For the MARYLAND GAZETTE.

LINES.

Written on the Estrangement of a Friend.

WELCOME might, for in thy gloomy shades,
Here no observing envious eye invades,
He sad of pressed soul finds sweet relief,
And unrestrain'd may pour her secret grief.

SELECTED.

THE STORM.

Paraphrase on Luke, 8th chap. 22d. 23d. and 24th verses.

HE troubled wave, the dread portentous roar,
Of gathering winds, proclaim the tempest's hour.

With fury charg'd the elemental strife
Fill'd every heart with terror's pale dismay;

Save Master, or we perish," loud they cry:
When rising mild as morn's serene ray,

At whose command the dusky vapours fly,
And orient splendours usher in the day.

Thus He, benign in majesty and love,
To the wild uproar calmly said, "Be still."

At once subdu'd, the pausing billows prove
The winds and waves obedient to His will.

"Where is your faith?" he said, in plaintive tone,
To those who had'd his Godlike acts each hour,

Amazing proof might force a heart of stone,
To yield implicit faith—nor doubt his power.

But ah! we cease to wonder, when within
Stern justice turns a strict inquiring eye,

And asks why unbelief, that deadly sin,
Like hidden poison bids our comforts die?

Doth not his kind protesting hand each day,
In ev'ry changing scene make known:

When sorrows cloud, He smiles the bloom away,
And finds relief if angry conscience frown.

Away dependence—torturing doubts away—
No more dishonour pardoning Love divine—

On Calvary see Redemption's banners play,
Our blood-stain'd Captain all victorious thine.

TO BE RENTED.

And possession given on the 15th December next.

THE FARM now occupied by Mr. William Erickson, on the north side of Severn, containing about 290 acres. It is unnecessary to describe the said land, as all persons disposed to rent will view the premises.

For terms apply to the subscriber, in Annapolis, or Mr. James Boone, adjoining the land.

NICHOLAS J. WATKINS.

Annapolis, October 9, 1809.

AN OVERSEER WANTED.

THE subscriber will give liberal wages to a man who can come well recommended for sobriety, honesty and industry, with a good constitution and studly habits. None need apply but such as can substantiate the above character.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given to all my creditors, that I intend to apply to the judges of Anne-Arundel county, or to some one of them in the recess of the said court, after this notice shall have been published two months, for the benefit of an act of Assembly passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and of the several supplements thereto.

WILLIAM WOOTTON.

Sept. 13, 1809.

NOTICE.

ALL persons, without exception, anywise indebted to the subscriber, are earnestly requested to make immediate payment—Longer indulgence is not to be expected—nor can it be given—He has pressing and indispensable engagements to meet, and hopes that prompt and due attention will be paid to this notification. In every case of failure, however unpleasur'd and painful, he shall feel himself compelled to resort to legal measures, and without delay.

N. B. TOBACCO will be received in payment, and a liberal market price allowed for it. Annapolis, August 29, 1809.

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN AWAY, on the 5th instant, a Negro Man by the name of Ben Tuck, formerly the property of Benjamin Stewart, of Aberdeen, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, stout made, has a scar on his left temple, just within the hair, about the size of a mill'd shilling, rather a down look when detected, and very talkative; his cloathing is a brown ticklenberg shirt and trousers, an old Wakefield jacket, much worn—As he is a noted villain he may change his cloathing as best suits his purpose. It is supposed that he is skulking in Annapolis, or somewhere around there, as he formerly was employed by Capt. Leonard, South river neck, and lived at Aberdeen when I purchased him—His relations are living at the different quarters of the Mr. Stewart's, on this side of South river—his mother lives at Bridge Hills quarter, and he has a wife at Mr. Claggett's, near Queen-Anne, and has been seen by some of Major Brogden's negroes within a few days, and may now be lurking thereabouts. I will pay the above reward to any person who may detect the said fellow, and deliver him to me, or confine him in any gaol so that I can get him again.

GASSAWAY RAWLINGS.

The Ridge, Oct. 9, 1809.

THIRTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 30th day of August, a negro boy named JACOB, about 18 years of age, five feet 8 or 10 inches high, tolerably well made, when spoken to answers very quick; he speaks the Dutch language pretty well; his great toes have been frost-bitten; he reads tolerable well. Had on a tow linen shirt and trousers, and old black coat, split down the back, a cross-barred swan'down vest, much worn, and old felt hat. It is presumed that this fellow is now lurking in the city of Baltimore, as he has a sister living there. He was raised in Washington county, near Hagar's-town, on Antietam, Maryland; professes to be a methodist. It is probable he has procured, or will endeavour to procure, a pass. Masters of vessels, and others, are warned against harbouring said negro at their peril. Whoever secures the above negro, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward, and reasonable expenses if brought home.

JOSEPH W. LAWRENCE.

Six miles from Frederick-town, Frederick county, Maryland.

October 10, 1809.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN AWAY, on Sunday, the 9th of July last, from the subscriber's farm, on the north side of Severn river, a negro man named GRIG, but among the people of colour, more generally was called GRIG SMUTHERS, he is about twenty-eight years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, very black, has rather a sulky look, and kind of lisp in his speech, which may be easily discovered in an affirmative answer, as he always replies with a yeth Sir, instead of yes; he took with him two shirts of white ticklenburg, two pair of trousers of brown hempen linen, a long coatee of bottle green cloth much worn, a short coatee of red and white crossbarred gingham, he may perhaps have other cloaths with him or have changed them as well as his name, and may have procured a pass, as he is a very artful shrewd villain: this fellow is a remarkable good ploughman, and may perhaps have engaged himself on some farm in the neighbourhood of Baltimore, if not secreted in the city, where he has many acquaintances, and a brother by the name of Dick, who lives with Mr. Dennis A. Smith, cashier of the Mechanics Bank. Whoever takes up and secures the said fellow in any gaol in this state, so that I get him again, shall have the above reward, and if brought home or lodged in the Annapolis gaol, independent of the reward of One Hundred Dollars, all reasonable charges paid by PUBLIC SALE.

By virtue of a decree of the Chancery Court of Maryland, the subscriber will offer, at Public Sale, to the highest bidder, on Monday, the 23d day of October next, at the house of Mr. Adam Robb, in Rockville,

ALL the right, title and interest, of the late Samuel Hepburn, Esquire, in and to part of two tracts or parcels of land, in Montgomery county, one called The Hermitage, situate on Rock creek, about five miles from Rockville, and now in the possession of Mr. Harding, who formerly purchased a part of the same tract—The other is part of a tract of land called Hanover, or Bradford's Rest, lying on Seneca creek, in said county, and adjoins the lands of Mr. Lawrence Oneale.

These lands are well adapted to the production of tobacco, Indian corn, and all kinds of grain.

The terms of sale are, twelve months credit, the purchaser or purchasers giving bond, with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale; and on the ratification of the sale by the Chancellor, and the payment of the whole purchase money, the Trustee will, by a good and sufficient deed, convey to the purchaser, and his heirs, all the right, title and interest, of the said Samuel Hepburn, in and to the above lands.

The sale to commence precisely at twelve o'clock.

TRUEMAN TYLER, Trustee.

September 18, 1809.

FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale a part of Chey's Resolution, containing 120 acres of land, more or less, lying in Anne-Arundel county, situated immediately on the Federal road leading from Annapolis to the city of Washington, distant from Annapolis 10 miles, and adjoining the lands of Edward Hall, of Edward, Joseph Harwood, and Nicholas Watkins—The land is well inclosed with chestnut rails, and lies easy for cultivation, and produces good crops. The improvements are a small dwelling-house, corn-house, poultry-houses and tobacco-house, a thriving young apple orchard, and about 10 acres of meadow land. A further description is thought unnecessary, as it is expected no person will purchase without first viewing said land.

The terms of sale are, 12 months credit. Bond, with approved security, will be required, bearing interest from the day of sale, and on payment of the purchase money a deed will be given of the above property. Should it not be sold at private sale before the 30th day of November, it will on that day be offered at Public Sale to the highest bidder, if fair, if not, the next fair day. For terms apply to

NOTICE.

ALL persons having claims against the estate of the late Dr. Thomas Bourne, are hereby warned to exhibit the same to the subscriber, legally authenticated, on or before the 15th day of April next, they may otherwise be deprived of any benefit of said estate.

WM. E. HUNGERFORD, Adm.

Sept. 18, 1809.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY EDWARD LLOYD, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the memorial of James Claypoole, tanner and currier, of Chester-town, in Kent county, that his Bark Mill-House was about five o'clock in the morning of Monday the fourth instant, destroyed by fire, and that he was reason to suspect that some malicious person or persons wilfully set fire to the same: And whereas it is of the greatest importance to society that the perpetrators of such a crime should be discovered and brought to justice; I have therefore thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer a reward of TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS to whoever will discover the author or perpetrator of the said crime, provided he, she or they, or any of them, be convicted thereof; and moreover, I do, by virtue of the authority and powers vested in me, hereby promise a full and free pardon to any person, being an accomplice, who shall discover the perpetrator or perpetrators of the said offence, on the aforesaid condition.

GIVEN at Annapolis, under the seal of the state of Maryland, this twenty-second day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nine, and of the Independence of the U. States of America the thirty-fourth.

EDWARD LLOYD.

By his Excellency's command.

NINIAN PINKNEY,

Clerk of the Council.

ORDERED, That the foregoing Proclamation be published twice in each week, for the space of five weeks, in the American and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore, the Maryland Gazette and Maryland Republican, at Annapolis, the National Intelligencer, the Eastern Star, Mr. Crieves's paper at Hagar's-town, and in Mr. Bartgis's paper at Frederick-town.

By order, NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council.

The STATE OF MARYLAND, to wit:

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

FREDERICK WILLIAM BRUNE, Esquire, having produced to the Governor an Exequatur, signed by the President of the United States, and sealed with the seal of the said United States, recognizing him as Vice Consul from his Danish Majesty for the state of Maryland, to reside at Baltimore—ORDERED, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, that the said recognition be published for the information and government of the people of this state.

GIVEN in Council, at the city of Annapolis, under the seal of the state of Maryland, this nineteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America the thirty-fourth.

EDWARD LLOYD.

By the Governor.

NINIAN PINKNEY,

Clerk of the Council.

JAMES MADISON,

President of the United States of America.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—

WHEREAS it has been made to appear to me, that Frederick William Brune, Esq. has been temporarily appointed Vice Consul of his Danish Majesty for the state of Maryland, to reside at Baltimore, I do therefore recognize him as such, and declare him free to exercise and enjoy such functions, powers and privileges, as are allowed to Vice-Consuls of such friendly powers, between whom and the United States there is no particular agreement for the regulation of the Consular functions.

In testimony whereof I have caused these letters to be made patent, and the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed. GIVEN under my hand at the city of Washington, the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America the thirty-fourth.

JAMES MADISON.

By the President.

R. SMITH, Secretary of State.

ORDERED, That the foregoing be published twice in each week, for the space of five weeks, in the American and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore; the Maryland Gazette and Maryland Republican, at Annapolis; the National Intelligencer, the Eastern Star, Mr. Crieves's paper at Hagar's-town, and in Mr. Bartgis's paper at Frederick-town.

By order, NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council.
