

Poet's Corner.

SELECTED.

From the Charleston Courier.

HAFIZ, the Persian poet, bears an immortal fame among the Eastern Nations—perhaps, there is no poet, of ancient or modern times, who excels him in light, amatory and bacchanalian pieces. He is styled the "Persian Anacreon," but his powers appear to be of a superior cast to those of the Teian Bard—allowing for the difference between Oriental and Grecian imagery, the following Bacchanalian ode of HAFIZ is conceived in the true and happiest manner of Anacreon. It is not only in compositions of this sort, however, that the Persian is eminent: his talents were more various than those of Anacreon, and he is frequently delightful in the Horatian manner.

HITHER, boy, a goblet bring.
Be it of wine's ruby spring!
Bring me one, and bring me two;
Nought but purest wine will do.

It is wine, boy, that can save,
Even lovers from the grave;
Old and young alike will say,
'Tis the balm that makes us gay.

Wine's the sun; the moon, sweet soul,
We will call the waning bowl;
Bring the sun, and bring him soon,
To the bosom of the moon!

Dash us with this liquid fire,
It will thoughts divine inspire;
And by nature taught to glow,
Let it like the waters flow!

If the rose should fade, do you,
Bid it cheerfully adieu;
Like rosewater to each guest,
Bring thy wine and make us blest.

If the nightingale's rich throat
Cease the music of its note;
It is fit, boy, thou should'st bring
Cups that will with music sing.

Be not sad, whatever change
O'er the busy world may range;
Harp and lute together bring,
Sweetly mingling string with string.

My bright maid unless it be
In some dream, I cannot see;
Bring the draught that will disclose
Whence it was sleep first arose.

Should it chance o'erpower my mind,
Where's the remedy I find?
'Tis in wine: then boy, supply
Wine, 'till all my senses die.

Unto HAFIZ, boy, do you
Instant bring a cup or two;
Bring them; for the wine shall flow
Whether it be law, or no.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, on the 5th instant, a Negro Man by the name of Ben Tuck, formerly the property of Benjamin Stewart, of Aberdeen, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, stout made, has a scar on his left temple, just within the hair, about the size of a mild shilling, rather a down look when distressed, and very talkative; his clothing is a brown ticklenberg shirt and trousers, an old Wakefield jacket, much worn—As he is a noted villain he may change his clothing as best suits his purpose. It is supposed that he is skulking in Annapolis, or somewhere around there, as he formerly was employed by Capt. Leonard, South river neck, and lived at Aberdeen when I purchased him. His relations are living at the different quarters of the Mr. Stewart, on this side of South river—his mother lives at Bridge Hills quarter, and he has a wife at Mr. Claggett's, near Queen Anne, and has been seen by some of Major Brogden's negroes within a few days, and may now be lurking thereabouts. I will pay the above reward to any person who may detect the said fellow, and deliver him to me, or confine him in any gaol so that I can get him again.
GASSAWAY RAWLINGS.
The Ridge, Oct. 9, 1809. 6 4

Thirty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 30th day of August, a negro boy named JACOB, about 18 years of age, five feet 8 or 10 inches high, tolerably well made, when spoken to answers very quick; he speaks the Dutch language pretty well; his great toes have been frost-bitten; he reads tolerable well. Had on a tow linen shirt and trousers, and old black coat, split down the back, a cross-barred swan-down vest, much worn, and old felt hat. It is presumed that this fellow is now lurking in the city of Baltimore, as he has a sister living there. He was raised in Washington county, near Hagar's-town, on Antietam, Maryland; professes to be a Methodist. It is probable he has procured, or will endeavour to procure, a pair. Masters of vessels, and others, are warned against harbouring said negro at their peril. Whoever secures the above negro, so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward, and reasonable expenses if brought home.

One Hundred Dollars

REWARD.

RAN AWAY, on Sunday, the 9th of July last, from the subscriber's farm, on the north side of Severn river, a negro man named GRIG, but among the people of colour, more generally was called GRIG SMUTHERS, he is about twenty-eight years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, very black, has rather a sulky look, and kind of lisp in his speech, which may be easily discovered in an affirmative answer, as he always replies with a yeth Sir, instead of yes; he took with him two shirts of white ticklenburg, two pair of trousers of brown hempen linen, a long coat of bottle green cloth much worn, a short coat of red and white crossbarred gingham, he may perhaps have other cloaths with him or have changed them as well as his name, and may have procured a pair, as he is a very artful shrewd villain: this fellow is a remarkable good ploughman, and may perhaps have engaged himself on some farm in the neighbourhood of Baltimore, if not secreted in the city, where he has many acquaintances, and a brother by the name of Dick, who lives with Mr. Dennis A. Smith, cashier of the Mechanics Bank. Whoever takes up and secures the said fellow in any gaol in this state, so that I get him again, shall have the above reward, and if brought home or lodged in the Annapolis gaol, independent of the reward of One Hundred Dollars, all reasonable charges paid by JAMES MACKUBIN.
