CIRCULAR TO ALL APPLICANTS.
Humphreysville, December, 1808.

I am instructed to inform you, there will be a considerable number of full-bred Merinos for sale next season. The price will be 150 dollars each Ram or Ewe. Applications have already been received registered. Yours will be put on the list this date. Definitive engagements must be made before the first of May next; and in order to prevent disappointment on either side, it is clearly to be understood, that it is Humphreys's intention, that all persons who be supplied so far as his stock will permit, consistently with his arrangements to give a nursery for the public, according to the date of their applications. Under that condition, it is apprehended it will not be in power to accommodate all applicants. I expect your ultimate advice before the 1st of May.
