Extract of a letter from Antigua, dated the 24th of April, 1810, to a gentleman in N. York.

"I must beg leave to inform you, that the Admiral has received orders to prevent the importation of American articles in any bottoms, via St. Bartholomews; consequently the trade of that island has totally ceased, and the Americans now in that port are placed in a very awkward situation."

A letter from Cadiz, March 9, states that Malaga, Marbella, Estepona, Algeiras, St. Roque and Furosa, are freed from the French, the people having risen and killed most of the French who were in those places. [Del. Gaz.]

A Shocking Occurrence.

How many tragical events take place from trifling to the care and discretion of very young children! The following is a fatal and warning instance, which happened at Marblehead, on Thursday evening the 3d instant. A woman by the name of James left her daughter, of 6 years old, at home to keep house while she herself was absent at a night meeting. A person passing by, observed an extraordinary light in the chamber, and being alarmed went in; when he found the child (who it is supposed had been overcome by sleep) lying on the floor wrapped in flames.
