

THE REVENGE ARRIVED.

By a gentleman from Baltimore we are informed that the U. S. schooner Revenge has arrived at New York from England, left from France.

PORTUGAL.

By a short arrival this forenoon from Charleston we are informed, that a vessel had just reached that place from Europe, which had spoken on her passage the Portuguese fleet, having on board the prince royal, and all the royal family, together with the principal nobility, bound for the Brazils. The French army were on their march towards Portugal.

The British lugger Alarm, mentioned in a Charleston paper, the latter end of October, fell in with the Portuguese fleet, from Lisbon for the Brazils, having on board the queen, prince regent, and most of the nobility. The fleet consisted of 32 sail, 16 of which were of the line, conveyed by the British. The French had taken Lisbon.

The United States brig Hornet, DART, Esq; commander, anchored in Charleston harbour on the 10th ultimo, in 42 days from Malaga—she fired a salute on passing Fort Johnson.

We learn by this arrival, that neutral vessels of all descriptions are captured by the belligerent powers in the Mediterranean. All communication with Gibraltar had been interdicted on pain of death. It was reported that the French were about to embark forty thousand troops in Russian bottoms, for the invasion of Sicily, but their success would be doubtful, as the British were erecting fortifications, and using every means in their power to oppose them.

Gun-boat, No. 36, was drove ashore high and dry on Saturday about 1 o'clock, between the quarantine ground and the signal poles, and from the situation she lays in, it is presumed she cannot be got off.

William Wood, Esquire, is appointed to succeed Governor Wood, Esquire, in his Britannic majesty's vice consul, for the port of Baltimore—and the president of the United States has been pleased by his exequatur under the seal of the United States, to recognize him as such.

Madame Staël has been banished by the order of the French emperor, to her estate in Switzerland, for having written the elegant novel of Corinne, in which, to a beautiful review of the fine arts in Italy, she has given a very flattering analysis and illustration of the English character and manners.

The following article we find in the Journal Du Commerce of the 11th October.

PARIS, October 10.

THE object of the bill is to obtain a conveyance to the complainant for part of a tract of land called "Parker's Enlargement," situate in Prince-George's county, or a sale thereof, to discharge the purchase money due to the complainant.

The bill states, that the complainant sold and conveyed the land to the defendant, Benjamin Hodges, who was for the land to pay a debt due from the complainant to Thomas Sprigg; the defendant neglected and the debt has since been paid by the complainant; it also states, that the defendant, John Hodges, of Thomas, was apprised of the contract, and that the other defendant had not complied therewith, yet he has since obtained a deed for the land from the other defendant, and that the said Benjamin Hodges resides out of the state of Maryland.

It is thereupon, on the complainant's motion, ordered, that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted for three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette before the first day of January, 1808, to the end that the defendant, nontendent, may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court, in person or by a solicitor, on or before the first Monday in May, 1808, to shew cause whereupon a decree should not pass as prayed.
