"Rural Felicity," containing 223 1-2 acres; "Pratt's Neck," containing 201 1-2 acres; "Deep Greek Point," containing 80 1-2 acres; "Goldsborough's Chaice," containing 114 acres; "The Chesapeake," containing 58 1-4 acres; "Greenwood," containing 129 1-2 acres; "Friendship," containing 58 7-8 acres, and "The Addition to Friendship," containing one acre and an half. an half.

an half.

These lands are situated immediately on the Chesapeake Bay, nearly opposite to Poplar Island, and command a very extensive and beautiful prospect. The three first mentioned tracts, (adjoining each other,) are divided into three tenements, on which are divided into three tenements, on which there are good houses for tenants, and they are separated from the five last mentioned tracts by Deep Creek, over which is a bridge. On the last mentioned tracts, (also adjoining each other,) is a very handsome brick dwelling house two stories high, with two rooms and a large passage on the first floor, and five rooms and a small passage on the second; there are two piazzas, one in front and the other back. Adzas, one in front and the other back. Ad-joining the dwelling-house is an excellent brick pantry or store room, and a kitchen, and near them all necessary out-houses. Also a large and well built stable and a house for an overseer. On different parts of the farm are several quarters for the accommodation of servants, and a very large barn and granary, all of which are in good repair. Also a windmill, to which most of the reliable way and the reliable way. most of the neighbours send their grain. The soil of these lands is adapted mostly to the growth of grain, and is of that nature that it will retain any improvement which may be made of it. The subscriber thinks it unnecessary to particularise the advantages of the situation of these lands, as it must readily occur to all, that any person residing on them, from their vicinity to the waters of the bay, will always enjoy the advantage of sending his produce to market with but little trouble, and may procure for his table all the lux-uries which they afford in their different seasons. These lands are well timbered, and the woodlands are conveniently situated for the use of the farms. There are also two orchards on the premises, which are now in their prime, and contain a variety of excellent fruit.

The several tracts will be laid off so as to suit purchasers.

At the same time and place will also be sold, an undivided moiety of an Island in the Chesapeake Bay, called "Swan Is-land," containing 2 3-8 acres.

These tracts are contiguous to each other, or nearly so, and will be sold together. The former tract lies upon Wicomoco river, about six-miles below Allen's Fresh, and has a convenient landing, from which produce may be taken to vessels in the river. This is a very valuable farm, the land is level and he taken to vessels in the river. This is a very valuable farm, the land is level and very rich, and has thereon is tolerably good dwelling-house, and convenient necessary out-houses. The soil is well adapted to the cultivation of grain. Fish and fowl in their season may be procured in great shundance. There is an excellent spring of good water at the door. The other tract is wholly woodland, and is intended to supply the farm with woodlace.

Also "Minitree's Marsh," containing a resurvey on "Gibson's Close," contain-

5 1.2 acres, "Minitree's Welldome," being a resurvey on "Gibson's Close," containing 131 acres and 2 perches; "Partner's Purchase," containing 227 acres 3 roods and 39 perches; "Hamill Outwitted," containing 165 acres; and an undivided moiety of a tract of land called "Good for Little;" the whole containing 71 acres 3 roods and 30 perches. These tracts, (except the last,) lie upon the River Potomak, adjoining each other, between Pickawaxon and Cuckold Creeks, and are divided into four tenements—Their soil is well adapted to the cultivation of grain well adapted to the cultivation of grain and tobacco, and upon them are houses for tenants, but which want repair. Fish, oysters and wild fowl, may be had in their season. The last mentioned tract is held in common with Mrs. Hungerford, and is distant from the other tracts between two and three miles—It is wholly woodland, and is intended to supply the other tracts with wood, &c. and will be sold either separate or with some one of the other tracts, or divided, and a part sold with each of the other tracts, as may best accommodate purchasers.

The soil is adapted to the growth of grain and tobacco. There is on it a comfortable dwellinghouse, and other improvements, situate on a hill commanding a beautiful and ex-tensive view of the River. There is also a good and convenient spring of water.
The other tracts are upland and mostly wood, on one of which is an old dwelling-They will be sold together, or separate, as may suit purchasers.

The Subscriber deems it unnecessary to give more particular descriptions of the several lands and lots herein stated, as it is presumed that persons inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the sale. He begs leave to refer persons, desirous of viewing the lands for sale, to Capt. Jacob Franklin as to those on the Chesapeake, to Col. Harris as to those on the Potomok, and to Mr. Maddox as to those on the Wicomoco.
