SELECTED.

From the Canadian Courant.

THE HOUR I LOVE.

I LOVE an hour, O! 'tis divine,
And mem'ry's bland, attractive pow'r,
Bids life's gay visions all combine,
To enhance the blisses of that hour.
'Tis when the pilgrim twilight fled,
O'er groves grown wild, his mantle grey;
When the lone woodman homeward treads,
And lightly chants the roundelay.
I love; when, at the bourne of day,
The white surge murmurs on the shore,
Upon the sedge crown'd cliff to lay,
And list me to the ocean's roar.
I love; when spring's first blossoms breathe
Their spicy odours to the gale,
The silver hawthorn's shades beneath,
To sit and hear the wanderer's tale.
But most I love, when Autumn throws
Her silver lustre o'er the fields,
Pomona blushes on the boughs,
And Ceres golden treasure yields.
By some pure rannel in the dell,
At evening, 'neath the moon's pale ray,
To hear prophetic fancy tell,
How blooms the rose: its quick decay.
Then hope, sweet hope! exclaims again,
Spring will return—the rose shall bloom,
And heav'n-tint'd ilachs deck the plain,
Exulting o'er their transient tomb.
This heavenly hour is dear to me,
From it, toil, care and sorrow's free.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me, by the memorial of Jacob Staley, of Frederick county, that on the night of the sixteenth of December last, his new barn, with the following contents, was set on fire and consumed, viz. Four Hundred and Thirty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, Negro Ned, Dick, Plato, Jonas and Harry, all belonging to the estate of Benjamin Gaither, of Prince-George's county. Four hundred dollars will be given for apprehending and securing in gaol the four first mentioned negroes, or one hundred dollars for each, and thirty dollars will be given for apprehending and securing the aforesaid last mentioned negro. Their clothing is unknown. It is supposed that Ned, Dick, Plato and Jonas, are gone to the state of Pennsylvania, and that Harry is in or about the city of Washington.

ROBERT M'GILL, Adm'r.

Anne-Arundel county, Oct. 26, 1809. 4

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, on the 5th instant, a Negro Man by the name of Ben Tuck, formerly the property of Benjamin Stewart, of Aberdeen, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, stout made, has a scar on his left temple, just within the hair, about the size of a mill'd shilling, rather a down look when detected, and very talkative; his clothing is a brown ticklenberg shirt and trousers, an old Wakefield jacket, much worn—As he is a noted villain he may change his clothing as best suits his purpose. It is supposed that he is skulking in Annapolis, or somewhere around there, as he formerly was employed by Capt. Leonard, South river neck, and lived at Aberdeen when I purchased him—His relations are living at the different quarters of the Mr. Stewart's, on this side of South river—his mother lives at Bridge Hills quarter, and he has a wife at Mr. Claggett's, near Queen-Anne, and has been seen by some of Major Brogden's negroes within a few days, and may now be lurking thereabouts. I will pay the above reward to any person who may detect the said fellow, and deliver him to me, or confine him in any gaol so that I can get him again.

GASSAWAY RAWLINGS.
The Ridge, Oct. 9, 1809. 7 tf

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, on Sunday, the 9th of July last, from the subscriber's farm, on the north side of Severn river, a negro man named GRIG, but among the people of colour, more generally was called GRIG SMUTHERS, he is about twenty-eight years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, very black, has rather a sulky look, and kind of lisp in his speech, which may be easily discovered in an affirmative answer, as he always replies with a yeth Sir, instead of yes; he took with him two shirts of white ticklenburg, two pair of trousers of brown hempen linen, a long coat of bottle green cloth much worn, a short coat of red and white crossbarred gingham, he may perhaps have other cloaths with him or have changed them as well as his name, and may have procured a pass, as he is a very artful shrewd villain: this fellow is a remarkable good ploughman, and may perhaps have engaged himself on some farm in the neighbourhood of Baltimore, if not secreted in the city, where he has many acquaintances, and a brother by the name of Dick, who lives with Mr. Dennis A. Smith, cashier of the Mechanics Bank. Whoever takes up and secures the said fellow in any gaol in this state, so that I get him again, shall have the above reward, and if brought home or lodged in the Annapolis gaol, independent of the reward of One Hundred Dollars, all reasonable charges paid by JAMES MACKUBIN.
