetration of said villainy, supposed to be in Denton, inquiring when said judge would return home: And whereas, it is the duty of the executive, in the execution of the laws, to endeavour to bring all malefactors to justice: I have therefore thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the council, offer five hundred dollars reward, to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring to justice the perpetrator of said offence, in lieu of the reward offered by William Potter, Esq. Given in council, at the city of Annapolis, under the seal of the State of Maryland, this 21st day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seven, and of the independence of the United States of America the thirty-second.

ROBERT WRIGHT.

By his Excellency's command,

NINIAN PINKNEY,

Clerk of the council.

Ordered, that the foregoing proclamation be published three times in each week, for the space of two weeks, successively, in the American and Federal Gazette at Baltimore, and the Star at Easton.

By order,

NINIAN PINKNEY.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT I intend to petition the judges of Baltimore county court, or some one of them, for the benefit of an act of insolvency of this state, passed at November session, 1805, and the supplement thereto, passed in 1806, to relieve me from individual debts as well as from those contracted under the firm of Sotheren and Dunn, which I am unable to pay.

JOHN SOTHEREN.

Michael and B. Curran

HAVE received a large supply of FALL and FANCY GOODS, all of which they will sell low for cash, and on the usual terms to punctual customers.

Annapolis, October 22, 1807.

State of Maryland, to wit:

THEODORE R. S. BOYCE, of Anne-Arundel county, having applied to me in the recess of the court, by petition, praying the benefit of the insolvent laws of this state, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the said Theodore R. S. Boyce having satisfied me that he has resided the two years preceding his application within the state of Maryland, and having, at the time of presenting his petition as aforesaid, produced to me the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two thirds of the debts owing by him; it is thereupon ordered, that the said Theodore R. S. Boyce, by having a copy of this order inserted in Mr. Green's paper, at Annapolis, for three months next succeeding the date hereof, give notice to his creditors to appear before the Anne-Arundel county court, at Annapolis, on the third Monday in April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit.

Given under my hand, in Anne-Arundel county, the 18th of November, 1807.

HENRY RIDGELY, one of the associate judges of the third judicial district of Maryland.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY on the 19th day of November, 1807, from the subscriber, a negro man named STEPHEN, about five feet ten or eleven inches high, 22 or 23 years of age; when spoken to stammers—his cloathing unknown, and will change his name either to Butler or Short. Whoever takes up said negro and brings him home, or secures him in gaol so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward.

JASPER EDWARD TILLY.

Anne-Arundel county, November 18, 1807.

For Sale,

A TRACT of LAND, in Anne-Arundel county, near South River church, containing 176 acres, whereon William Cheney now lives.—This land is well adapted to the cultivation of all kinds of produce, and has orchards of choice fruit; the buildings are comfortable and convenient. It is presumed that persons inclined to purchase will first view the property. This land will be sold on accommodating terms to a suitable purchaser. For particulars apply to Nicholas Brewer, of the city of Annapolis.

FRANCES YATES.

October 26, 1807.

A Generous Reward

WILL be given for the delivery to me of Judge Tilghman's Note or Common Place Book, left by him last July in his lodging room, at my house, in Annapolis, and taken from thence by some person unauthorized to do so.

JAMES THOMAS.

October 2, 1807.

A Runaway.

COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, on Friday, the 9th instant, a negro man who says his name is GEORGE, that he was formerly the property of col. William Alexander, Virginia, by whom he escaped when on his way home about a month since; he is a well made fellow, about six feet high, rather tawny complexion, about twenty-five years old; his cloathing when committed a round grey cloth jacket, home made trousers and oznabrigs shirt. His owner is desired to take him away or he will be sold agreeable to law for prison fees and other expences.

NOTLEY MADDOX, Sheriff of Prince George's count.

To the Voters of Anne-Arundel county, and City of Annapolis.

GENTLEMEN,

FROM the promised support of many of my fellow-citizens I am encouraged to offer myself a candidate for the next SHERIFFALTY of this county; should I be honoured with your support on that occasion, you may rest assured, that every exertion on my part will be used to discharge the duties that will necessarily devolve on me with industry and fidelity.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obdt. servant,

SOLOMON GROVES.

September, 1807.

For Sale, or to Rent.

THE subscriber will sell, or rent, his house in this city. He will also dispose of, at private sale, his furniture, and a carriage and a pair of horses, together or separately.

WILLIAM KILTY.
