

POET'S CORNER.

SELECTED.

THE MISER.

See'st thou yon pale and wrinkled form?
The languid lustre of his eye
Fortells the Winter's beating storm.
To crush lone misery's feeble sigh.
Him nor the muse, nor thought, can paint—
The prey of jealousy and care;
He steels his breast to sorrow's plaint,
And fluns the victim of despair.
Curse on the tribe whose fordid souls
Can never consolation speak,
Nor check the tear that ceaseless rolls,
Down hapless sorrow's faded cheek.
And lives there such a niggard train,
Who blest Humanity defy?
Still bent to grasp their hoarded grain,
They live but for themselves—and die.
Be mine the tender, feeling heart,
The fully sympathetic glow,
That teaches with assuasive art
To hover round the "couch of woe."
Yes, be it mine to dry the tear,
When memory her griefs shall pour—
To sooth misfortune's too severe,
And light affliction's darkest hour.
Then when life's transient bliss is fled,
And age shall mar the freshest bloom,
Some orphan's grateful heart shall shed
The tear of friendship on my tomb.

Anne-Arundel County Court,

September Term, 1810.

ON application to Anne-Arundel county court, by petition in writing, of Charles H. Willigman, of Anne-Arundel county, praying for the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said act, a schedule of his property, and list of his creditors; on oath, as far as he can ascertain them being annexed to his petition; and the said Charles H. Willigman having satisfied the said court, by competent testimony, that he has resided in the state of Maryland two years immediately preceding the time of his application, it is therefore ordered and adjudged, that the said Charles H. Willigman, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette for three months successively before the third Monday in April next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the county court on the third Monday in April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said Charles H. Willigman's then and there taking the oath, by the said act prescribed, for delivering up his property, and to shew cause if any they have, why he, the said Charles H. Willigman, should not have the benefit of the several acts of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors.

CHARLES WALLACE.

Academy for Young Ladies.

MR. N. PALMER

RESPECTFULLY informs the citizens of Annapolis, and its vicinity, that he has made arrangements for succeeding the Rev. WILLIAM NIND, in the establishment for the tuition of Young Ladies, to keep up the credit of which, every possible exertion will be made; and he flatters himself, that for parents as may think proper to intrust to his care of their daughters education, will have no cause to regret the confidence which they may honour him.

Young Ladies in the country, desirous of acquiring a polite and liberal education, will experience no difficulty in obtaining comfortable accommodations in genteel and respectable families.

Mr. PALMER purposes commencing Monday the 8th of October, in the room formerly occupied as a place of instruction by Miss HEFFERNAN, near the residence of Nicholas Brewer, Esq.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT a petition will be presented to the next General Assembly, for an act to authorize the vestry of Port Tobacco parish, Charles county, to build a church on the public ground in the town of Port Tobacco commonly called the Court House Square
