

Union Tavern, Annapolis.

CHARLES HENRY WILLIGMAN respectfully informs his friends, and the public in general, that he has taken that justly celebrated Inn in this city, called the Union Tavern, lately in the possession of Mr. Samuel J. Coolidge; he hopes, by his assiduity and attention, to give the greatest satisfaction to every person, as no exertion on his part shall be wanted to keep up the high character which this tavern has, as being one of the best in the union. Charles H. Willigman likewise begs all persons to deal with his servants, or to let them have anything without a permission in writing from him, or he will be, very much against his inclination, compelled to take those steps which the law directs for preventing them, if they do not attend to this warning.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the plantation of the late Thomas Wm. Walker, near Queen-Anne, Anne-Arundel county, on Sunday, the 3d inst. without any provocation whatever, a negro woman named CHARITY, a dark mulatto, about 5 feet one inch high, about 36 years of age, she has a broad flat face, with large thick lips, and has a habit of sucking her tongue; she is very homely, and took with her all her cloathing, consisting of one striped country cloth jacket and two petticoats, one white cotton gown, one dark calico jacket and petticoat, one old yellow calico gown, two striped shirts, and one white cotton do. one check apron, and one blue and white handkerchief, which she occasionally wears round her head. This same woman was out five months last summer and fall, during the greater part of that time she lived with a free negro living on the place occupied by Mr. Thomas Simmons, in the lower part of this county. She has lately taken up with a free negro by the name of Robert Lovely, he is a luffy black fellow and follows shoemaking; he has lately moved from this neighbourhood, and have reason to believe that he lives in the lower part of this county on or near the bay, and near Calvert county. Whoever apprehends said woman, and secures her in gaol so that I get her again, shall receive, if taken 20 miles from home, 10 collars, if over that distance the above reward, by SAMUEL TYLER, near Queen-Anne, Anne-Arundel county.
N. B. I forewarn any person or persons from harbouring said negro, or from taking her on board any vessel at their peril.

Thomas Leach, vs.
Polly Dorsey, Matilda Dorsey, Elias Dorsey, Laven L. Dorsey, and Urith Dorsey, heirs at law of Edward Dorsey, son of Vachel.

THE object of the complainant's bill is to obtain a decree for the conveyance of part of a tract or parcel of land, situate and lying in Anne Arundel county, called Belt's Hills, containing one hundred and eighty-two and one half acres. The bill states, that the complainant, on the thirty-first day of March, in the year eighteen hundred, purchased of the said Edward Dorsey the parcel of land aforesaid, at and for the sum of nine hundred and twenty-two dollars and fifty cents, and that the said Edward Dorsey on that day executed a bond of conveyance to the complainants, obligating himself and his heirs, to convey the same, on payment of the purchase money, the whole of which hath been paid, except the sum of £. 55 18 9. It is further stated, that the said Edward Dorsey hath departed this life, leaving the defendants his heirs at law, who are minors, and reside in the state of Kentucky. It is therefore, on motion of the complainant, adjudged and ordered, that he cause a copy of this order to be published in the Maryland Gazette three weeks before the 30th day of July next, to the end that the said defendants may be notified to appear in this court, on or before the 30th day of November next, either in person, or by guardian, to shew cause, if any they have, why a decree should not pass as prayed for.

THE subscriber takes this method of calling on all those who are indebted to him, and requests they may consider that from the nature of his business it cannot be carried on without money; let not any think their accounts too small to be worth attending to, or so large that they cannot spare the full amount, he assures them any proportion will be thankfully received; hitherto he has not used any compulsory measure since the embargo, but cannot say how long the state of his business will permit him to forbear. All those whose accounts have been standing twelve months are requested to call and give their notes, if they cannot pay the cash.
