

POET'S CORNER.

For the Maryland Gazette.

Mr. GREEN,
You will oblige a friend by having the enclosed inserted in your paper as soon as convenient.

THE ADIEU.

THE thought of leaving far away,
The friends affection cannot spare,
Plucks pleasure from the heart away,
And plants a noxious nettle there.
But holy hope! with smiles serene,
Like those which pity loves to wear,
Comes graceful on with Angel mien,
And purges from the bottom CARE.
Comes, ere the parting pang is giv'n,
The ling'ring look, the faint adieu;
From Beauty's eye it opens heav'n,
And Hope Angelic glitters through.
And Fancy sheds her fairy dreams,
Her magic influence o'er the brain,
Whilst on the heart prophetic gleams
The joy of coming back again.
But see where wave the lily hand,
M... and S..., VIRTUE'S PRIZE,
With all the graces at command,
All sparkling in celestial eyes.
Emblems of Love, and parent kind,
Within whose train the graces move;
Tho' now we leave you far behind,
We leave you PEACE, and JOY and LOVE.
And thoughts of each endearing hour,
Beguil'd enchantingly by you,
Shall be retain'd in memory's power,
Foster'd with love, and cherished true.
And there's a maid with laughing eyes,
With coral lips and mien divine,
Lovely M....., what a prize,
For him who wins that heart of thine!
And see the rosy C..... too,
And gentle L....., with aspect mild,
Each with an eye that sparkles true
Love's meaning, exquisitely wild.
Now in the rear behold the trio pair,
L....., H....., and N....., belov'd so
well,
May never sorrow, and may never care,
Unkind intruders, visit where they dwell.
Ladies your blessings now we all desire,
Your smiles, to crown our feeble efforts
deign,
For your politeness we have wak'd the lyre,
And to your goodness dedicate the strain.

By Authority.

LANDS AND LOTS FOR SALE.

THE subscriber, agreeably to the trust reposed in him by an act of the Legislature of Maryland, passed at November session last, and by virtue of an order of the chancellor dated the fifth day of March last, will expose to public sale, to the highest bidder, on the days and at the places hereinafter mentioned, the following lands and lots, being part of the real estate of John Grinn, Esquire, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased; that is to say,
On Tuesday, the twentieth of August next, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at Mr. Pye's Tavern, in the town of Port-Tobacco, in Charles county,

Part of a lot in the said town, numbered 59; and also part of a lot or piece of ground lying on the east side of and adjoining the said lot, being part of a tract of land called "Chandler's Hope." Upon these lots there are a large commodious two story dwelling-house, with four good rooms, and an extensive passage on each floor; an excellent cellar and kitchen under the house; a pantry and wash-house, meat-house and two separate stables—also a well of water suited to culinary purposes. There are likewise an excellent store and counting rooms with cellars under both. The counting room is at present occupied as an attorney's office, for which it is well calculated. The dwelling-house has been for several years used as a boarding-house, and lately as a tavern, and from its situation is suited for the accommodation of either a private family or a public Inn. The dwelling-house and lot, as at present under enclosure, will be sold separate from the store and counting rooms.

On Wednesday, the twenty-first of August next, at 12 o'clock in the forenoon, at Mr. Pye's tavern in Port-Tobacco, The following tracts or parcels of land, lying in Charles county, viz. "West Hutton," containing 500 acres, and "Hard Bargain" otherwise called "Wicomoco Fields," containing 12 1-2 acres. These tracts are contiguous to each other, or nearly so, and will be sold together. The former tract lies upon Wicomoco river, about six miles below Allen's Fresh, and has a convenient landing, from which produce may be taken to vessels in the river. This is a very valuable farm, the land is level and very rich, and has thereon a tolerably good dwelling-house, and convenient necessary out-houses. The soil is well adapted to the cultivation of grain. Fish and fowl in their season may be procured in great abundance. There is an excellent spring of good water at the door. The other tract is wholly woodland, and is intended to supply the farm with wood, &c.

Also "Mintree's Marsh," containing 3 1-2 acres; "Mintree's Willdone," being a resurvey on "Gibson's Close," containing 131 acres and 2 perches; "Partner's Purchase," containing 227 acres 3 rods and 39 perches; "Hamill Outwitted," containing 165 acres; and an undivided moiety of a tract of land called "Good for Little," the whole containing 71 acres 3 rods and 30 perches. These tracts, (except the last,) lie upon the River Potomak, adjoining each other, between Pickawaxon and Cuckold Creeks, and are divided into four tenements—Their soil is well adapted to the cultivation of grain and tobacco, and upon them are houses for tenants, but which want repair. Fish, oysters and wild fowl, may be had in their season. The last mentioned tract is held in common with Mrs. Hungerford, and is distant from the other tracts between two and three miles—it is wholly woodland, and is intended to supply the other tracts with wood, &c. and will be sold either separate or with some one of the other tracts, or divided, and a part sold with each of the other tracts, as may best accommodate purchasers.

Also "Brother's Gift," containing 277 acres 3 rods and 6 perches; "Blithwood" containing 10 acres 2 rods and 33 perches; and "Littleworth," containing 121 acres. These lands, (the two first tracts adjoining each other, and the other nearly so,) lie within one and two miles of Potomak River, on the road leading from Port-Tobacco to Laidler's Ferry; and the first mentioned tract within one mile of Pickawaxon church—One half of this last tract is bottom land and very level—the other half is upland and also level. The soil is adapted to the growth of grain and tobacco. There is on it a comfortable dwelling-house, and other improvements, situated on a hill commanding a beautiful and extensive view of the River. There is also a good and convenient spring of water. The other tracts are upland and mostly wood, on one of which is an old dwelling-house. They will be sold together, or separate, as may suit purchasers.

The Subscriber deems it unnecessary to give more particular descriptions of the several lands and lots herein stated, as it is presumed that persons inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the sale. He begs leave to refer persons, desirous of viewing the lands for sale, to Capt. Jacob Franklin as to those on the Chesapeake, to Col. Harris as to those on the Potomak, and to Mr. Maden as to those on the Wicomoco.

TERMS OF SALE.

The purchaser or purchasers to give bond to the subscriber, with approved security, for paying the purchase money in three annual payments from the day of sale, viz. one third part thereof, with interest from the first of January next, on the whole sum, at the end of one year; one other third part thereof, with interest on the whole sum then unpaid, at the end of two years; and the residue, with interest as aforesaid, at the end of three years.

Possession of the premises will be delivered to the purchasers on the first of January next—In the mean-time they may exercise all rights of ownership not incompatible with those of the Tenants now residing thereon.

Where the premises are not tenanted out, immediate possession will be given; and in that case interest will commence on the purchase money from the day of sale.

On payment of the whole purchase money, with interest, the subscriber is authorized to execute deeds of conveyances of the premises to the several purchasers.

T. H. HARRIS, Jun. Annapolis, June 6, 1811.

State of Maryland, sc.

By Anne-Arundel County Orphans Court, June 23, 1811.

ON application, by petition, of John Watkins, Administrator of Elizabeth Watkins, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, it is ordered, that he give the notice required by law for creditors to bring in their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week for the space of six successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette.

JOHN GASSAWAY, Reg. Wills for Anne-Arundel county.

THIS IS TO GIVE NOTICE,

THAT the subscriber, of Anne-Arundel county, hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of Elizabeth Watkins, late of Anne-Arundel county deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereon, to the subscriber, on or before the twentieth day of February next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this 25th day of June, 1811.

JNO. WATKINS, Adm'r.

In Chancery,

July 10, 1811.

Charles Simms, Thomas Swann, Richard Harrison, and others, vs.

Richard B. Meeke, and wife, and Louisa Harrison.

THE object of the bill in this case is to obtain a decree to record a deed of trust, executed on the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eight, by Robert Townsend Hooe, conveying certain lands in Charles county, in trust, to Charles Simms, Thomas Swann and Richard Harrison, for certain purposes mentioned in the said deed of trust;

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette, before the 10th day of August next, give notice to the defendants to appear here in person, or by a guardian or solicitor of this court, on or before the 10th day of December next, to shew cause, if any they have, wherefore a decree should not be passed as prayed.

True copy, Telf. 3X NICHOLS BREWER, Reg. Cur. Can.

To be Leased

FOR A TERM OF YEARS.

THAT elegant situation opposite to the city of Annapolis, adjoining Fort Madison, it contains upwards of 300 acres of excellent land, with oyster shell banks of manure in each field, with three negro men; and good improvements, the advantage of keeping a ferry boat, having hands used to it, and the convenience to one of the best markets, (for the feller,) in the state, is very great. Any person wishing to rent, may apply to Mr. Clements in Annapolis, or to the subscriber at Balton. I observe that some person has cut several cedar polls on the banks of the river and creek, I hereby forewarn all persons from bringing boats or canoes into any of my creeks, or taking away any sort of wood, at their peril. To have trouble no person need apply without they can give good security if required.

DRAWING OF St. Anne's Church Lottery.

THE Managers have determined to commence the Drawing of this Lottery on Monday the 26th August next—Agents are requested to make their returns on or before the 20th of August.

Annapolis, July 24, 1811.

50 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber on Wednesday the 5th inst. living in Anne-Arundel county, on the north side of Severn River, about five miles from the city of Annapolis, the two following negroes, to wit: a negro man named STEPHENS, and a negro woman named MARY, his wife. STEPHENS is black, about five feet six or seven inches high, 36 or 37 years old, well made, his hair remarkably long, and a little round-shouldered he has a sharp rough face, has a small mole on his cheek, not certain whether the right or left, and when he laughs shows the last of one or two teeth; he has a scar on his right instep, from the cut of an axe, which occasions him to have a moderate limp when walking; his dress when he went away unknown. MARY is a small black woman, five feet four or five inches high, about twenty-five years old, smooth black face, has lost an upper tooth in front and two below; as to her dress it is unknown, as they have taken away with them clothing of different kinds. The above reward will be paid for apprehending the said negroes, and lodging them in any goal so that I get them again, or twenty-five dollars a-piece.

JESSE RAY, June 10, 1811.

Forty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from Mrs. Anne Dorsey near the city of Annapolis, in Anne-Arundel county, on or about the 5th of April last, a negro lad named BILL, 16 or 17 years of age, 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, stout made in proportion to his height, is tolerably black, with a full face, the whites of his eyes have a yellowish cast, and his upper lip rather thick. Had on when he went away, a cotton shirt, homepun round-about jacket and pantaloons, striped and dyed of a dark color. It is supposed he is lurking about the farm of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Esquire, near the city of Annapolis, or at the Manor on Elk Ridge, as his father lives at the former, and his brother at the latter place. Any person apprehending the above negro and bringing him in goal so that I get him again, shall receive, if twenty miles from home, Twenty Dollars, if thirty miles, Thirty Dollars, and if a further distance the above reward, and all reasonable travelling expenses paid if brought home to the subscriber near the city of Annapolis. THOMAS H. DORSEY, June 26, 1811.

Public Sale.

By virtue of an order from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, the subscriber will expose at Public Sale, on Tuesday the 13th day of August, if fair, if not the next fair day, at the late dwelling of Robert Gaither, deceased, near the Fork Bridge, on Patuxent,

ALL the personal property of said deceased, consisting of some valuable negroes, hogs, sheep, cattle, household and kitchen furniture, and many other articles too tedious to enumerate. Terms of sale, six months credit for all sums above ten dollars, unless that sums the cash to be paid. Bonds with good and sufficient security, to be approved of by the administrator, with interest thereon from the day of sale.

BENJ. GAITHER, Adm'r. July 17, 1811.

All Hallows Parish.

THE Parish of All Hallows, on South River, being vacant, the vestry are desirous to engage a clergyman to supply such vacancy. Applications made to Mr. William Stewart, near London-town, will meet with attention.

There is a glebe-house and land appertaining to the parish. June 10, 1811.

NOTICE.

THE persons who purchased at the Drawing of the personal property of Mr. Atwell, deceased, on the 19th and 20th of February last, are hereby notified that their respective notes will become due on the 19th of August next, at which time payment may be made, otherwise suits will be brought without respect to persons.
