

PROCLAMATION

Of the Spanish Ladies at Alicante.

The government has as yet offended the fair sex—and many there are among us who cannot contain their resentment. Are we not useful for any thing in the present occurrences? Would they refuse our employing ourselves in the labours suited to our sex? Our honour is called in question, and we require entire satisfaction. How can you repair our wrongs? Employ us immediately in those decent occupations which can alleviate, give assistance, and support our brave warriors.

Worcester, (Mass.) Aug. 27.

SINGULAR CIRCUMSTANCE.

Last evening a son of Mr. Eleazer Hawes, of Marlborough, about 11 years old, accidentally got a cent into the lower part of the oesophagus. A puke and other means were employed in bringing it up, without any effect. It got into the stomach. Drafts, cathartick and other means were also used, without any effect. Olive oil was the principal medicine used afterwards. It continued to lay in his stomach until the boy was sent to ride four or five miles in haste, when he immediately felt a pain in his bowels; the next day the cent passed from him, which made 6 months and about an hour that it lay in him. At the time the boy swallowed it he had the hooping cough, and it immediately cured him, by the salivation of the copper, and it continued to salivate almost the whole time it lay in him.

The cent, by trying its weight with another one of the same stamp and date, was found to lose one fifteenth part of its weight; which by the same rule would have taken eight years to digest the whole cent.

NASHVILLE, (T.) July 19. INDIANS.

For several weeks we have scarcely seen a traveller through the wilderness, who has not complained of some outrage of the Indians; and the evil complained of, we fear is not likely to be remedied until new agents are appointed, and stricter order. An agent we are informed has been speculating in corn, to the no small discredit of the United States, and vexation of the Indians.—The eye of government is required in that quarter.

The Standard of 74 guns, capt. Hervey, has captured off Corfu the Friedland, Italian brig of war of 16 1/2 pounders, having on board commodore Don Amilcar Faluzer, commander in chief of the Italian marines.—The zebeck Etoile Buonaparte; of 6 guns, has been captured off de Le Unite, by a British frigate of 40 guns, cap. Campbell, having on board an aide-camp of gen. Berthier.

By a letter from Bourdeaux to a gentleman in this city, dated in May, we learn that sugar sold in that city for the enormous price of five francs per lb. and indigo at 60 francs per lb.—It also states, that the peasantry of the country are in a very miserable state.

MARRIED.

On Tuesday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. WYATT, Mr. CHARLES HENRY WILLIGMAN, to Miss CATHERINE JACKSON.

JOHN J. HELLIN, Administrator. July 15, 1808.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT the subscriber intends to apply to the next county court of Anne-Arundel, or one of the judges thereof, for the benefit of the insolvent

J. E. TILLY.

In CHANCERY, August 24, 1808.

Zachariah Jacob, executor and devisee of Dorsey Jacob, against

Bartholomew Lynch, or his legal representatives.

THE object of the bill is to revive certain proceedings heretofore had in this court by the said Dorsey Jacob, against the said Bartholomew Lynch, or his legal representatives, to foreclose a mortgage, executed on the seventh day of May, seventeen hundred and sixty-three, by Bartholomew Lynch, conveying to Upton Scott, a tract or parcel of land, called Sawyer's Range, containing one hundred acres, to save the payment of fifty three pounds, current money, and the expence of recording the mortgage deed, which said mortgage was assigned by said Scott to Dorsey Jacob, by deed dated the third day of February, seventeen hundred and ninety-seven, the bill reciting the original bill, states, that the mortgagor hath removed to places unknown out of the state, and it cannot be ascertained whether such mortgagor is dead or alive, or if dead who are the legal representatives of such person, or whether he hath left any; it also states, that the now complainant is executor and devisee of the said Dorsey Jacob. It is thereupon, on motion of the said Zachariah Jacob, ordered and adjudged, that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette before the 24th day of September next, to the intent that the above named Bartholomew Lynch, or his legal representatives, if any there be, may have notice of the present application, and the object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court, in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the 24th day of January next, to shew cause (if any there be) why the said proceedings should not be revived, and be in the same condition as the same were in at the time of the death of the said Dorsey Jacob, and why a decree should not pass as prayed in the original bill.

NICHOLAS BREWER, Reg. Cur. Can.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber having complied with the acts of assembly relative to insolvent debtors, hereby gives notice to his creditors, to shew cause, if any they have, on the second day of Anne-Arundel county court, at September term, 1808, why he should not be discharged.

WILLIAM PENNINGTON.

August 29, 1808.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of three writs of venditioni exponas to me directed out of the court of appeals for the western shore of the State of Maryland, will be exposed to public sale, on Saturday, the 10th of September, on the premises, at 11 o'clock, A. M. for cash,

THE following tracts or parcels of LAND, situate on Elk-Ridge, in Anne-Arundel county, to wit: Dorsey's Adventure, Dorsey's Inheritance, Good for Little, Resurvey on Good for Little, Chew's Vineyard, and Adam the First, supposed to contain 900 acres; seized and taken as the property of Luther Martin, Esquire, at the suits of John Dorsey, use of Elizabeth Dorsey, executrix of Thomas Dorsey, and the State of Maryland.

JOSEPH M'GENEY, Sheriff of Anne-Arundel county.

August 23, 1808.

SALE.

WHEREAS a certain negro man named JEAN FRANCOIS, was committed to the goal of Anne-Arundel county, upon suspicion of being a runaway slave, and whereas no application has been made for said negro by his owner, notice is hereby given, that the subscriber will expose the said negro man to public sale, on Friday, the ninth day of September next, at the goal, in the city of Annapolis, at 11 o'clock, for cash, pursuant to the provisions of the act of assembly in such cases made and provided.

JOSEPH M'GENEY, Sheriff of Anne-Arundel county.

August 18, 1808.

To be Rented.

THE subscriber will rent the well known tavern, where Mr. THOMAS ELLIOTT now lives, the situation is equal to any in the country, with a good farm thereto annexed, also the plantation where Mr. RICHARD FOGGETT now lives, known by the name of Rawlings's Tavern. Those farms will either answer for taverns or private families. Any person inclined to rent will apply to the subscriber, on or before the 1st of November next, or they will be set up to the highest bidder.

RICHARD HARWOOD.

Anne-Arundel county, August 23, 1808.

Notice.

THE ill health of the subscriber having compelled him to relinquish the Union Tavern, and to leave Annapolis for a few months, he requests all persons to whom he may be indebted to present their accounts to THOMAS H. BOWIE, Esq; who is authorized to discharge the same out of any monies received for his use, and those who are indebted to him are requested to call on Mr. Bowie and settle or liquidate their respective accounts by the first of September next, or suits will be immediately commenced against them.

SAMUEL J. COOLIDGE.

James Williamson,

BEGS leave to inform the public generally, and his customers particularly, that he has removed to the house formerly occupied by A. C. HANSON, Esquire, in Church-street, a little above the Printing-office, where he carries on the SADDLING BUSINESS in all its branches, in the neatest manner, and at the lowest rates. He takes this opportunity of returning thanks to all those who have heretofore employed him, and respectfully solicits a continuance of their favours.

Annapolis, August, 1808.

Union Tavern, Annapolis.

CHARLES HENRY WILLIGMAN respectfully informs his friends, and the public in general, that he has taken that justly celebrated Inn in this city, called the Union Tavern, lately in the possession of Mr. Samuel J. Coolidge; he hopes, by his assiduity and attention, to give the greatest satisfaction to every person, as no exertion on his part shall be wanted to keep up the high character which this tavern has, as being one of the best in the union.

Charles H. Willigman likewise begs all persons not to deal with his servants, or to let them have any thing without a permission in writing from him, or he will be, very much against his inclination, compelled to take those steps which the law directs for preventing them, if they do not attend to this warning.

Annapolis, July 15, 1808.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT I intend to apply to the judges of Anne-Arundel county court, or some one of them in the recess of the court, for the benefit of an act of assembly, passed at November session, 1805, to relieve me from debts I am unable to pay, after two months notice from the date hereof.

ALEXANDER LAING.

A STRAY.

CAME to the plantation of the subscriber, living on the south side of Severn river, near Annapolis, some time last summer, a red BULL, unmarked, appears to be about two years old. The owner is requested to come and prove property, pay the expence of this advertisement, and take him away.

WILLIAM WATSON.

August 15, 1808.

To the voters of Anne-Arundel county, and the City of Annapolis.

FELLOW-CITIZENS,

I AM induced to solicit your support at the ensuing election for SHERIFF, and, if elected, I trust those who may be disposed to favour me with their suffrages will never have reason to repent a misplaced confidence.

Your obt. servt.

R. WEICH, of BEN.

To the Voters of Anne-Arundel county, and City of Annapolis.

GENTLEMEN,

FROM the promised support of many of my fellow-citizens I am encouraged to offer myself a candidate for the next SHERIFFALTY of this county; should I be honoured with your support on that occasion, you may rest assured, that every exertion on my part will be used to discharge the duties that will necessarily devolve on me with industry and fidelity.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obt. servant,

SOLOMON GROVES.

September, 1807.

A Stray Cow.

CAME to the subscriber's plantation in Anne-Arundel county, on the old road from Baltimore to Frederick town, on the 13th of July, 1808, a light brown COW, marked with swallow fork in the left ear, and a hole in the right, three holes in each horn, a star in her forehead, and white under her belly. The owner is desired to prove his property, pay charges, and take her away.

CALEB HOBBS.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber takes this method of calling on all those who are indebted to him, and requests they may consider that from the nature of his business it cannot be carried on without money; let not any think their accounts too small to be worth attending to, or so large that they cannot spare the full amount, he assures them any proportion will be thankfully received; hitherto he has not used any compulsory measure since the embargo, but cannot say how long the state of his business will permit him to forbear. All those whose accounts have been standing twelve months are requested to call and give their notes, if they cannot pay the cash.

JOHN MUNROE.

NOTICE.

I HEREBY give notice, that I mean to apply, on the second Monday in October next, to some one judge of Anne-Arundel county court, for the benefit of the law for the relief of insolvent debtors.

RICHARD ARNOLD.
