LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

THE ship William, Moran, from London, and 28 days from the Downs, has arrived at New-York, bringing London dates to the 11th Nov. The treaty between France and Austria is received. A Mr. Hartshorn, passenger, is bearer of dispatches from Mr. Pinkney to the secretary of state. Two letter bags, out of three, containing about 2000 letters, was taken out of the William at Gravesend, by a revenue officer, and sent to the general post-office in London, assigning as a reason that they were unsealed, which was contrary to law. He left a certificate of the act. The Grenville party is expected to come into the ministry after the meeting of parliament. A general convocation of all the Italian cardinals is to take place in Paris on Nov. 10. A large French convoy from Toulon to Barcelona has been destroyed by the English—a 90 and an 80 gun ship and frigate were run ashore, the two former blown up to prevent their falling into the enemy's hands. Buonaparte held a council at Fontainebleau on the 27th Oct. An expedition has failed from Malta, destination conjectural. The property of general Mounet who commanded at Flushing when it surrendered to the English, has been sequestered. Prince Gorgali, aide-de-camp of the emperor of Russia, has arrived at Paris. The London Times of Nov. 2, says that Ferdinand 7 has been poisoned. Charles, his consort and the Prince of Peace are at Marseilles, reported to be living on the bounty of friends. Buonaparte is to make his triumphal entry into Paris Dec. 2. A letter from a certain Wm. Cox to the governor of Porto, dated Almeida, Oct. 24, states, that the Duke Del Parque had an engagement with the French troops commanded by general Marchand, who had advanced from Salamanca. The battle was said to be fought at Tames or its vicinity, and terminated in favour of the Spaniards, who lost only 150 men, while the loss of the French in killed and wounded is said to be 1000 men, a 12 pounder, one stand of colours and 300 muskets—the French force, by report, 10,000 infantry, 1200 cavalry and 9 pieces of artillery.

The Duke of Portland, late prime minister of Great-Britain, died of the gravel, on the 30th Oct. last, in the 72d year of his age. His eldest son, the marquis of Tichfield, has succeeded to all his hereditary titles and estates.

Extract of a letter from Dublin, dated November 7.

"Since writing my letter the packet has brought an account that an order in council expected to appear immediately in the Gazette, prohibiting the landing of American produce that has been landed or warehoused in any place since they left America, except on British ships, or American ships with British license. This seems intended to drive us to your embargo, which from experience, is expected you cannot maintain."

Amsterdam, Oct. 11.
There are no Americans here, having all gone to Tonningen, to escape pirates and others. Colonial produce high—cotton is 100c. per lb. Tobacco 34 dollars per cwt. There are 80 sail of Americans in Tonningen. Sugars, generally, from 26 to 30 dollars per cwt. Mulcovado 28 to 32 1/2—white do. 32 to 38.

DOMESTIC.

NEW-YORK, DEC. 14.
Captain Fenwick, of the United States Marine corps, arrived in town yesterday. He comes out in the John Adams ship of war, as bearer of dispatches, which vessel will sail the fair wind for England and Holland. The John Adams has on board 160,000 dollars in specie, being six months interest on the Dutch loan to the United States.
Capt. Dunbar, who arrived here yesterday, sailed from Lisbon on the 2d ult. He informs, that a few days previous to his departure, 50 sail of British transports arrived there from England; which, with those that were here, made 150 sail. It was reported at Lisbon, that 100,000 French troops were on their march to Spain—and that the British troops had evacuated Bilbao.

PHILADELPHIA, DEC. 15.
Capt. Garwood says, there were great meetings at Liverpool, on the 6th of November, the day he left that place, as he was informed in consequence of some news from the continent.

NORFOLK, DEC. 11.
By the Spanish schooner Havana, from Havana we learn that the importation of flour from the United States into Cuba, is prohibited even in Spanish vessels. The government of Cuba have contracted for flour for the island at La Vera Cruz.

in Chancery, Dec. 18, 1809.

Ann & Rachel Sturges, by Edward Exwinks, vs. Frederick Grammer, Joseph Massey, Benjamin Comegys, John Comegys, and the heirs of John Davidson.

THE object of the petition in this case is to obtain a decree to record a deed executed by John Davidson, as trustee to the sale of certain real estate, mentioned in a decree in a suit wherein Frederick Grammer was complainant, and Joseph Massey and Benjamin and John Comegys were defendants; the petition states, that the omission to record the said deed was without any fraudulent design or intention in any person whatever; it is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the petitioners, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette before the first day of February next, give notice to the parties, and all other persons who may conceive themselves interested, of this application, and of the substance and object of the petition, that they may be warned to appear here on or before the first day of June next, to shew cause, if any they have, wherefore a decree should not be passed as prayed.

One Hundred Dollars

REWARD.
RAN AWAY, on Sunday, the 9th of July last, from the subscriber's farm, on the north side of Severn river, a negro man named GRIG, but among the people of colour, more generally was called GRIG SMUTHERS, he is about twenty-eight years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, very black, has rather a sulky look, and kind of lisp in his speech, which may be easily discovered in an affirmative answer, as he always replies with a yeth Sir, instead of yes; he took with him two shirts of white ticklinburg, two pair of trousers of brown hempen line, a long coat of bottle green cloth much worn, a short coat of red and white crossbarred gingham, he may perhaps have other cloaths with him or have changed them as well as his name, and may have procured a pass, as he is a very artful strewd villain: this fellow is a remarkable good ploughman, and may perhaps have engaged himself on some farm in the neighbourhood of Baltimore, if not secreted in the city, where he has many acquaintances, and a brother by the name of Dick, who lives with Mr. Dennis A. Smith, cashier of the Mechanics Bank. Whoever takes up and secures the said fellow in any gaol in this state, so that I get him again, shall have the above reward, and if brought home or lodged in the Annapolis gaol, independent of the reward of One Hundred Dollars, all reasonable charges paid by

JAMES MACKUBIN.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY
Edward Lloyd, Esquire,

GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me, by the memorial of Jacob Staley, of Frederick county; that on the night of the sixteenth of December last, his new barn, with the following contents, was set on fire and consumed, viz. In wheat and other small grain, about fourteen hundred bushels, two tun of hay, six head of valuable horses, and nine head of horned cattle; and that on the night of the twenty-fifth of October last, another barn belonging to the said Staley, with the following contents, viz. about eight hundred bushels of wheat, fifteen tun of hay, and fodder to a considerable amount, was likewise consumed by fire, and that he has reason to suspect that some malicious person or persons wilfully set fire to the same: And whereas it is of the greatest importance to society, that the perpetrators of such crimes should be discovered and brought to justice, I have therefore thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer a reward of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS, to whoever will discover the author or perpetrators of the said offences, provided he, she, or they, or any of them, be convicted thereof; and moreover, I do, by virtue of the authority and power vested in me, hereby promise a full and free pardon to any persons being an accomplice, who shall discover the perpetrator or perpetrators of the said offences, on the aforesaid condition.

GIVEN at Annapolis, under the seal of the state of Maryland, the ninth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America the thirty-fourth.

EDWD: LLOYD.
By his Excellency's command,
NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

ORDERED, That the foregoing Proclamation be published twice in each week, for the space of five weeks, in the American and Federal Gazette, of Baltimore, the Maryland Gazette and Maryland Republican, at Annapolis, the National Intelligencer, the Eastern Star, Mr. Grieve's paper at Hagarstown, Mr. Bartgis's paper at Fredericktown, and the Fredericktown Herald.

By order, NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY
Edward Lloyd, Esquire,

GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me by James McGill, on oath, that in the morning of the thirteenth instant, he had a tobacco-house, with a quantity of tobacco, and a variety of farming utensils, consumed by fire, and that he believes that some wicked or evil disposed person or persons set fire to the same: And whereas it is of the greatest importance to society that the perpetrator or perpetrators of such a crime should be brought to justice, I have therefore thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the council, offer a reward of TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS to whoever will discover the author or perpetrator of the said offence, provided, he, she or they, or any of them, be convicted thereof. And moreover, I do, by virtue of the authority and power vested in me, hereby promise a full and free pardon to any person, being an accomplice, who shall discover the perpetrator or perpetrators of the said offence, on the aforesaid condition.

GIVEN under my hand, and the seal of the state of Maryland, at the city of Annapolis, this twenty-fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nine; and of the Independence of the United States of America the thirty-fourth.

EDWARD LLOYD.
By his Excellency's command,
NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

ORDERED, That the foregoing Proclamation be published twice in each week, for the space of four weeks, in the American and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore, the Maryland Gazette and Maryland Republican at Annapolis, the National Intelligencer, the Eastern Star, Mr. Grieve's paper at Hagarstown, and in Mr. Bartgis's paper at Fredericktown.

By order, NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

Notice.
THE repeated trespasses committed on the lands of the subscriber, lying in the vicinity of Annapolis, and on Fishing creek, have constrained him to prohibit all persons hunting thereon, with dog or gun, or in any manner trespassing on the same.

JEREMIAH TOWNLEY CHASE.
