

George and John Barber.

ONCE more respectfully request all persons indebted to them to come forward and settle the same, either by cash or notes of hand—such as refuse to comply are warned that the law will be enforced against them.

Farmers Bank stock will be received, at six per cent. advance, from any person, in settlement, who will transfer the same before the first day of April next.

They still continue to keep a large assortment of GROCERIES, PAINTS, OILS, TAR, &c. and have on hand a few DRY GOODS, all which they will sell low for cash, or on credit to punctual customers.

Their PACKETS from this city to Baltimore will commence running three times a week about the first day of April next, when persons will meet with a ready carriage for goods, grain and tobacco, and passengers with good accommodations, till then they will run as the weather may permit. Persons having goods to put on board will please to be particular in directing them to prevent miscarriage—They have also a SCHOONER which will carry upwards of fifty bbls. tobacco, which they will employ on freight to any place on the Chesapeake bay, to carry grain, tobacco, wood, passengers, or any thing not contrary to law.

They return their sincere thanks to their friends and patrons, and hope they shall ever continue to deserve their patronage till worn out with service, they retire from their duty with the pleasing hope that they have honourably acquitted themselves in their arduous task.

A few barrels of excellent HERRINGS for sale.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away, on the 1st day of October, 1807, from the subscriber, in Prince-George's county, two miles from the Governor's Bridge, a negro man named SAM, but sometimes calls himself SAM JOINTNER, he is about five feet seven inches high, a little bow legged, slops as he walks, has short wool, and is fond of strong liquor; he is upwards of 50 years of age; his cloathing unknown; he may change his name, and endeavour to pass for a free man; I suspect he is harboured either at Mr. Fielder Gantt's, or maj. Stoddert's quarters, or the Federal city, where he has relations. Whoever takes up said negro, and brings him home, or secures him in gaol, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward.

MAREEN DUVALL.

All masters of vessels, and others, are forewarned harbouring, employing, or carrying off said fellow, at their peril.

In CHANCERY, February 5, 1808.

Thomas Sellman, against

Dennis Battee, and others, heirs at law of John Battee.

THE object of the bill in this cause filed, is to obtain from the defendants a conveyance of three tracts of land, in Anne-Arundel county, called Burrage, Burrage's Blossom, and Burrage's End; the bill states, that John Battee, in his life-time, gave his bond to a certain Leonard Sellman, in the penalty of two thousand pounds current money, for the conveyance of said land, that said bond was assigned by Leonard Sellman to the complainant, that the whole of the purchase money has been paid to said Battee, that the complainant has had peaceable possession of the property since the assignment, and that Dennis Battee, one of the defendants, is out of the state of Maryland, beyond the jurisdiction of this court. It is thereupon, this 5th day of February, 1808, by William Kilty, Chancellor, and by the authority of this court, adjudged and ordered, that the complainant cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette, at least three successive weeks before the 5th day of March next, warning the said Dennis Battee that he be and appear in this court, in person, or by solicitor, on or before the 5th day of July next, to shew cause why a decree should not pass as prayed.

True copy,

NICHOLAS BREWER, Reg. Cur. Can.

In CHANCERY, February 6, 1808.

ORDERED, That the sale made by RICHARD H. HARWOOD, trustee for the sale of the real estate of BENJAMIN BURGESS, deceased, shall be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary be shewn before the 5th day of April next, provided a copy of this order be inserted three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette before the 5th day of March next.

The report states, that 120 acres of land, in Anne-Arundel county, was sold at ten dollars per acre, incumbered with dower.

True copy, NICHOLAS BREWER, Reg. Cur. Can.

In CHANCERY, February 5, 1808.

George Wells and Gideon White, vs.

Samuel Young, heir at law of John Young, deceased.

THE object of the bill in this cause filed, is to obtain a decree for the sale of the real estate of John Young, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased; the bill states, that the said John Young, at the time of his death, was indebted to the said George Wells, on open account, in the sum of fifteen pounds three shillings and a penny, and to the said Gideon White in the sum of thirty-seven pounds two shillings and ten pence, that the personal estate of the deceased is wholly insufficient for the payment of his debts, and that Samuel Young, the defendant, is heir at law of the said John Young, and out of the state of Maryland, beyond the jurisdiction of this court. It is thereupon, this 5th day of February, eighteen hundred and eight, by William Kilty, chancellor, and by the authority of this court, adjudged, ordered, and decreed, that the complainants cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette, at least three successive weeks, before the 5th day of March, warning the defendant that he be and appear in this court, in person, or by solicitor, on or before the 5th day of July next, to shew cause why a decree should not pass as prayed.

True copy,

NICHOLAS BREWER, Reg. Cur. Can.

A Runaway.

COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, on Friday, the 9th instant, a negro man who says his name is GEORGE, that he was formerly the property of col. William Alexander, Virginia, by him was sold to a Mr. Robertson, of Ohio, from whom he escaped when on his way home about a month since; he is a well made fellow, about six feet high, rather tawny complexion, about twenty-five years old; his cloathing when committed a round grey cloth jacket, home made trousers and oznabrigs shirt. His owner is desired to take him away or he will be sold agreeable to law for prison fees and other expenses.

NOTLEY MADDOX, Sheriff of Prince George's count.

Black Horse Tavern.

THE subscriber takes the liberty of informing his friends, and the public generally, that he has removed to the noted tavern, on the Baltimore road, known by the name of the Black Horse, where he is well provided with every thing in the public line for the accommodation of travellers, and hopes from his attention to merit the support of a generous public.

He also retails groceries, viz. best Cognac brandy, spirit, gin, common rum, and whisky, loaf and brown sugars, teas, coffee and chocolate, candles, soap, &c. with every other article in the grocery line, all of which will be sold low for cash, or exchanged for produce at the market price.

JOHN WELCH.

N. B. I forewarn all persons from hunting with either dog or gun on the Black Horse plantation, or in any manner passing through the said premises, other than the road directs; having already sustained considerable injury, I am determined to prosecute all offenders with the utmost rigour of the law.

December 23, 1807. J. W.

Ten Dollars Reward.

STRAYED or stolen, from the subscriber's yard, on the night of the 5th instant, a large bright bay HORSE, about fourteen hands high, with a white face, and one of his hind feet white, also a remarkable iron grey mark on one side of his belly, it is not recollected which; much rubbed with the breech-band; he is a natural trotter. I will give five dollars for the horse alone, and all reasonable expenses, or for horse and thief the above reward.

JACOB H. SLEMAKER.

Annapolis, January 11, 1808.

To the Voters of Anne-Arundel county, and City of Annapolis:

GENTLEMEN,

FROM the promised support of many of my fellow-citizens I am encouraged to offer myself a candidate for the next SHERIFFALTY of this county; should I be honoured with your support on that occasion, you may rest assured, that every exertion on my part will be used to discharge the duties that will necessarily devolve on me with industry and fidelity.

I am, Gentlemen,
