FOREIGN.

FROM FRANCE. PARIS, MAY 14. The day before yesterday, Mr. ERVING, ambassador from the U. S. to the court of Denmark, was presented to the emperor by the Duke of Bassano, minister of foreign relations. Also, Mr. Neyraud, an American. MAY 21. Joseph Buonaparte king of Spain, travelled through France to Paris in coach, and refused all the honours due to his rank. It is said the emperor set off yesterday on a journey of some days to the coasts of La Manche. The minister of the interior accompanies his majesty. Lefebvre, aged 50, exchange broker, has been convicted of fraudulent bankruptcy, & condemned to work six years on the fortresses. MAY 23. The king of Westphalia has just arrived at Paris. The king of Naples has left Paris. MAY 26. His majesty the king of the Two Sicilies has left Paris, to return to his state. Fourteen hundred Spanish prisoners, of whom 80 are officers, arrived on the 16th at Nimes, and left that on the day following, taking the way to Lyons. These troops made part of a corps coming to the relief of Figueras, but were entirely defeated, taken, killed or dispersed. (Figueras has however since been retaken, with an immense property.) MAY 27. A rumour prevailed that a courier which arrived yesterday in this city, and who continues his route to his majesty the emperor, brings accounts of important successes obtained by marshal Prince Eshling, (Massena,) over the British and Portuguese armies. On the 25th inst. his majesty was at Caen (a city in Normandy, 125 miles west of Paris,) with his Empress, receiving the congratulations of the inhabitants, and amusing themselves by walking out in their coach. CAEN, MAY 20. All is bustle here in order to be ready to do honour to their Imperial Majesties, who are momentarily expected. WESTPHALIA, MAY 14. In consequence of the excess of expenditures over the receipts, King Jerome has ordered the sale of six millions of public property. STOCKHOLM, MAY 8. A pension is granted to the late king of Sweden, together with his private property, provided he does not attempt to re-enter his former dominions, which all officers are ordered to prevent. An extraordinary meteor has been seen in several parts of France, nearly at the same time. "The king of Rome," Buonaparte's infant, has been vaccinated. From the Hamburg Correspondent, May 17. The master of requests, prefect of the department of the mouths of the Elbe, to mayors of the departments. "Gentlemen, Marriages are contracted by young men in the departments, with a view of avoiding the conscription. They appear to think that marriage can dispense with a duty which attaches to all Frenchmen. The laws of the empire contain no provision which can give a colour of pretence to this error; they establish no distinction between married and unmarried conscripts. It is to you gentlemen, that it belongs to enlighten families, and inform them that they can hope for no due advantages from the premature unions so likely to make the marriage state miserable. I respectfully salute you, BARON DE CONICK."

VIENNA, MAY 8. Our active and vigilant police attentively watches the proceeding of the news-mongers and stock-jobbers, who, to depress the course of exchange, daily circulate reports of the approaching breaking out of another war, the conclusion of new alliances, &c. As absurd as these may be, there are still persons to be found on whose credulity they make an impression of a disadvantageous nature. The promoters of these false rumours will be rigidly punished. "The mission of the Russian agent, Fonton, to the Turkish head quarters at Schumla has had no effect. He received for answer that peace between the Porte and Russia could not take place till the latter should give up Moldavia and Wallachia and withdraw her troops from the province of Servia."

BANKS OF THE MAINE, MAY 12. The following article has appeared in some journals: "Several Gazettes speak of a congress which is again expected to take place, and between three great monarchs. Repairs are said to be making in the pavement of the streets of Erfurth, and in the roads leading to that place."

NAPLES, MAY 9. A woman here has been delivered at one accouchment, of six male and seven female children, all alive, and perfectly organized! They have been preferred, and a more particular description will be given. COPENHAGEN, MAY 14. A cruiser from the Baltic asserts, that they heard on Sunday last a cannonade, that lasted from 11 o'clock in the forenoon till 6 in the evening. CHARTRES, MAY 25. The city has presented a chemise to his Majesty the King of Rome. His Imperial Majesty has been pleased to consent that this homage should be accepted. The benevolence of his majesty has diffused joy through our hearts; but that which consummates our wishes is, an assurance that we shall enjoy the august presence of their imperial majesties at the end of the month. The whole city is occupied in making the necessary preparations to receive them.

NANTZ, MAY 23. Within a few weeks two new frigates have been launched, with the utmost success, near this place. MILAN, MAY 17. His Imperial Highness the Prince Vice-Roy has written a letter to Madam Paqualigo, of Venice, (the wife of captain P. who commanded one of the frigates lately taken by the British cap. Hofte,) in which he assures her that he is highly gratified with the brilliant conduct of her husband in the affair on Lissa!—that he will attend to his exchange, and reward him for his services!

PETERSBURG, MAY 1. In the government of Pultaira, a stone has been picked up, weighing 15 pounds, which fell from the sky. The event was preceded by three uncommonly loud claps of thunder. The stone sunk above an ELL in the earth, but was still warm when it was taken out. Count Phalen, appointed commissioner to settle the boundaries between Russia and Sweden conformably to the last treaty, has been clothed with the badge of the order of St. Anne, set in diamonds. RIGA, MAY 6. Yesterday His Excellency General Count Lauriston, ambassador from the Emperor of the French to the court of St. Petersburg, arrived here. A deputation from the nobility and senate waited upon him with their compliments. Early this morning he continued his journey to Petersburg.
