Our letters from Liverpool, to March ift te, that notwithstanding the supplies recent-received, all articles of American produce, very high prices. Some cottons were ed at a dollar and a quarter per 1b.—The minon cottons at about 57 cents.—Flour, arch 1ft, was 12 1-2 dolla, the American rel. There is no part of England in which American embargo is so severely felt as [N. T. Gaz.] Liverpool.

We learn by capt. Parss, who arrived here lerday, in 15 days from Turks-Island, that single French privateer had recently caped, in Turks-Island passage, five American sels, outward bound, with cargoes, and dered them for St. Domingo.

A letter from Havanna of the 5th inft. tes that 50 fail of American vellels from United States had arrived there within tweek. A duty of ten dollar per bbl. Bour had been laid by the government to ble the holders of it that had bought at ranced prices to dispose on equal terms. ring to the holydays no buliness had been e; no sale of flour had been effected; price remained unfixed. Sugars (brown) risen from one and a half to four dollars. [American.]

Arrived at Baltimore, ship Messenger, 11 s from Havanna. The Messenger left this ce the railing of the embargo. No news. ere was a combination among the purchaof flour not to buy for a certain time, ha forfeiture of 1000 dollars on those that

The Lineil. COMMUNICATED.

Departed this life, on the 20th inft; Mr. Addison Conoway, of Prince George's county, in the 46th year of his age, after inf-fering a violent and rapid indisposition. It is but a just tribute due to this individual to fay, he was highly effected by all who knew him he was respected and valued by all his neighbours as being one among the most worthy members of fociety—he was an example of probity, morality, and a strong advocate for religion-In his last struggling efforts he expressed himfelf, " I am prepared to meet my Gon," and to those friends who surrounded his dying bed he affectionately bid farewell, with an undaunted hope, at some future time, of meeting them in a bleft futurity. He has lest an amiable wife and small children to deplore his irreparable loss. Long, long shall we feel his departure, and sympathize in the fufferings of his nearest relatives.

DOCTOR I. J. COMYN. A PROFESSIONAL DENTIST;

-(OF BALTIMORE,)-RESPECTFULLY acquaints the ladies and gentlemen of Annapolis, that he has, for their accommodation, made an excursion to this place, where he will practife for a few days only, as he is obliged to return to Baltimore by a certain day. necessity of cleanling the teeth, in order to preserve them, is obvious to all. No genteel person of either sex can give or receive pleasure or comfort by teeth coated with tartar, rotten gums or fetid breath. His method of cleaning the teeth will be found both easy and efficacious, as hundreds can attelt in Baltimore and elsewhere. Without giving pain, or hurting the enamel, he removes the tartar, &c. when the teeth will assume a beautiful appearance, the gums adhering to the teeth; but if the state of the gums require its application, Doctor Comyn will leave with the person an Anti Scorbutic Lotion of chymical preparation, which has obtained the applause of hundreds both in Europe and America; it is pleafant, innocent, and mostly effectual in smoothing and whitening the teeth, and bracing the gums, rendering them red and firm, preventing the decay of the teeth, and fweetening the breath. Doctor C. fits artificial teeth, from one to an entire fet, with fuch nicety as to answer the useful purposes of nature, and of so natural an appearance that it is impossible to distinguish them from real ones.

Dr. Comyn cannot remain, longer than next Wednesday, as his engagements require his return to Baltimore on Thursday. He may visit Annapolis again, when he shall have more leisure.

N. B. Doctor Comyn fits natural teeth with gold or filver screws, in the nicest manner possible, without incurring the smallest pain imaginable. He will wait on any lady or gentleman at their houses, or may be confulted at Mr. Willigman's tavern.
