Anne Arundel county court

September term, 1810.

ON application to the judges of the county court, by petition, in writing, of John Dove of said county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, on the terms mentioned in the said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition, the said county court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said John Dove has complied with the two preceding years prior to the passage of the said act within the State of Maryland; and the said John Dove, at the time of presenting his petition as aforesaid, having produced to the said court the affidavit in writing, of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of his said petition, it is thereupon adjudged and ordered by the said court, that the said John Dove, (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspapers published in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months before the first Monday of April next,) give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, to be held at the city of Annapolis, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the third Monday of April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit on the said John Dove then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for ascertaining up his property.

Signed by order,
WM. S. GREEN, CL.
Anne Arundel county court,
Dec. 18, 1810.

Anne Arundel County, sc.

ON application to me, the subscriber, in the records of the county court of the judicial district of Maryland, by petition, in writing, of William Applebee, of said county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of insolvent debtors, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and having stated in said petition that he is now in actual confinement for debt, and prayed to be discharged from said confinement on the terms prescribed by said act, I do therefore hereby order and adjudge, that the said William Applebee, be discharged from his confinement, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette three months successively, before the fourteenth day of April next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the county court of said county, at ten o'clock in the morning of the third Monday in April next, to show cause why the said William Applebee should not have the benefit of the several acts of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, as prayed.

Given under my hand this 23d day of August, 1810.

RICHARD H. HARWOOD.

Calvert county court,

October Term, 1810.

ON application of James Dixon, of said county, to the judges of the said county court, by petition in writing, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, on the terms mentioned in the said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition, and the said county court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said James Dixon has resided the two preceding years prior to the passage of the said act within the State of Maryland, it is thereupon adjudged and ordered by the said court, that the said James Dixon give notice to his creditors of his intention to apply to the next county court to be held at Prince-Frederick-town, in said county, on the second Monday of May next, for a discharge from his debts, and to warn his said creditors to appear before the said judges of the said act, at the place aforesaid, to show cause, if any they have, why the said James Dixon should not be discharged agreeably to his said petition, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette four successive weeks, and also by causing copies of said order to be set up at the court-house and church-doors of said county two months previous to the sitting of the said next county court.

Signed by order of Court,
WM. S. MORSELL,
Clerk Calvert County Court.

Anne Arundel County.

ON application, in writing, to me the subscriber, in the records of the county court, associate judge of the third judicial district of the State of Maryland, of William P. Mathews, of Anne Arundel county, praying the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms prescribed by said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as nearly as he can ascertain the same at present, being annexed to his said petition, and the said William P. Mathews having satisfied me, by competent testimony, that he has resided in the State of Maryland for the two years immediately preceding the time of his application, & the said William P. Mathews having stated in his said petition that he is in actual confinement for debt, and not on account of any breach of the peace or non payment of any fine to the State of Maryland, or the United States, and praying to be discharged from his said confinement on the terms prescribed by law, and having taken the oath prescribed by the act aforesaid, I do therefore order and adjudge, that the said William P. Mathews be discharged from his said imprisonment; and by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in any one newspaper in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three months, before the first day of next April term, he give notice to his said creditors to appear at the county court, at the court-house aforesaid, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to show cause, if any they have, why the said William P. Mathews should not have the benefit of said act and supplements as prayed.

Given under my hand this thirty-first December, 1810.
