George and John Barber,

ONCE more respectfully request all persons indebted to them to come forward and settle the same, either by cash or notes of hand—such as refuse to comply are warned that the law will be enforced against them.

Farmers Bank stock will be received, at six per cent. advance, from any person, in settlement, who will transfer the same before the first day of April next.

They still continue to keep a large assortment of GROCERIES, PAINTS, OILS, TAR, &c. and have on hand a few DRY GOODS, all which they will sell low for cash, or on credit to punctual customers.

Their PACKETS from this city to Baltimore will commence running three times a week about the first day of April next, when persons will meet with a ready carriage for goods, grain and tobacco, and passengers with good accommodations, till then they will run as the weather may permit. Persons having goods to put on board will please to be particular in directing them to prevent miscarriage. They have also a Schooner which will carry upwards of fifty tons of tobacco, which they will employ on freight to any place on the Chesapeake bay, to carry grain, tobacco, wood, passengers, or any thing not contrary to law.

They return their sincere thanks to their friends and patrons, and hope they shall ever continue to deserve their patronage till worn out with service, they retire from their duty with the pleasing hope that they have honourably acquitted themselves in their arduous task.

In CHANCERY, February 23, 1808. Francis Cromwell and Cockey Pumphrey, vs.

William Ridgely, Rhody Ridgely, and Susanna Pumphrey.

THE object of the bill is to obtain a legal title to two tracts of land, called Milford and Tyler's Lot, situate in Anne-Arundel county, to the complainant Francis Cromwell. The bill states, that Mordecai Ridgely was seized in fee of the above land, and one William Pumphrey was seized in fee of a tract called Jacob's Fortune, situate in the same county; that they exchanged, and each obtained the possession of the land exchanged, the right of Mordecai Ridgely, by mesne transfers, came to one John Boone, who by a decree obtained the legal estate; it also states, that William Pumphrey devised the land he received in exchange to Susanna Pumphrey for life, remainder to Cockey Pumphrey in fee; it also states, Mordecai Ridgely died intestate, leaving William and Rhody Ridgely his heirs at law, the former of whom resides out of the state. It is thereupon, by William Kilty, chancellor, and by the authority of this court, on the motion of the complainants, ordered, that they cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette at least three weeks before the 24th day of March next, to the intent that the absent defendant may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in court in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the 4th Monday in July next, to shew cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.
