GEORGE SHAW,

HAVING employed a book binder, from Philadelphia, with all the Baltimore prices, and every other kind of blank and printed work.

Anne-Arundel County, sc.

ON application of the subscriber, in the name of Anne-Arundel county court, as one of the associate judges of the third judicial district of Maryland, by petition in writing of Thomas Karnes, of Anne-Arundel county, praying for the relief of the said Karnes, in relation to the relief of sundry solvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said petition, schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, and being satisfied by the competent testimony that the said Karnes has resided in the State of Maryland two years immediately preceding the time of his application, it is thereupon ordered and adjudged, that the said Thomas Karnes, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette once a week for three months successively, before the day of September next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the county court on the third Monday in September next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and if a few cases, if any they have, why the said Thomas Karnes should not have the benefit of the said laws, given under my hand this 5th day of February, 1811.

RICHARD H. HARWOOD.

Anne-Arundel County, sc.

APPLICATION having been made to the subscriber, in the name of Anne-Arundel county court, by petition in writing of Charles Wilkes, of said county, praying for the relief of sundry solvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said petition, schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being satisfied by the competent testimony that the said Wilkes has resided in the State of Maryland for two years immediately preceding the time of his application, having resided in his person in the said county for the purpose of debt, and paying to be discharged from imprisonment, I do therefore order and adjudge, that the said Charles Wilkes be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette weekly for three months successively, before the third Monday in April next, give notice to his creditors to appear before Anne-Arundel county court, on the third Monday in April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and if a few cases, if any they have, why the said Charles Wilkes should not have the benefit of the said laws, given under my hand this 5th day of July, 1810.

Sale Postponed.

By virtue of a decree of the honorable chancellor of the State of Maryland, it be exposed to public sale on Monday, the 11th day of March next, if fair, if not, the first fair day thereafter,

ALL the real estate of ELISHA HOPKINS, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, being part of a tract of land called Star Hall, containing two hundred and forty acres and a half acres of land, being a place whereon the said Elisha Hopkins resided at his decease. This land is considered the first quality. The buildings are, a comfortable dwelling house, a kitchen, and many other necessary out-houses in good repair; a fine large bearing apple orchard together with a number of other fruit trees. There is also a great proportion of wood-land and very valuable timber, and about thirty acres of first rate meadow land. The above land will be sold for one third of the money paid at time of purchase; one in 8 months, and the balance in fifteen months; the purchaser to give bond, with good security, to be approved of by the trustee, with interest from the day of sale. Upon the payment of the purchase money, and not before, a good and sufficient deed will be executed, making the title indisputable. The sale to commence at 11 o'clock.

GERARD R. HOPKINS, trustee. February 12.

Notice is hereby given,

THAT the subscriber intends to petition the Judges of Anne-Arundel county court, at their next session, for the benefit of the act of assembly passed at November session, 1805, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto.

SAMUEL PLUMMER. February 12.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber hath obtained from the orphan court of Anne-Arundel county, letters of administration with the will annexed, on the personal estate of JOHN MUIR, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased. All persons who have claims against said estate are requested to bring them in legally authenticated, and those who in any manner are indebted to the estate, to make payment to him, or to Captain DENNY, who is fully authorized to act as his agent in the affairs of the late John Muir, deceased.

JOHN MUIR, Administrator with the Will Annexed.

Law for the inspection of salted provisions imported into, and exported from, the City of Annapolis.

WHEREAS frauds and impositions arise from the sale of salted provisions, and that there should be regulations for the prevention thereof;

Be it established and ordained, by the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, of the City of Annapolis, and by the Authority of the same, That all salted beef, pork and fish, in barrels, kegs, or imported into the said City, or any of the United States, or any foreign port whatsoever, from and after the date of this law, shall be made merchantable, and fit for use.

And be it established and ordained, by the Authority aforesaid, That a person of good repute, skilled in the goodness, quality and well curing of salted beef, pork and fish, of every kind, be chosen and appointed, by the mayor's court, to be called an inspector, on or before the first day of sale of provisions in office shall be appointed, whose continuance in office shall be for one year, and he shall be sworn to remain during pleasure; it shall and may be necessary or expedient, that the mayor, or his deputy, shall appoint a deputy, who shall have the same power, and be allowed the same fees, as the said inspector; provided nevertheless, that it shall not be lawful for such deputy to take the oath, or affirmation, of office, until he has taken the oath, or affirmation, of office, prescribed by this ordinance, and for whose conduct the said inspector shall be answerable.

And be it established and ordained, by the Authority aforesaid, That each and every barrel of salted beef, or pork, or fish, shall contain at least two hundred pounds net weight, and the inspector is hereby authorized to examine and pass all such beef and pork in such barrels, as shall appear to be merchantable, found, and fit for use, and to be marked with the figures 200 lb. and if on each barrel shall offer for inspection any person or persons of beef or pork, to be of the weight or barrels of beef or pork, or fish, containing more than is hereby directed, any barrel shall forfeit and pay, for every pound over the said quantity, and for every pound under, the sum of ten cents for each and every pound so deficient, and for every pound over the said quantity, to be applied to the use of the city; but the said inspector may be and is hereby authorized and required, to pass and brand all half barrels of beef and pork containing one hundred pounds weight, branding each barrel in figures 100 lb. and if any person or persons shall pack a less quantity of beef or pork than one half barrel, he, she or they, shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty cents for every pound so deficient, to be applied for the use of the city.

And whereas also the quantity of beef and pork sold in this city is often various, and it becometh proper to discriminate their respective qualities, Be it established and ordained, by the Authority aforesaid, That the inspector aforesaid is hereby authorized and required, on inspection, as this ordinance directs, to brand all barrels and half barrels of beef and pork, by him inspected, that shall be merchantable and found, either with the word second or third, according to the quality thereof; that is to say, barrels and half barrels of the best quality with the word first, barrels and half barrels of the second quality with the word second, and all barrels and half barrels of other inferior quality with the word third.

And be it established and ordained, by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the fourth day of February next, all barrels, brought or imported into the city of Annapolis from any part of this State, shall be made of good seasoned materials, well made, tightened with twelve hoops, sufficiently nailed, with four nails in each girth hoop, and three nails in each upper bilge hoop, and to hold pickle, and of the following dimensions, to wit: Beef and fish barrels to be twenty-eight inches the length of the staves, twenty-eight inches the diameter from out to out; all pork barrels to be twenty-eight inches long, seventeen inches and one half of an inch diameter the head, and twenty one inches and one half of an inch diameter the body; the staves to be bilge diameter from out to out, and a quarter from the top of the staves, or less than one half of an eighth of an inch, the staves to be of any well seasoned timber, (pine and cypress excepted,) sufficient to hold pickle, and the hoops one inch diameter at the small end, under the penalty of eight dollars, for the use of the city.

And be it established and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every barrel or half barrel of beef, pork, or fish, brought to the view and examination of the inspector, for as aforesaid nominated and appointed, who shall search and try the same, by opening one of the heads, and examining whether it be honestly & well packed, and also whether it be found, good and of sufficient weight; and if the said inspector shall judge the same to be merchantable, according to the directions of this ordinance, he shall brand every such barrel and half barrel, on the quarter, with the word Annapolis, with a public brand mark to be provided for that purpose by the corporation, and the word beef, pork or fish, as the case may be, for which trouble he the said inspector, shall have and receive from the owner or owners of such beef and pork twelve and an half cents, and for fish ten cents, for each and every cask so inspected, examined and branded, by him, and no more; and upon every barrel or half barrel of beef, pork or fish, being imported or brought into the city of Annapolis from any part of this State, or from any of the United States, or from any foreign port whatsoever, the importer shall within forty-eight hours after the landing or delivery of the same, deliver to the inspector, or his deputy, a written report ascertaining the number of casks and the place wherein the same shall be deposited, under the penalty of one dollar for each and every cask imported as aforesaid, to be applied for the use of the city, and if the inspector shall judge the same to be merchantable he shall brand every such barrel, on the quarter, with the word Annapolis, in manner as aforesaid, and the word beef, pork or fish, as the case may be, as aforesaid.

And be it established and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That no inspector shall brand any barrel or half barrel of beef, pork or fish, which he may think unfound or unmerchantable, according to the true intent and meaning of this ordinance, but shall cause the same to be marked on the bilge with the broad arrow, or secure it for a further examination, if required, which examination the owner shall procure to be made within the space of four days; and the inspector shall & may demand and receive from the owner or owners thereof, the same rates and prices as if the same had been brand ed.

And be it established and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That when any person shall think himself aggrieved through the judgment or want of skill of the said inspector, in rejecting the said salted provisions as unmerchantable or unfound, it shall and may be lawful for such person to apply to the mayor, or any one of the aldermen, who shall, at the charge of the complainant, issue his warrant directed to three different persons, well skilled in the goodness, quality and well curing of salted beef, pork and fish, of every kind, to review and examine the same, which said three persons so as aforesaid appointed, shall take the same oath or affirmation as by this ordinance is herein after directed to be taken by every inspector of salted provisions, and shall carefully view and examine the same, and if they or any two of them, shall pass and declare the same to be found or merchantable, then and in such case the said inspector shall erase out the broad arrow, and put such brand on the said salted provisions as they or any two of them, shall adjudge and determine, & this corporation shall repay to the said complainant the said costs; but if on such review the judgment of the said inspector shall be confirmed, then and in such case the said owner of such salted provisions shall pay the costs of such review.

And be it established and ordained, by the Authority aforesaid, That the corporation shall be allowed five cents per barrel for storage, if stored, and if upon appeal, and review as aforesaid, the judgment of the inspectors shall be confirmed, the person appealing shall pay the expense of such storage, and shall also pay the same if an appeal shall not be prosecuted, and if the judgment of the said inspector shall be reversed then the said corporation shall forfeit the charge and expense of the said storage.

And be it established and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful for any person whatsoever, to export, ship or lade, on board of any ship or vessel for exportation out of this city, or the harbour of Annapolis, or the waters under the jurisdiction of this corporation, any of the casks of the said salted provisions to be marked with the broad arrow as aforesaid, or to sell, export, ship or lade, on board of any ship or vessel, for exportation, any of the casks of salted provisions not examined and branded as aforesaid, from out of this city, or the harbour of Annapolis, or the waters under the jurisdiction of this corporation, on pain of forfeiture of ten dollars for each and every barrel so exported or laden on board of any ship or other vessel for exportation, nor shall it be lawful for any person or persons to purchase or sell, or offer to purchase or sell, in the city of Annapolis, or in the precincts thereof, any cask or casks of salted beef, pork or fish, not previously inspected, examined or branded, under the penalty of ten dollars for each cask so sold, or offered for sale, or purchased within the said city or precincts aforesaid, for the use of the said city.

And be it established and ordained, by the Authority aforesaid, That every inspector of salted provisions who shall be nominated and appointed as aforesaid, shall on his appointment, and before his executing the said office, make oath or affirmation, as the case may be, before the mayor, or any one of the aldermen, that without fear, favour, affection, malice, partiality, or respect of persons, he will diligently and carefully view, examine and inspect, all salted beef, pork or fish, brought to the said city of Annapolis, & which he shall be called upon to view, examine and inspect, to the best of his skill and knowledge, and that no salted provisions shall be passed or branded by him, without his viewing and examining the same, that he will not brand, or cause to be branded, any cask or casks of salted provisions that do not appear, to the best of his skill and knowledge, to be in all respects sufficiently clean, found and merchantable, and that he will found and brand all such cask or casks of salted provisions as shall appear to him sufficiently clean, found & merchantable, to the best of his skill and knowledge, and according to the directions of this ordinance, and that he will not willingly or wittingly, charge, ask, take, receive, exact or demand, any other fees or rates for doing his duty in his office as inspector of salted provisions, than is mentioned & directed by this ordinance, and that he will carefully and diligently view and examine all casks in which such salted provisions shall be brought and contained, and that he will not pass or brand any cask or casks of salted provisions unless such cask or casks be of such size, goodness and thickness, as by this ordinance is required.

And be it established and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That no inspector of salted provisions shall purchase, directly or indirectly any salted beef, pork or fish, by him condemned as aforesaid, or any salted provisions whatsoever, other than for his own family's use, under the penalty of ten dollars for each and every barrel by him so purchased.

And be it established and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That if any person shall alter the mark stamped on any barrel or half barrel of salted provisions by any inspector, or shall mark or brand any barrel or half barrel of salted provisions, which hath not been inspected, with any mark or brand similar to, or in imitation of, the inspector's said mark or brand, or after the said inspector shall have passed any barrel or half barrel of salted provisions, as merchantable, shall pack into the cask which contains the same, any other salted provisions, or after any barrel or half barrel of salted provisions shall be marked with the broad arrow, shall unpack and repack the same into other casks or packages for exportation or sale, such person shall forfeit and pay eight dollars and twenty-five cents for every barrel or half barrel repacked as aforesaid, to be applied for the use of the city.

And be it established and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That before the said inspector shall enter upon the execution of his office, he shall give bond, with securities, to be approved of by the mayor, recorder, aldermen and common council, of the city of Annapolis, in the sum of two hundred dollars, that he will diligently and carefully fulfil and perform all the duties required of him by this ordinance, and that he will well and faithfully pay all fines and forfeitures by him incurred by reason of this ordinance, in such manner and at such times as the corporation may hereafter direct, and will give information to the mayor, recorder or some one of the aldermen, of any violation of this bye-law which may come to his knowledge and he shall also take the several oaths or affirmations, to government, appointed by law to be taken, and shall also subscribe a declaration of his belief in the Christian religion.

And be it established and ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That all fines, forfeitures and penalties, by this ordinance incurred, may be recovered, by presentment or indictment, or in a summary mode, before the mayor, recorder, or some one of the aldermen; provided nevertheless, that an appeal may be had to the mayor's court from such decision in the same manner as is now practiced on appeals from a justice of the peace to the county court.
