O BRIGHT and happy is my lot! And sweet the path of life to me ! All praise to my eternal king, Whole favour fix'd the fair decree.

He guides me through the bufy day, And through the long and lonely night; Fills me with hope and holy joy,

And guards me with his marchless might.

My mind, in all I act or plan. Looks to my God and his commands, And to uphold my feeble iteos. PROTECTOR by my fide he stands.

My heart shatt beat with grateful joy, Pleas'd shall my tongue thy praise proclaim, For thy benigna it grace shall still Preferve & biefs this mortal frame.

And thou this warm alpining foul, That breathes its humble vows to thee, From Hell's dread gloom wilt knidly five, And from the grave's co-ruption tree.

Thou, the bright way of Heav'n witt fliew, Thy blissful courts the just receive Thy nand bestow celetial joys, No tongue can tell, no hear concerts.
