Anne-Arundel county court
September term, 1810.
ON application to the judges of the county court, by petition in writing, of John Dove of said county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, on the terms mentioned in the said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition; the said county court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said John Dove had produced to the said court the two preceding years prior to the date of the said act within the county of Maryland; and the said John Dove, at the time of presenting his petition as aforesaid, having produced to the said court the two preceding years prior to the date of the said act, in writing, of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of his said petition, it is thereupon adjudged, ordered by the said court, that the said John Dove, (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspapers published in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months before the first Monday of April next,) give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court, to be held at the city of Annapolis, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the third Monday of April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said John Dove then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for verifying up his property.
Signed by order,

District of Maryland, sc.
It is remembered, That on this twenty-first day of January, in the thirty-fifth year of the Independence of the United States of America, William Kilty, of the said district, hath deposited in my office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as author, in the words following, to wit: "A Report of all such English statutes as had at the time of the first emigration of the people of Maryland, and which by experience have been found applicable to their local and other circumstances, and of such others as have since been introduced, used and practised, by the courts law or equity; and also all such parts of the law as may be proper to be introduced and incorporated into the body of the statute law of the said district." Made according to the directions of the Legislature, by William Kilty, Chancellor of Maryland. To which are prefixed an Introduction, listing the statutes which had not been found applicable to the circumstances of the people of the said district; and also to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, An act for the encouragement of learning, securing the copies of maps, charts and books, the authors and proprietors of such copies, the times therein mentioned; and also to the act, entitled, An act supplementary to the act, entitled, An act for the encouragement of learning, securing the copies of maps, charts and books, the authors and proprietors of such copies, the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving and etching, historical and other prints. (L.S.) WILLIAM MOORE, Clerk of the District of Maryland.

Anne-Arundel county, sc.
ON application to me, the subscriber, in the records of Anne-Arundel county court, as one of the associate judges of the third judicial district of Maryland, by petition in writing, of Richard Medcalf of said county, praying for the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in said acts, a schedule of his property, & list of his creditors, as far as he can ascertain them being annexed to his petition; and the said Richard Medcalf having satisfied me by competent testimony that he has resided in the state of Maryland two years immediately preceding the time of his application, having also stated in his petition that he is now in confinement for debt, and not on account of any crime or breach of the peace, and having produced to me the certificate of the constable to that effect, and having prayed to be discharged on the terms prescribed in the said acts, I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said Richard Medcalf be discharged from his confinement; and by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette, for three months successively, before the first Monday in April next, to give notice to his creditors to appear before the county court of said county at twelve o'clock of the third Monday in April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Richard Medcalf should not have the benefit of the several acts of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors. Given under my hand this 21st day of July, 1810.
RICHARD H. HARWOOD.

Notice is hereby given,
TO all my creditors, that I intend to apply to Anne-Arundel county court, or to some judge thereof, in the records of the court, after this notice shall have been published two months, for the benefit of the act of assembly passed at Nov. session, 1805, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, also an act, entitled, An act for the relief and benefit of David Hanlon, passed at November session, 1810.
4 DAVID HANLON.
Jan. 26, 1811.

NOTICE.
I INTEND to apply to the next Charles county court for the benefit of the act, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and of the several supplements thereto.
4 HORATIO CLAGGETT.
Charles County, Jan. 14, 1811.

Calvert county court,

October Term, 1810.
ON application of James Dixon, of said county, to the judges of the said county court, by petition in writing, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, on the terms mentioned in the said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition, and the said county court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said James Dixon has resided the two preceding years prior to the passage of the said act within the state of Maryland, it is thereupon adjudged and ordered by the said court, that the said James Dixon, give notice to his creditors of his intention to apply to the next county court to be held at Prince-Frederick-town, in said county, on the second Monday of May next, for a discharge from his debts, and to warn his said creditors to appear before the said judges on the day and at the place aforesaid, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said James Dixon should not be discharged agreeably to his said petition; by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette, for successive weeks, and also by causing copies of said order to be set up at the court-house and church-doors of said county two months previous to the sitting of the said county court.
Signed by order of Court,
WM. S. MORSELL,
Clerk Calvert County Court.

Anne-Arundel County,

ON application, in writing, to me the subscriber, in the records of the court, associate judge of the third judicial district of the state of Maryland, of William P. Mathews, of Anne-Arundel county, praying the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms prescribed by said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as nearly as he can ascertain the same at present, being annexed to his said petition, and the said William P. Mathews having satisfied me, by competent testimony, that he has resided in the state of Maryland for the two years immediately preceding the time of his application, & the said William P. Mathews having stated in his said petition that he is in actual confinement for debt, and not on account of any breach of the peace or non payment of any fine to the state of Maryland, or the United States, and praying to be discharged from his said confinement on the terms prescribed by law, and having taken the oath prescribed by the act aforesaid, I do therefore order and adjudge, that the said William P. Mathews be discharged from his said imprisonment; and by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in any one newspaper in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three months, before the first day of next April term, he give notice to his said creditors to appear at the county court, at the court-house aforesaid, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause, if any they have, why the said William P. Mathews should not have the benefit of said act and supplements as prayed.
Given under my hand this thirty-first December, 1810.
HENRY RIDGELY.

NOTICE.

ALL those who are indebted to the late firm of Michael and B. Curran, either by note, bond or open account, are requested to come and pay the same, as a longer indulgence cannot be given; and the subscriber earnestly requests their particular attention to this notice, as suits will be commenced against all delinquents to April term.
B. CURRAN.

B. CURRAN respectfully informs the citizens of Annapolis and the public generally, that he has a few articles in the dry goods line, purchased for cash, which will be sold low for the same; also a quantity of writing paper, quills, ink powder and a few dozen of Boston made Morocco Shoes. &c.

The Subscribers,
ONCE more return thanks to their friends generally, for past favours, and solicit a continuance of their custom, assuring them that their present arrangements will enable them to keep a good choice of goods, bought on the best terms, (by one of the partners living in Philadelphia) and they are determined to sell cheap for cash, good tobacco at fair market prices, & to such customers only as make good payments, on their usual credit.
RIDGELEY & WEEMS.
Annapolis, January 2, 1811.
N. B. All persons indebted to us on bond, note, or otherwise, of more than 12 months standing, are now requested to make speedy payment.
