Union Tavern, Annapolis.

CHARLES HENRY WILLIGMAN, fully informs his friends, and the public in general, that he has taken the justly celebrated Inn in this city, called the Union Tavern, lately in the possession of Mr. Samuel J. Coolidge; he hopes, by his assiduity and attention, to give the greatest satisfaction to every person, as no exertion on his part shall be wanted to keep up the high character which this tavern has, as being one of the best in the union.

Charles H. Willigman likewise begs all persons not to deal with his servants, or to let them have any thing without a permission in writing from him, or he will be, very much against his inclination, compelled to take those steps which the law directs for preventing them, if they do not attend to this warning.

NOTICE.

All those whose accounts have been standing twelve months are requested to call and give their notes, if they cannot pay the cash.
