WATCHZ, DEC. 3. WEST-FLORIDA.

A gentlemen from Peninsular and Mobile, direct, informs that both those posts were in an excellent state of defence, and well filled with troops—that governor Polch was at Mobile where he was expecting a reinforcement from Havannah, when he intruded advancing for Baton Rouge—that colonel Kemper in the service of the convention, was on the Alabama river, with 300 men, where he will probably remain until he receives a reinforcement; the standard of independence had been reared by Major Kennedy, in the vicinity of Mobile, where the cause has many friends.

We learn from St. Francisville, that the legislature assembled there last week under the new constitution, and elected Fo'war Skipwith Esq. governor—and in consequence of despatches from colonel Kemper, a detachment of 1,500 men (with a suitable train of artillery) under the command of colonel Kirkland marched from St. Francisville for Penacola on the 24th ultimo.

By a gentleman from New-Orleans, which place he left on Monday last, we learn that whilst he was at Baton Rouge the squadron of gun boats, which sailed a short time since from this place, passed and exchanged a salute with the fort. Great military preparations were going on in Florida from which our informant supposed some enterprise of consequence was in contemplation.

SECRET EXPEDITION.

His excellency governor Claiborne, and major G. C. Raffell, arrived at the campment Washington, from the seat of government, on Friday last, and yesterday an order was issued for the embarkation and movement of the army. A strong detachment under col. Covington, will sail this day, and the remainder, under col. Pike, will follow, with the least possible delay. It is understood that the army will be joined by general Hampton on the river, who is hourly expected by way of N. Orleans, and from whom they are to receive further orders, and probably a development of the object of the expedition. It is further said that governor Claiborne has ordered out the whole body of the militia of the Orleans territory, and we presume the detachment governor Holmes holds in readiness from this territory will receive marching orders.

COMMUNICATED.

Departed this life, on the 16th of December, in the 44th year of her age, Mrs. SARAH RUSSEL CONTEE, wife of the Rev. Doctor Benjamin Contee, daughter of the late Philip Thomas Lee, Esq. of Annapolis, and grand daughter of the late Richard Lee, of Charles county. Her mildness of manners, her probity, her exemplary conduct and delicacy of sentiment, endeared her to her relatives, friends and acquaintance—her charitable disposition made her labors sensibly felt and regretted by the poor—her attachment and obedience to the precepts of the blessed Redeemer, inspire a confident hope that she will, (through the merit of him in whom she trusted,) enjoy endless felicity, the reward of a well spent life.
Charles county, 20th December 1810.

A MODEL OF

THE CITY OF JERUSALEM.
A. TUCKER, FROM PHILADELPHIA, Respectfully returns his thanks to the Ladies and Gentlemen of Annapolis for the flattering encouragement he has received since opening his Exhibition of the City of Jerusalem, and begs leave to acquaint them that he shall close his Exhibition this week if the river continues open. This model is laid out on a scale 16 feet by 9, agreeable to the Map of Josephus, all in wooden buildings, after the Gothic style, together with Solomon's rich and elegant Temple. It is deemed unnecessary to give a farther description of this masterpiece of workmanship; I may therefore invite all to view it, and the Lectures upon it, as it never fails to afford universal satisfaction to all classes who attend.
Church street, nearly opposite the Post-Office. Admittance 25 cents. Open Day and Night till 9 o'clock.

The Subscribers,

ONCE more return thanks to their friends generally, for past favours, and solicit a continuance of their custom, assuring them that their present arrangements will enable them to keep a good choice of goods, bought on the best terms, (by one of the partners living in Philadelphia) and they are determined to sell cheap for cash, good tobacco at fair market prices, & to such customers only as make good payments, on their usual credit.
