second article of the Constitution and of Government, "that upon the death, ignation, or removal out of this State, of Governor, the first named of the Council the time being shall act as Governor, and ally in the same manner, and shall immeately call a meeting of the General Assemy, giving not less than fourteen days notice the meeting, at which meeting a governor ll be appointed in manner aforesaid for the idue of the year." And whereas his Excellency Robert Wright, Esquire, late goverr of this State, resigned the said office on aturday, the sixth instant, I have therefore, virtue of the above power and directions, ointed MONDAY, the fifth day of June xt, for the meeting and holding of the eneral assembly of this State, of which the veral Sheriffs are hereby enjoined to give ublic and due notice.

Given at the city of Annapolis, under the Seal of the State of Maryland, this eighth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nine.

his Excellency's command.
NINIAN PINKNEY, 3
Clerk of the Council.

The different Printers of Newspapers this State are requested to insert the above proclamation, daily, until the 5th of June.

NOTICE.

THIS is to give notice, to all my creditors, that I am under the disagreeable necessity of applying to the judges of Anne-Arundel county court, or to some one of them to the recess of the said court, after this notice shall have been published two months, for the benefit of the act of the general assembly of Maryland, passed at November session, 1805, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and of the supplements thereto.

edges ought to be thin, that it may the more easily enter between the teeth, when they are to be forced open by some other person; for the same reason it may be convenient to put a handle to it, like the handle of a key.

There is great reason to believe that this experiment will not only remove the fit of the epilepsy for that time, but also until the next time of its ordinary periodical return, without any apparent difference from what would have happened if the fit had been allowed to work itself off; it is presumable, that there are scarce any but who have as long warning of the approach of the fit as might be sufficient for taking a piece of metal out of their pockets, and putting it between their teeth. PHILANTHROPOS.

The misfortune of being Ugly.

A GIRL was on the point of being hanged at Vienna. Her youth and beauty made a great impression upon the heart of one of the spectators who was a Neapolitan, a middle aged man, but excessively ugly. As he had but a few minutes to make up his mind, he ran immediately to the place of execution, and, declaring his intention to marry the criminal, demanded her pardon. According to the custom of the country, the pardon was granted, on condition that the girl was not averse to the match. He accordingly addressed her in these terms, "Madam, I am a gentleman of some property, and now I wish for the first time, that I were a king, only that I might afford you a stronger proof of my attachment."—"Alas, sir," replied the girl, "I am thoroughly sensible of your affection and generosity; but I am not mistress over my own heart, and I cannot believe my own sentiments. Unfortunately they control my fate, and I prefer the death with which I am threatened, to marrying so ugly a fellow as you are." The Neapolitan retired in confusion, and the woman directed the executioner to do his office.

In CHANCERY, May 15, 1809.
