

Poet's Corner.

SELECTED.

HOW COLD IT IS.

V the blushing Bore flows:
All the waters round us freeze:
Trees that deck'd the hill of plain, Lay a marbling cry, and sighing, Trembling thickets bow their main, Sadly mingle snow with green, Dismal all from East to West:
Even defend the poor distress.
Such is the tale—
On hill and vale, Each gaze may behold it is:
While low and high
Are lead to cry, Bless my heart, How cold it is!

SHANNING! NO IMPROBITY!

And take off the head, loudly is not the clearest of modern inventions. With all incoming deference due to my fellow-citizens, I presume no man on the earth is of so much use to the public than I am—erudite—I feel as I ought to be—I feel—not a word about merit—No—No word!!!
My fellow-citizens of the State are informed that at the principal stores in Baltimore, Annapolis, &c. &c.
Harris's superior Razor-Steel, and Diamond Paste, different sizes, can be obtained with the best in print, on each. Beware of counterfeits, or imitations, look to your man who pledges himself to the public, that nothing but a razor-steel of certainty, agreeable to his printed directions, can, or will, be the effect. With sentiments of respect, fellow-citizens of Maryland, your very obedient servant,
J. HOPKINS, Philadelphia.

FIFTEEN DOLLARS REWARD.

MADE his escape out of the goal of Anne Arundel county, on the night of the 21st instant, a dark mulatto by the name of CHARLES, who sometimes calls himself KENNEDY, and sometimes WATKINS; he is about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, stout made, with a bushy head of wool, which he wears plaited before, and large whiskers, his countenance appears pale; his clothing two upper jackets, one of blue cloth, the other flannel country cloth, and trousers of the same, much patched, and hat, and cotton shirt, old stockings and no shoes, he appears to be about 40 or 45 years of age. As to FANNY, his wife, who I heard, was obliged to make his escape, she is about 5 feet 5 inches high, slender made, of black complexion; her clothing was a red silk lined handkerchief round her head, a white cotton handkerchief round her neck, a white cotton habit, coarse yarn stockings, and old shoes, with a match coat blanket, and part of a milled blanket, and some other articles stolen out of the house, with a young girl child, about three months old. Whoever discovers them, that the said of said county shall receive the above reward, or ten dollars for Charles and five for Fanny, paid by the subscriber, at the goal.

N. B. The subscribers to the Cyclopaedia are requested to call for the 8th vol. and those who have not got the 6th and 7th vols. are earnestly requested to come and get them, for unless they are more punctual in taking them away, it will not be convenient for us to continue the agency any longer, as it inconveniently occupies more capital than we are compensated for.

UNION TAVERN, ANNAPOLIS.

CHARLES HENRY WILLIGMAN respectfully informs his friends, and the public in general, that he has taken that justly celebrated Inn in this city, called the Union Tavern, lately in the possession of Mr. Samuel J. Coolidge; he hopes, by his assiduity and attention, to give the greatest satisfaction to every person, as no exertion on his part shall be wanted to keep up the high character which this tavern has, as being one of the best in the union.

Charles H. Willigman likewise begs of persons not to deal with his servants, or alet them have any thing without a permission in writing from him, or he will be very much against his inclination, compelled to take those steps which the law directs for preventing them, if they do not attend to this warning.
