NEW-ORLEANS, JULY 29.
THE health of the troops at the camp aux Boufs, has been so much the subject of speculation, that facts may not be deemed impertinent by a candid public.
The troops have been at the cantonment (in advance) 56 days, and they have lost 40 —one shot—3 by apoplexy—15 by chronic diseases—one by a bayonet, or some appointed weapon—and all but 5, except the above, by diseases contracted by the dissi-pation of the city or other anterior causes.

WASHINGTON, SEPT. 7.

On Monday the subscription for the stock of the Bank of Washington was opened at the Hotel. We have the pleasure to state that the number of shares to which the subscription is limited, (25,000 shares at 40 cents each) was subscribed before 2 o'clock.
At 4 o'clock, till which hour the commissioners were required to keep open the books, 1000 shares were subscribed, and many persons were in attendance, whose subscriptions, if they could have been received, would have added very considerably to the surplus already subscribed. In order to reduce the number of shares to that fixed by the constitution of the bank, an amount equal to the surplus will be deducted from the shares of those who have subscribed to the largest amount.
Every friend of the city will learn with pleasure this testimony of its increasing prosperity.

The present summer has been colder and less healthy than any perhaps ever before experienced in the state.—The Mercury in the morning during a considerable part of July and August, has been as low as 70 degrees.
It has been agreeable and indeed necessary for comfort. Wheat crops in the state have been unusually abundant—but corn in the western country has been greatly injured by drought and wet.

A Herkimer, (New-York) paper informs that snow fell at Warren on the 19th of August, and that on the morning of the 10th a frost whitened the surface of the earth at Herkimer. Corn crops will turn out nothing, and continued wet prevents either making hay or harvesting wheat.

Celebration of the 4th of July at Paris.

On the 4th inst. the Americans residing in this city, celebrated the anniversary of that ever memorable day which gave birth to their independence. The greatest taste was displayed in the decorations of the room in which they assembled.—The walls were covered with emblematic figures of exquisite workmanship.
At one end of the room America and France were seen sitting together in the Temple of Peace, united by laurel wreaths, each holding a Horn of Plenty, with England, in a humble attitude, at their feet. Another emblem represented the President of the United States, and the Senate of the same, before whom stood an old warrior, bearing a standard, on which was inscribed—"4th of July, 1776.
—Freedom of the seas for neutrals, or war with England!!"

General Armstrong, Ambassador from the United States, the gentlemen composing his legation, and many French gentlemen of the highest distinction; partook of the entertainment.

The following are the toasts drunk on the occasion.

- 1st. The Independence of the United States.
- 2d. The President of the same—James Madison, Esquire.
- 3d. His I. and R. M. Napoleon 1st, Emperor of the French and King of Italy.
- 4th. The brave Americans who fought to rid their country of the tyrannical yoke of England.
- 5th. General Armstrong.

On Friday last Francis James Jackson, Esq. lady and family, left this city for Washington. During their stay in town they were waited on by several of its most respectable citizens.

On Wednesday evening last the British frigate L'Africaine, Captain Raggett, left her anchorage off this port, and proceeded down the Bay for Hampton Roads.

On Thursday morning seven of the men who made their escape from L'Africaine while off here, were seized in Baltimore and lodged in goal.—On Friday morning they were bro't before Judge Scott, and discharged. They were liberated (says the Whig,) amidst the acclamations of the crowd, who eagerly strove for precedency in giving them money to begin the world anew.

The British seamen released this morning, inform that the following persons, American citizens, have been impressed, and are now detained on board L'Africaine frigate :— Edward Swaine, John Ferguson, George Wilson, John Butler, John Williams and Ambrose Crufe. The three last are black men.

COMMUNICATION.

Departed this life, in this city, yesterday morning, in the — year of his age, Mr.
JAMES FOOTELL, Purser in the United States navy.

Seldom have we had occasion to discharge a more melancholy duty than recording the decease of this amiable young man. He arrived in this, his native city, from Norfolk, on Sunday last, with the fatal fermentation that his earthly career was drawing to a close.
His amiable and affectionate sisters fondly flattered themselves that his return to "Home, the resort

"Of love, of joy, of peace and plenty, where "Supporting and supported, polish'd friends "And dear relations, mingle into bliss," would arrest the progress of a consuming malady, to which he had long been a prey. But alas!

"Sorrow's drear mourn to their sad hearts returns,
"And exild'd hope her blighted garland mourns." The ways of Heaven are impervious to mortal ken, and though we lament his untimely end, the recollection of his virtues, which endeared him to all who knew him, will alleviate the poignant y of grief, by giving us a well grounded hope, that he is now enjoying the reward promised to the righteous.

- "See, what a blessing 'tis to die in peace,
- "To leave the world, and feel no secret stings
- "From a reproving conscience. What is death
- "To him who meets it with an upright heart?
- "A quiet haven, where his shatter'd bark
- "Harbours secure till the rude storm is past!
- "Perhaps a passage, overhung with clouds
- "But at its entrance, a few leagues beyond
- "Op'ning to kinder skies and milder fons,
- "And seas pacific as the soul that seeks them."

The citizens are requested to attend his funeral this afternoon at 4 o'clock.
