William Brewer INFORMS his friends and the public generally, that he has again taken the Union Tavern, at Annapolis, which he has occupied for the last year. To his old customers he thinks it sufficient to promise that their future accommodations shall be equal to what they have heretofore received; and as premises have become more fashionable than the due performance of them, he is unwilling to make many, and will therefore only say that nothing on his part shall be wanting to satisfy those who may choose to favour him with their custom. He cannot omit this opportunity of tendering his sincere thanks to those who have favoured him with their custom since his commencement in this line of business, and willing to appeal to them for their unremitting exertions to please, he feels confident that he shall receive a continuance of their patronage. 10

In Chancery, May 13, 1811. John Sullivan and John Murray, vs. Samuel Young.

THE object of the bill is to obtain a sale of a house and lot in the precincts of Annapolis, for the payment of the debts due by John Young, deceased.—The bill states, that John Muir sold the said house and lot to Abolote Phelps and John Young, who paid a part of the purchase money, and that the said Phelps transferred his interest to the said Young.—The bill also states, that Samuel Young is the heir at law of John, and received out of the state; that John Muir departed this life leaving John Murray his devisee, and who has since taken letters of administration on his estate.—The bill further states, that the complainants are still creditors of the said John Young, and that his personal property, has been insufficient to pay his debts.—It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainants, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once in each of three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette before the 16th day of June next, give notice to the said absent defendant of this application, and warn him to appear in this court in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the 16th day of October, to show cause, (if any there be,) why a decree shall not pass as prayed.
