THE FALLING TOWER.
MARK ye the Tower whose lonely halls
Re-echo to yon falling stream!
Mark ye its bare and crumbling walls,
While slowly fades the sinking beam?
There, oft, when eve in silent trance,
Hears the lone redbreast's plaintive moan,
Time casting round a cautious glance,
Heaves from its base some mould'ring stone.
There, tho' in time's departed day,
War wad'd his glittering banners high;
Tho' many a minstrel pour'd the lay,
And many a beauty trac'd the eye;
Yet never midst the gorgeous scene,
Midst the proud feats of splendid pow'r,
Shone on the pile a beam serene,
So bright as gilds its falling hour.
Oh! thus when life's gay scenes shall fade,
And pleasure lose its wonted bloom,
When creeping age shall bare my head,
And point to me the silent tomb;
Then may Religion's hallow'd flame
Shed on my mind its mild'nt ray;
And bid it seek in purer frame
One bright Eternity of Day.

LANDS AND LOTS FOR SALE.

THE subscriber, agreeably to the trusts reposed in him by an act of the Legislature of Maryland, passed at November session last, and by virtue of an order of the chancellor dated the fifth day of March last, will expose to public sale, to the highest bidder, on the days and at the places hereinafter mentioned, the following lands and lots, being part of the real estate of John Geinn, Esquire, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased; that is to say,
On Tuesday the twenty-third of July next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at the Union Tavern in the city of Annapolis, One acre lot, being part of a tract of land called "Acton" lying in the precincts of the said city, on the road leading to Baltimore, and at present occupied by John Hicks. This lot is under enclosure, & has thereon an old stable and several fruit trees.

Also lots numbered 62, 63 and 64, in the said city, near the Bath. These lots are separated into two distinct enclosures, and will be sold by enclosure. One of them is enclosed by a good post and rail fencing, land is in a high state of cultivation, with a number of very excellent fruit trees thereon, and a large and commodious stable and carriage house, in good order and repair.

The other is paved in, is highly improved as a garden, with a number of excellent fruit trees therein, and has an exposure favourable to the production of the earliest fruits and vegetables. There is also upon it a very good dwelling-house suitable for the residence of a small family.

On Saturday, the twenty-seventh of July next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at the house of Mr. Nicholas Watkins, at Elk Ridge Landing, Parts of three tracts of land, viz. "Henderson's Meadows," "Young's Locust Plains," and "Addition to Sanson," containing agreeably to a survey thereof lately made, 327 1/2 acres. The three tracts, (all adjoining each other,) lie between 3 and 4 miles from Elk Ridge Landing, and a part thereof is at present rented to Mr. Francis Lawrence, who will shew the premises to any person-inclined to purchase.

On Tuesday, the twentieth of August next, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at Mr. Pye's Tavern, in the town of Port-Tobacco, in Charles county,

Part of a lot in the said town, numbered 59; and also part of a lot or piece of ground lying on the east side of and adjoining the said lot, being part of a tract of land called "Chandler's Hope." Upon these lots there are a large commodious two-story dwelling-house, with four good rooms, and an extensive passage on each floor; an excellent cellar and kitchen under the house; a pantry and wash-house, meat-house and two separate stables—also a well of water suited to culinary purposes. There are likewise an excellent store and counting rooms with cellars under both. The counting room is at present occupied as an attorney's office, for which it is well calculated. The dwelling-house has been for several years used as a boarding-house, and lately as a tavern, and from its situation is suited for the accommodation of either a private family or a public Inn. The dwelling-house and lot, as at present under enclosure, will be sold separate from the store and counting rooms.

On Wednesday, the twenty-first of August next, at 12 o'clock in the forenoon, at Mr. Pye's tavern in Port-Tobacco, The following tracts or parcels of land, lying in Charles county, viz. "West Hatton," containing 500 acres, and "Hard Bargain" otherwise called "Wicomoco Fields," containing 42 1/2 acres. These tracts are contiguous to each other, or nearly so, and will be sold together. The former tract lies upon Wicomoco river, about six miles below Allen's Fresh, and has a convenient landing, from which produce may be taken to vessels in the river. This is a very valuable farm, the land is level and very rich, and has thereon a tolerably good dwelling-house, and convenient necessary out-houses. The soil is well adapted to the cultivation of grain. Fish and fowl in their season may be procured in great abundance. There is an excellent spring of good water at the door. The other tract is wholly woodland, and is intended to supply the farm with wood, &c.

Also "Mintree's Marsh," containing 5 1/2 acres; "Mintree's Welldone," being a resurvey on "Gibson's Close," containing 131 acres and 2 perches; "Partner's Purchase," containing 227 acres 3 roods and 39 perches; "Hamill Outwitted," containing 165 acres; and an undivided moiety of a tract of land called "Good for Little," the whole containing 71 acres 3 roods and 30 perches. These tracts, (except the last,) lie upon the River Potomak, adjoining each other, between Pickawaxon and Cuckold Creeks, and are divided into four separate tracts. Their soil is well adapted to the cultivation of grain and tobacco, and upon them are houses for tenants, but which want repair. Fish, oysters and wild fowl, may be had in their season. The last mentioned tract is held in common with Mrs. Hungerford, and is distant from the other tracts between two and three miles—It is wholly woodland, and is intended to supply the other tracts with wood, &c. and will be sold either separate or with some one of the other tracts, or divided, and a part sold with each of the other tracts, as may best accommodate purchase.

Also "Brother's Gift," containing 377 acres 3 roods and 6 perches; "Blithwood" containing 10 acres 2 roods and 33 perches; and "Littleworth," containing 121 acres. These lands, (the two first tracts adjoining each other, and the other nearly so,) lie within one and two miles of Potomack River, on the road leading from Port-Tobacco to Laidler's Ferry; and the first mentioned tract within one mile of Pickawaxon church—One half of this last tract is bottom land and very level—the other half is upland and also level. The soil is adapted to the growth of grain and tobacco. There is on it a comfortable dwelling house, and other improvements, situate on a hill commanding a beautiful and extensive view of the River. There is also a good and convenient spring of water. The other tracts are upland and mostly wood, on one of which is an old dwelling house. They will be sold together, or separate, as may suit purchasers.

The Subscriber deems it unnecessary to give more particular descriptions of the several lands and lots herein stated, as it is presumed that persons inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the sale. He begs leave to refer persons desirous of viewing the lands for sale, to Capt. Jacob Franklin as to those on the Chesapeake, to Col. Harris as to those on the Potomak, and to Mr. Maddox as to those on the Wicomoco.

TERMS OF SALE.

The purchaser or purchasers to give bond to the subscriber, with approved security, for paying the purchase money in three annual payments from the day of sale, viz. one third part thereof, with interest from the first of January next, on the whole sum, at the end of one year; one other third part thereof, with interest on the whole sum then unpaid, at the end of two years; and the residue, with interest as aforesaid, at the end of three years. Possession of the premises will be delivered to the purchasers on the first of January next.—In the mean-time they may exercise all rights of ownership not incompatible with those of the Tenants now residing thereon.

Where the premises are not tenanted out, immediate possession will be given; and in that case interest will commence on the purchase money from the day of sale.

On payment of the whole purchase money, with interest, the subscriber is authorised to execute deeds of conveyances of the premises to the several purchasers.

TH. HARRIS, Jun. Annapolis, June 6. 1811.

Public Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the high court of chancery, of the state of Maryland, the subscriber having been appointed trustee for the sale of the real estate of William Glover, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, will offer at Public Sale, at Mr. William Brewer's Tavern, in Annapolis, on Saturday, the 27th day of July instant, if fair, if not the first fair day thereafter, the following tract of land, called SANDGATE, lying about one mile from the city of Annapolis, containing about 300 acres. This land is capable of being divided into two parcels (should purchasers wish to buy it in that way, or it would be sold entire) on both of which there are good dwelling-houses, with other convenient houses. A further description of this property is deemed unnecessary, as it is supposed that any person wishing to purchase will view the premises previous to the day of sale.

The terms of sale are, that the purchaser or purchasers shall give bond, with security to be approved by the trustee, for the payment of the purchase money within twelve months from the day of sale, and upon the ratification of the sale by the Chancellor, and upon the receipt of the whole purchase money, the trustee will duly convey the same to the purchaser or purchasers.
