WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 1811.

[No. 3354]

[LXVIIIth YEAR.]

PUBLIC SALE.

BY virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery of Maryland, will be offered in Public Sale, to the highest bidder, on the Monday the first day of May next, at 10 o'clock, if fair, if not, the first day thereafter, on the premises,

A TRACT OF LAND, being all the estate of James Mayo, deceased, in Anne-Arundel county, on the south side of South River, and containing about 200 acres. This land is partly bounded by the River and creeks making from said river from which fish, oysters and wild fowl, may be had in abundance in their season. The improvements are, a framed dwelling house, a good kitchen, tobacco-house, and other houses. Farther description is deemed unnecessary, as it is presumed those who wish to purchase will view the premises.

The terms of sale will be, that the purchaser pay the purchase money, with interest, within twelve months from the day of sale, the purchaser giving bond, with security, to be approved by the trustee, bearing interest from the day of sale. And on ratification of the sale by the Chancellor, and on payment of the whole of the purchase money, the trustee will give a good and sufficient title.

JOHN WELLS, jun. Trustee.
March 20, 1811.

Private Sale.

THE subscriber offers for sale the land which he now lives, containing 200 acres, lying on the Chesapeake bay, near Black Point; it is well adapted to the growth of tobacco and small grain; contains plenty of timber for plantation uses, and on which cedar posts may be got to pay a great part of the purchase money. The improvements are a dwelling-house, together with very convenient out buildings. The terms will be known by applying to the subscriber. His attention given the first of January next.
