Lord Wellesley sent me yesterday, his answer to my note of the 25th ult. respecting the Berlin and Milan decrees.

I hasten to transmit a copy of it.—A copy shall be sent without delay to gen. Arm...

I have the honour to be, &c. WM. PINKNEY. Hon. Robert Smith, &c. &c. &c.

(COPY)

Mr. Pinkney's letter to Lord Wellesley. Great Cumberland Place, August 25, 1810.

Lord, I have the honour to state to your lordship that I have received from general Armstrong, plenipotentiary of the United States...

I take for granted that the revocation of the British Orders in Council of January and November 1807, and April 1809, and of all other orders dependent upon, analogous to, or execution of them, will follow of course;

I have the honour to be, with high confidence, My lord, your lordship's most obedient humble servant,

(Signed) WM. PINKNEY. The most noble the Marquis Wellesley, &c. &c. &c.

COPY.

Lord Wellesley to Mr. Pinkney.

SIR, I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter under date the 25th instant.

On the 23d of February, 1808, his majesty's minister in America declared to the government of the United States, "his majesty's earnest desire to see the commerce of the world restored to that freedom which is necessary for its prosperity, and his readiness to abandon the system, which had been forced upon him, whenever the enemy should retract the principles which had rendered it necessary."

I am commanded by his majesty to repeat that declaration, and to assure you that whenever the repeal of the French decrees shall have actually taken effect, and the commerce of the neutral nations shall have been restored to the condition in which it stood previously to the promulgation of those decrees, his majesty will feel the highest satisfaction in relinquishing a system, which the conduct of the enemy compelled him to adopt.

I have the honour to be, with the highest consideration, sir, your most obedient humble servant.

(Signed) WELLESLEY.
