CIRCULAR.

Addressed to the British Consuls in the United States.

Washington, November 13, 1809.

THAVE to inform you, with mucilies gret, that the facts which it has been my duty to state in my official correspondence with Mr. Smith, have been deemed by the Prefident of the United States to afford a sufficient motive for breaking off an important negotiation, and for putting an end to all communication whatever with me, as the minifter charged with that negotiation, fo interesting to both nations, and on one most material point of which an answer has not even been returned to an official and written over-

One of the facts alluded to has been admitted by the fecretary of state himself in his letter to me of the 19th October, viz .- That the three conditions, forming the substance of Mr. Erskine's original instruction, were submitted to him by that gentleman. The other, viz-That that instruction is the only one in which the conditions were prefcribed by Mr. Erskine for the conclusion of an arrangement on the matter to which it related is known to me by the instructions which I have myself received.

In stating these sacte, and in adhering to them, as my duty imperiously enjoined me to do, in order to repel the frequent charges of ill faith which have been made against his majesty's government, I could not imagine that offence would be taken at it by the American government, as most certainly none could be intended on my part, and this view of the subject has been made known to Mr. Smith. But as I am informed by him that no further communication will be received from me, I conceive that I have no alternative left which is confiftent with the king's dignity, but to withdraw altogether from this city, and await elfewhere the arrival of his majesty's commands upon the unlooked for turn which has thus been given to his affairs in this country.

I mean in the interval to make New-York the place of my residence, where you will henceforward please to direct your communications to me, as I shall be accompanied by every member of his majefty's miffion.

I am, &c. (Signed) F. J. JACKSON.

The legislature of Tennessee have passed an act, to disqualify any person who may hereafter give, receive or bear a challenge, from holding any office or appointment under the government, being evidence in any court of record, or ferving as a juryman. In one respect, this statute goes a step further than most of the state laws on this subject; for it provides, that in case a challenger shall publish or denounce the other party, who "is unwilling or refuses to fight," as a coward, a poltroon, or by any fimilar epithet, such words are to be held as slanderous, and an action may be maintained against the speaker or publisher thereof.
