To Miss A C*.

"And now 'tis silent all!—Enchantress, fare thee well!"

Lady of the Lake, end of canto 6.

"And now 'tis silent all!—Enchantress, fare thee well!"

This spoke the minstrel to his harp of old.

With rapture o'er whose strings he oft had hung.

When o'er his ear its dying cadence rolled,

As echo back from "hasty hill and dell,"

Returned the last note of the strain he sung.

Dear as his harp was to the enthusiast bard;

Dear as the wild tones of its magic strings;

When erst to please his honoured lord,

The minstrel's hand across them flung,

His chieftain's deeds of arms and glory,

Dear as the minstrel's warbled story,

To the fierce chieftain's flattered ear,

Went thou, lord A, to my bosom dear.

But in my heart love's tumults are allay'd,

"And now 'tis silent all!" within my breast,

Then "fare thee well!" some lord most dearly,

The thoughts of thee have often made

Saints intrude on thy lover's rest,

And his fond heart have broken nearly.

Oft has the silent midnight hour,

Found me still fondly thinking on thee,

And still when sleep would steal upon me,

With soft resistless power,

Thy form would haunt my fever'd dream,

And at thy feet I still would seem

To pour my unavailing prayer,

And still wouldst thou with scorn appear

My murmured tale of love to hear.

But now I'm free, and ne'er again shall dwell

Within my breast the traitor Love;

Thy charms no more my heart can move,

And make it all the anguish prove

It felt—when hope was fled—

"For feeling there is dead,

"And now 'tis silent all!"—Enchantress, fare thee well!"

To Miss SUSAN MCBN.

'TIS not on Susan's Heavenly face

My ever constant love I place,

Nor on her sparkling eyes;

For beauty like the new-blown flower,

Lives but the glory of an hour,

And then for ever dies.

Far greater sweets than Flora yields

In May to deck her flowery fields,

In Susan now appear;

Her charms and wit enchant mankind,

And all the graces of her mind

Are blooming through the year.

When on her cheek the rose shall fade,

Which now adorns the lovely maid,

And beauty's prime is o'er,

I then shall see with rapturous eyes,

That Susan envious time defies,

And charms when youth's no more.

For envious time who has the power

The loveliest graces to devour.

The mind's bright charms displays,

And when the hours of life decline,

Brighter her setting sun shall shine

With chaste and sweeter rays.

PAUL'S DOMESTIC INFALLIBLE COLUMBIAN OIL.

THE inventor of this highly esteemed medicine is a native of America, and the composition is the production of American soil, consequently it is in every sense of the word domestic. It is not puffed up with a numerous train of pompous foreign certificates of persons from whom by the great distance that separates us 'tis impossible to obtain information, therefore the public has better security for their money as there cannot be the least shadow of deception to cover his medicine, for he simply appears before the community with his invention and an experimental detail of the various cases in which it really is so wonderfully efficacious, and in which he is supported by the following certificates of respectable characters, whose names are not only subscribed, but their persons may be also considered, being residents within the circle of our own neighbourhood. The following are the complaints, in which the Columbian Oil has been found so efficacious and rarely ever fails of effecting a cure, viz: Rheumatism, Consumption, Pains in any parts of the body, but particularly in the back and breast, Colds and Coughs, Toothach, Pleurisies, Cholick, Cramps, External and Internal Bruises, Sprains and Fleas, Wounds, Scalds and Burns, Whooping Cough & Mumps, and Dysentary or Bloody Flux, Croup and the summer complaint in children, and in a weak stomach that is caused by indigestion, a constant sinking and loss of appetite, it will act as a powerful bracer to the relaxed fibre and restore it to its proper tone.

It seems also as if nature had ranked it the first of the class of all pectorals and expectorals for the relief of the breast and lungs, as it scarce ever fails of removing obstructions in either, particularly those who are troubled with Phthisick or Asthmatic complaints, who in the act of walking fast, stooping or lying down, are almost suffocated, halt a teaspoonful of the Columbian Oil will render some relief instantaneously, and it continued agreeably to the directions in such cases, will prove a radical cure by producing the full power of expansion to the lungs and free expansion to the breast.

CERTIFICATES OF ITS EFFICACY.

No. 1.

Sept. 1809.

I do certify, that I have been ailing nearly two years with a hoarse cough and violent impression at the breast—I applied to the most eminent Physicians and could get no relief from my low state of health, until I got Paul's Columbian Oil, and found immediate relief. I take this method of informing the public of the efficacy of this valuable medicine, from the cures which I have experienced—I think it an incumbent duty to offer the same to the public.

No. 2.

Sept. 1809.

From the great benefit I received from your Columbian Oil, I am induced to state, I was taken with a violent sore-throat, about the 26th of August, which continued till the first of the month, when I applied your oil externally, and washed the part affected with the oil diluted in the same quantity of water, which took away pieces of purid flesh and healed my throat in about 43 hours.

N. B. I also certify, that I nursed my grand-child, and infant of 17 months old which was taken about the first of August with slow fevers and loss of appetite. We immediately applied for a physician, who gave every attention for about 10 days but all to no effect; the child was given up by the physicians, and had every appearance of death, when I applied for Paul's Columbian Oil, and gave five drops morning and evening, for five days, when the child began to recover, and is now in perfect health.

No. 3.

Sept. 6.

I hereby certify, that I had a cough and pain in my stomach for upwards of two years, when I was recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil. I procured one phial of that valuable medicine, which has restored me to a good state of health again.

No. 4.

Feb. 12, 1809.

I have great reason to be very thankful for being recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil. I had been afflicted with a violent pain in my back, so that I was not able to walk. I procured one phial of the oil, and I received immediate relief, & I have been very well ever since.

N. B. I had a violent tooth-ach about two or three months ago, when I dropped a few drops of the above oil on some lint, and applied it to the tooth affected, and I received immediate relief.

ELEANOR ELIOTT.

No. 5.

I comply with your request of stating my opinion of Paul's Columbian Oil, being an effectual remedy for the tetter worm. I have been afflicted with the tetter in my hand for 12 years, and have made trial of many medicines which have been recommended, but all to no effect. Hearing of Paul's Columbian Oil, about the 15th of January last, proving an effectual cure for the ringworm and similar complaints. I immediately got a phial of your Oil, and applied it agreeably to the directions for about two months successively—when the tetter left me, and has not made its appearance since.

SUSANNA PURDEN.

N. B. My Susanna, a child aged 20 months & 6 days, was taken about the middle of July last, with a violent cough, which the neighbours said was the whooping cough; I gave her six drops of the Columbian Oil, which gave immediate relief, and proved an effectual cure.

Charles Perrie,

THE object of the bill is to obtain a decree charging the real estate devised by the late John Perrie, of Prince-George's county, to his sons John, Richard and Francis, with the payments to the complainant of a sum of money equal to the sum raised by the administrator of the deceased by the sale of the personal property bequeathed by the said John Perrie to the complainant, and which was sold by the administrator, and by him applied to the payment of the debts of the deceased; the bill states, that the lands, so as aforesaid devised, was charged with the payment of the debts of the deceased, and that the defendant Francis resides out of the state.
