the spirit and good conduct of the present revolutionary government, that in my opinion if G. Britain does not discountenance this government alone will effect a resolution to every government from Cape to Mexico, and drive those from the land who have been the support of rich and powerful men.
The Montevideans, tho' they struggle must come under. Admiral De Cour-ville has to clipped the wings of the blockade squadron, that it is expected it will retire.
No doubt remains with me that the work which has commenced will be accomplished. All the English merchants are in favour of it to a man. Lt. Ramsay, with schooner of 8, and a brig of 10 guns, with the blockaders, with their 30 gun-ship, and other craft, in complete subjection, not leaving them to visit English vessels.— The Montevideo Squadron lies directly before the city, and has ordered away one American ship as an example."

BATH, (N. H.) FEB. 20.
Yesterday between 3 and 4 o'clock P. M. a large store situated in Bath Village belonging to the N. H. Iron Factory Company was discovered to be on fire, which appeared to have accidentally communicated from a fire in one of the Chambers, and which had made such progress before being discovered that it immediately after burnt through the roof, and close through the side of the store near the chamber where it began. With these appearances added to the circumstance of the upper part of the building being of wood, with condensed smoke that a man could scarcely remain in it longer than he drew his breath, all exertions were supposed ineffectual, and being informed that there was six hundred weight of Gun-Powder in the store, twenty quarter casks of which were placed together over the chamber under the roof, it was thought that the explosion would produce such a terrible catastrophe, and that the loss of the store and contents would be such a calamity to the Company, it was determined a desperate effort should be made to subdue the flames; accordingly a line of men with buckets was formed to the river to the Store; others went by a ladder on the roof to receive the water and others went into the garret in pursuit of the Powder, which so darkened with smoke that they could see nothing but holes that were burned through the roof and the powder, and the fire constantly dropping.

MONTEVIDEO, OCT. 4. had just escaped when trouble began. You will know the situation of the port of this place, and Buenos Ayres, departure. A little time ago, the Buenos Ayres, decreed a Non-Intercourse place, and prohibited the launching here with cargoes: In retaliation the government of this place have sent two brigs, and 4 gun-boats to blockade the port of B. Ayres, and since the 6th before the port, and have duty on the existence of the blockade to the and the other shipping.
English commander of the British in the River Plate has entered into agreement with the government of this to permit the loading of vessels which in Buenos Ayres previous to the 1st which he had engaged to prohibit any vessel from entering the port of Montevideo, and has likewise stipulated that all not be allowed to come to the port to proceed to Moldenado, until the Admiral at Rio Janeiro convention has given much offence to the government of Buenos Ayres, as a hostile step against them. The commander's agreement only stipulates English vessels; all others under any flag received notice on the 15th from the commander of the Spanish Squadron before Buenos Ayres that road in three days, loaded or empty. This order put us all in confusion for waiting on him he at last agreed our vessels to continue loading and to send a deputation to make some arrangement with the government. I am in consultation, and this day we have presented a Memorial and Petition for time to the loading of those ships which arrived on the 3d inst.; we shall have a decision to-morrow; but we are fearful it will be favourable to our further stay in Buenos Ayres, and you know it is impossible to get any large quantity of hides in Buenos Ayres Nov. 18, 1810.

At this time Buenos Ayres is blockaded by a Squadron from Montevideo that is composed of Spanish, American, and Portuguese vessels. The English Admiral Sir Thomas B. Spencer, who is at Rio Janeiro to Montevideo and ordering of the blockade as respects the flag, and some ships have come to Montevideo without molestation. I trust they will be so rapid and unjust as the embargo by force for one month on all respects all others.

NOVEMBER 22, 1810. before you receive this, you will be informed of the execution of Gen. Liniers, and that the relieved revolutionaries has marched for Paraguay and Paraguay like this, where the inhabitants have been born and lived in shackles, and they contend for their rights against the measure may not be considered He was ungrateful, and he was doing much injury. Justice therefore demanded the sacrifice to the noble cause.
The revolutionary army, called the Relieving Army, it was 6000 interior, having had some skirmishes having taken every town and village and to their object—the points of advice of their arrival before they were received yesterday, but being of 3 or 5000 troops, they were with the arrival of reinforcements bombs, which are numerous. A despatch has announced the of the city was closely The army of the north, 10000 marched against Paraguay; and in his right hand, he ran to the fence and jumped over, and discovered the guns ran towards me, but he very quickly headed her, and discharged the one in his right hand as she ran; but the not falling, he raised the other, instantly the sheriff ran toward him, and he pointed at the sheriff, and wheeled round and pursued the woman and discharged the contents at her back, when within ten feet of her, while she was running and screaming; she shot entered between her shoulders, and lodged in her breast, and she instantly fell dead on her face, I believe in an instant, for in the mean time, when I saw the first gun fire, I unbuttoned my great coat, took a pistol out of my pocket, and when she received the second fire, I went to her in 20 or 30 seconds, and she was as dead as she is now. He, as soon as he committed this dreadful deed, ran off; the sheriff pursuing him to the fence, where he jumped over, and ran into the swamp, carrying the last gun he discharged with him and has escaped.

Seldom has an event equally cruel and barbarous with this transpired in the world. The laws of God profaned in the most impious manner; the laws of hospitality not only most cruelly denied to a woman but made the cowardly decoy to take her life. She who spotless blood before both God and man, and never in a word or deed offended."

There will be a considerable private reward given for his apprehension, which is not yet ready for advertisement.

CHURCH LOTTERY.
THE Managers having understood that many of the Citizens have delayed purchasing TICKETS, from an apprehension that the drawing would not commence until a distant day. To remove such impressions, and with a view to attain the objects contemplated by the law, as soon as possible, they confidently assure the public, that the sale of a few more Tickets will justify them in commencing the drawing; they therefore earnestly solicit all those disposed to purchase to come forward, and notify to some one of the Managers, what number of Tickets they are willing to take.

William Brewer
INFORMS his friends and the public generally, that he has again taken the UNION Tavern, at Annapolis, which he has occupied for the last year. To his old customers he thinks it sufficient to promise that their future accommodations shall be equal to what they have heretofore received; and as promises have become more fashionable than the due performance of them, he is unwilling to make many, and will therefore only say that nothing on his part shall be wanting to gratify those who may choose to favour him with their custom. He cannot omit this opportunity of tendering his sincere thanks to those who have favoured him with their custom since his commencement in this line of business, and willing to appeal to them for his unremitting exertions to please, he feels confident that he shall receive a continuance of their patronage.
