

CONGRESS.
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, APRIL 20.
A LETTER from gen. Wilkinson to the speaker was read, asking the house to appoint an impartial tribunal to investigate his conduct, and that he might have an opportunity to confront accusers, and meet the calumnies which are propagated against him. There was enclosed a letter to the secretary of war from gen. Wilkinson, dated Oct. 18, in which the general demands an investigation of his public character.

Mr. Randolph, from the committee to whom the subject was referred, reported a bill for the reduction of the navy. [This bill proposes to sell ALL the gun-boats, all the frigates except three, and all the other armed vessels except three, relerving the guns and equipments.] Referred to a committee of the whole, and ordered to be printed.

Agricultural Society.
The Philadelphia Society for promoting Agriculture, have received from Paris a box of seeds, of different kinds, which have been put into the hands of Messrs. Mears and Smedley, No. 91, High-street, of this city, who have kindly undertaken to distribute them. Gardeners, farmers, and others, who wish to cultivate them, will be supplied gratuitously with small parcels.
The Society desirous to interchange the seeds of our country, in return for those sent us from foreign countries, will be obliged by any of our fellow-citizens, who will deliver for that purpose, to Messrs. Mears & Smedley, seeds of all American plants, shrubs, trees, or garden vegetables. They may be directed to the Agricultural Society of Philadelphia.

The Society will likewise be gratified by receiving an account of the success attending the attempt to propagate those now intended for distribution.

By order, JAMES MEASE, Sec. [Phil. Paper.]

Pasturage.

THE subscriber will take in horses, cattle and sheep to pasture, on Mr. Nicholas Watkins's plantation, on the north side of Severn, (adjoining Mr. James Mackubin's) and lately occupied by Mr. William Earickson, during the season. For terms apply to the subscriber. JOHN R. MERRIKEN.
April 24, 1810. 3w.

Jonathan Waters,
SADDLER & HARNESS MAKER,

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends, and the public, that he has commenced the above business next door to Mr. John Wells's apothecary and shoe store, in Church-street, Annapolis, where he hopes, by diligent attention, to merit public patronage. He flatters himself that those who have tried his performance in that line, (while in Georgetown, twelve years since,) will need no other recommendation therein. Orders from the city and country will be thankfully received and executed with promptitude. His materials being well selected, ensures to his patrons moderate terms.
