

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[LXVIIIth YEAR.]

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 13, 1811.

[No. 3847.]

Anne-Arundel County.
Application to me, the subscriber, in the records of Anne-Arundel county, by petition, in writing, of the associate judges of the third judicial district of Maryland, by petition, in writing, of Dennis Iglehart, of Anne-Arundel county, praying for the benefit of the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, mentioned in said acts, a schedule of property, and a list of his creditors, which he can ascertain them, as directed by said acts, being annexed to his petition, and the said Dennis Iglehart, being satisfied by competent testimony, immediately preceding the time of the petition, and the said Dennis Iglehart, presenting his petition, having referred to me the assent in writing of his creditors as have due to them two thirds of the debts due to them thereupon ordered and adjudge, that the said Dennis Iglehart, by causing this order to be inserted in the Gazette once a week for three months, before the fourth Monday of April next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the county court, to be held at the city of Annapolis, at ten o'clock in the morning of the said fourth Monday of April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, & to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Dennis Iglehart should not have the benefit of the said acts, as prayed. Given under my hand this ninth day of January, 1811.
RICHARD H. HARWOOD.

Thirty Dollars Reward.

RUN AWAY from the subscriber living near Pig Point, Anne-Arundel county, on the 7th of December last, a negro woman named BETTY, about twenty-five years of age, five feet two or three inches high; yellowish complexion, has full eyes, rather a down look, had on when she absconded, blue stuff petticoat, and callico jacket, and took with her variety of other clothing which it is deemed unnecessary to describe. She is supposed to be in or about the neighbourhood of Annapolis, having a husband residing in that city. Whoever apprehends said woman, and delivers her to me, or secures her in the Annapolis gaol, shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable expenses.

JOHN SHEPARD.

March 4, 1811.

Posts and Rails.

THE subscriber wants to purchase 100 good Locust Posts, 7 1/2 feet long, to square inches; likewise 350 sawed chestnut rails, 4 inches by 2 1/2, 300 of them to be 8 1/2 feet long, and 50 of them 17 feet. A liberal price will be given for those of a good quality delivered at the wharf.

JOHN SHAW.

Anne-Arundel County.

Application, in writing, to me the subscriber, in the records of the court, associate judge of the third judicial district of the state of Maryland, of William P. Mathews, of Anne-Arundel county, praying for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms prescribed by said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as nearly as he can ascertain the same at present, being annexed to his said petition, and the said William P. Mathews having satisfied me, by competent testimony, that he has resided in the state of Maryland for the two years immediately preceding the time of his application, & the said William P. Mathews having stated in his said petition that he is in actual confinement for debt, and not on account of any breach of the peace or non-payment of any fine to the state of Maryland, or the United States, and being to be discharged from his said confinement on the terms prescribed by law, and being taken the oath prescribed by the act aforesaid, I do therefore order and adjudge, that the said William P. Mathews be discharged from his said imprisonment; and by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in any one news-paper in the city of Annapolis once a week for three months, before the first day of next April term, he give notice to his said creditors to appear at the county court, at the court-house aforesaid, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause, if any they have, why the said William P. Mathews should not have the benefit of said act and supplements as prayed.

Given under my hand this thirty-first December, 1810.

HENRY RIDGELY.

NOTICE.

ALL those who are indebted to the late firm of Michael and B. Curran, either by note, bond or open account, are requested to come and pay the same, as a longer indulgence cannot be given; and the subscriber earnestly requests their particular attention to this notice, as suits will be commenced against all delinquents to April term.

B. CURRAN.

B. CURRAN respectfully informs the citizens of Annapolis and the public generally, that he has a few articles in the dry goods line, purchased for cash, which will be sold low for the same; also a quantity of writing paper, quills, inkpowder and a few boxes of Boston made Morocco Shoes, &c.

The Subscribers,

ONCE more return thanks to their friends generally, for past favours, and solicit a continuance of their custom, assuring them that their present arrangements will enable them to keep a good choice of goods, bought at the best terms, (by one of the partners living in Philadelphia) and they are determined to sell cheap for cash, good tobacco at fair market prices, & to such customers only who make good payments, on their usual credit.

RIDGELY & WEEMS.

Annapolis, January 2, 1811.
N. B. All persons indebted to us on bond, note, or otherwise, of more than 12 months standing, are now requested to make speedy payment.

By Authority.
