

Poet's Corner.

SELECTED.

STANZAS.

Written by the Rev. J. M. Harris, while on a journey in pursuit of his health.

POOR feeble wanderer destined still to roam,
In search of health beneath serener skies,
Still on the pensive thought, my distant home,
And all its dear domestic cares arise.
Through months of sickness and of languor there,
With every kind attention I was blest,
My lovely Partner, footh'd each rising care,
Watch'd at my bed, and lull'd my woes to rest.
Now far remov'd from all such gentle aid,
Surrounded by the thoughtless and the gay,
To ask for help, unwilling or afraid,
I pass the sleepless night and dreary day.
O may the warming Sun and vernal gales,
Health to this enervated frame restore,
Then will I seek again my native vales,
And visit my beloved home once more.
E'en now I seem to hear my MARY's voice,
Welcome my safe return in accents bland;
And see my beautiful girl, and sprightly boys,
Press round to share my kifs, and clasp my hand.
The vision fades! mere fancy and deceit!
To reach that home may ne'er to me be giv'n,
Yet I again my family shall meet,
No more to part, at our blest home in Heav'n.

Revolution in Mexico.

A PASSENGER in the ship Pierce, Manning, has politely favoured us with a file of the Havanna Aurora, to the 26th Oct.

A revolution in favour of Ferdinand 7th has taken place in Mexico. It appears that the Vice Roy, and the officers of his administration, were inimical to the young king, whose cause the people were determined, by loyalty and affection, to support. It was discovered that the Vice-Roy, and several of the Priests and nobility, had been tampered with by France, and that it was in contemplation to acknowledge the king selected for them from the illustrious house of Buonaparte. In the evening of the 16th of September the people assembled and thirty of the principal inhabitants were arrested and confined in Fort St. Juan de Oleia; among whom was the Vice Roy and his three secretaries, and four Ecclesiasticks. Among the papers of an abby, who was one of the prisoners, it was discovered that he had been promised, by Murat, to be made Archbishop of Mexico, as a reward for his treason. A junta has been established, which has proclaimed Ferdinand 7th, and acknowledged the supremacy of the junta of Seville. The following property, belonging to the Vice Roy of Mexico, has been seized by the patriots: found in his palace 55,085 dollars in money; in plate and jewels 250,000 dollars; silver in bars 40,000 dollars; in the mint 400,000 dollars; deposited in different houses 200,000 dollars, and 600,000 dollars had been deposited in several mines in the name of his wife.

The patriots in Guatemala say, that Ferdinand 7th is their lawful sovereign, because Charles 6th. when he was at perfect liberty, voluntarily surrendered his crown to him; but the transfer to Buonaparte was a compulsory act, and not obligatory upon the nation. [Charleston Times.]

In searching the palace of the late Vice-Roy during the recent revolution in Mexico, there were found concealed 3000 fusils, 12,000 cartridges, and a large quantity of gun-powder. The field pieces of the guard were also found charged with cannon and grape-shot.

It appears from the papers of the persons arrested, that their plans were matured, and were to be put in execution on the 19th September. It was a principal object to excite a spirit of animosity in the natives against the Spaniards, and a horrible massacre of all the loyalists was intended. Fortunately for the province, the conspiracy was discovered three days before the period fixed upon for carrying it into effect. [Ibid.]

Important Discovery.

At this unexpected crisis, when the despotic powers of Europe are exerting themselves to destroy our commerce—it is a satisfaction to be able to inform our readers of any discovery, however trivial, which tends to show the world the immensity of our internal resources, when necessary to be called into action. It is with pleasure we announce, at this time, that an immense quantity of Antimonial Ore has been discovered in the state of New-Jersey, superior in quality to any imported. Its importance in promoting the useful arts is well known. It forms the principal material in the manufacture of Printer's Types and the basis of many medical preparations. In the course of a few days we shall be enabled to give a more circumstantial account of the discovery. [N. York Pub. Adv.]

RACING.

Yesterday the Match Race, between Mr. Caleb Boush's colt Sir Solomon, by Fickle Toby, 3 years old, carrying 110lbs. and Mr. W. Wynn's horse Gallatin, by Diomed, 4 years old, 120lbs. 4 mile heats, was run over the new course, and won with ease by Sir Solomon. The first was a fine heat, and well contested. The performance of Sir Solomon induces a belief that next fall he will be equal to any horse in America. [Norfolk paper.]

Mr. Boush has been offered 8000 dollars for Sir Solomon, who won the race at Norfolk, which he has refused. [Ev. Post.]

The congressional library has recently received a handsome addition of volumes, procured by the agency of the joint committee of the senate and house of representatives, appointed for that purpose. Among others, we observe the "Gentleman's Magazine," in 57 volumes, the works of Swift, and a variety of law books, as well as miscellaneous literature. [Monitor.]

A Paris article of the 23d August says, that the American dispatch schooner Hope, capt. Woodward, arrived at Havre, had on board three chests containing the skeleton of a singular animal (Mammoth) as a present from the president of the United States to the French National Institute. [Phil. Paper.]

The Boston Gazette of the 21st ult. says, we have seen a letter from the captain of an American vessel, to a merchant in this town, dated Havanna, October 24, received per brig Swift, captain Noyes, arrived at Providence, in which he states that flour was then selling at the enormous price of 60 dollars per barrel. [Fed. Gaz.]

The Subscribers will Sell,

Low for CASH, the following ARTICLES, the greater part of which were received this fall, viz—
SUPERFINE and second clothes, double milled casimers and fancy waistcoating, velvets, thick-frets, and corduroys, Bennett's and president's cords, fine flannels, plains, halfsticks, and kerseys, long lawn, linen and cambrick pocket handkerchiefs, shirting cambrick and cambrick muslins, plain, figured, mulmul and leno muslins, silk shawls and handkerchiefs, calicoes, dimities, cotton and chintz shawls, silk, cotton, and worsted stockings, cotton and black patonet laces, white, black, and coloured crapes, plaid and plain silk, extra long, short kid, and silk gloves, and many other articles in the dry goods way too numerous to insert, with a few pair of 11 and 12 quarter double rose blankets.

N. B. The subscribers to the Cyclopaedia are requested to call for the 8th vol. and those who have not got the 6th and 7th vols. are earnestly requested to come and get them, for unless they are more punctual in taking them away, it will not be convenient for us to continue the agency any longer, as it inconveniently occupies more capital than we are compensated for.
