SELECTED.

TO AN OAK.

KNOWN ONLY BY THE WIND.

From Hadesford.

Thou, who, unmov'd, hast heard the whirlwind chide
Full many a winter round thy craggy bed;
And, like an earth born giant, halt outspread
Thy hundred arms, and heaven's own bolts defied
Now lie along thy native mountain side
Up, to;—yet deem not that I come to shed
The idle drops of pity o'er thy head,
Or barely to insult thy blasted pride—
No—'tis a thine though fallen, imperial Oak!
To teach this lesson to the wife and brave,
That 'tis much better, overthrown and broke
In Freedom's cause to sink into the grave,
Than, in submission to a tyrant's yoke,
Like the vile reed, to bow and be a slave.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Valuable Negroes for Sale.

On Tuesday the 5th day of January next, will be SOLD, to the highest bidder, at the dwelling plantation of the Mills Hoods, near the city of Annapolis, for cash only,
BETWEEN thirty and forty valuable country born SLAVES, consisting of men, women and children, among whom are two house carpenters and joiners, several house servants and cooks. The cause of these negroes being sold is, they have too many and mean to reduce their number by sale. No person from any of the southern states, or their agents, will be permitted to bid. Sale to commence at eleven o'clock, and continue until all are sold, by WILLIAM WORTHINGTON, Senr.
Acting for the Mills Hoods.
December 12, 1807.

State of Maryland, to wit:

THEODORE R. S. BOYCE, of Anne-Arundel county, having applied to me in the recess of the court, by petition, praying the benefit of the insolvent laws of this state, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the said Theodore R. S. Boyce having satisfied me that he has resided the two years preceding his application within the state of Maryland, and having, at the time of presenting his petition as aforesaid, produced to me the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two thirds of the debts owing by him; it is thereupon ordered, that the said Theodore R. S. Boyce, by having a copy of this order inserted in Mr. Green's paper, at Annapolis, for three months next succeeding the date hereof, give notice to his creditors to appear before the Anne-Arundel county court, at Annapolis, on the third Monday in April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit.

Given under my hand, in Anne-Arundel county, the 18th of November, 1807.

By the Committee of Claims.

THE COMMITTEE of CLAIMS will sit every day, during the present session, from nine o'clock in the morning until three in the afternoon.
By order, WALLACE DIXON, Clk.

By the Committee of Grievances and Courts of Justice.

THE COMMITTEE of GRIEVANCES & COURTS of JUSTICE will sit every day, during the present session, from nine o'clock in the morning until three in the afternoon.
By order, GEORGE WINCHESTER, Clk.

For Sale,

A TRACT of LAND, in Anne-Arundel county, near South-River church, containing 176 acres, whereon William Cheney now lives. The said land is well adapted to the cultivation of all kinds of produce, and has orchards of choice fruit; the buildings are comfortable and convenient. It is proposed that persons inclined to purchase will first view the property. This land will be sold on accommodating terms to a suitable purchaser. For particulars apply to Nicholas Brewer, of the city of Annapolis.

October 26, 1807. FRANCES YATES.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT I intend to petition the judges of Baltimore county court, or some one of them, for the benefit of an act of insolvency of this state, passed at November session, 1805, and the supplement thereto, passed in 1806, to relieve me from individual debts as well as from those contracted under the firm of Sotheren and Dunn, which I am unable to pay.

Grand Lottery, Baltimore,

AUTHORISED by the general assembly of the state of Maryland, the scheme of which is the most brilliant ever offered to the citizens of the United States, containing besides a large number of other good prizes

- 1 prize of 30,000 dollars,
- 1 do. of 15,000 dollars,
- 3 do. of 10,000 dollars,
- 2 do. of 5000 dollars,
- 8 do. of 1500 dollars,
- 7 do. of 1000 dollars,

Not two blanks, a prize, and the lowest prize twelve dollars. The scheme contains only 21,000 tickets, 10,000 of which are already sold to a company of gentlemen in New-York, to whom the managers have obligated themselves to commence the drawing in the city of Baltimore, on Thursday the 31st day of DECEMBER next, and to draw 500 tickets per day.

Tickets and shares are now selling in a variety of numbers and very rapidly, at TEN Dollars and a HALF each, for a short time, at
G. & R. WAITE'S.

Truly fortunate Lottery office, corner of Market and Charles streets Baltimore.

The grandeur of the scheme of the above lottery together with an assurance from the managers that it will positively commence drawing on the 31st day of December next, have been a sufficient inducement for the subscribers to come to the city of Baltimore for the express purpose of facilitating the sale of the tickets.
G. & R. WAITE.

One of the above firm will personally attend the drawing daily, to take down the numbers correctly as will also one of their clerks.

The next New-York lottery will not commence drawing till April next—tickets of which lottery may be had at Waite's offices, No. 64 and No. 39 Maiden Lane New-York.

* Distant adventurers accompanying their orders with bank notes, of any description to either of Waite's offices, in New-York or Baltimore, may have tickets and shares forwarded to any amount with the utmost punctuality, and the earliest advice sent them of their success. All prizes sold by G. & R. Waite, will be paid by them.
October 12, 1807.

A Runaway.

COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, on Friday, the 9th instant, a negro man who has his name is GEORGE, that he was formerly the property of col. William Alexander, Virginia, by him was sold to a Mr. Robertson, of Ohio, from whom he escaped when on his way home about a month since; he is a well made fellow; about six feet high, rather tawny complexion, about twenty-five years old; his cloathing when committed a round grey cloth jacket, home made trousers and oznabrigs shirt. His owner is desired to take him away or he will be sold agreeable to law for prison fees and other expences.
NOTLEY MADDOX, Sheriff of Prince George's county.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber living near the mouth of Monocacy river, in Montgomery county, a Negro Man named JOHN, about 6 feet one inch high, 37 years of age—he has a fair countenance and is very free when spoken to. He was on when he went away an oznabrig shirt and trousers, short kersey jacket, and old shoes. He was formerly the property of Horatio Johnson, on Elk Ridge, and has been frequently seen in that neighbourhood. Whoever takes up the said negro and cures him in jail so that I get him again shall receive if taken one hundred miles from home, one hundred dollars, and so in proportion for a smaller distance.
