[LXVIIIth YEAR.]

Forty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from Mrs. Anne Dorsey near the city of Annapolis, in Anne Arundel county, on or about the first of August last, a negro lad named BILL, 18 years of age, 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, made in proportion to his height, is tall, black, with a full face, the whites of his eyes have a yellowish cast, and his upper lip thick. Had on when he went away, a coat of blue, homespun round-about jacket and trousers, striped and dyed of a dark color. It is supposed he is lurking about the farm of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Esquire, near the city of Annapolis, or at the Manor of Elk Ridge, as his father lives at the former, and his brother at the latter place. Any person apprehending the above negro and securing him in goal so that I get him again, will receive, if twenty miles from home, Twenty Dollars, if thirty miles, Thirty Dollars, and if a further distance the above reward, and all reasonable travelling expenses paid. I brought home to the subscriber near the city of Annapolis. THOMAS H. DORSEY. June 26, 1811.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY EDWARD LLOYD, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND, A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been satisfactorily represented to me, that a certain JOHN BADGER, who was condemned seven years to the Public Roads, by the honourable Judge of the first Judicial District of Maryland, for House Burning & Horse Stealing, has made his escape from punishment, and is now lurking about Elkton, committing many crimes and alarming the people by his nocturnal plunderings. And whereas, it is obviously the duty of the Executive, in the execution of the laws to endeavour to bring all malefactors to justice: I have thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD to any person or persons, who shall apprehend and bring to justice, the said JOHN BADGER.

Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Maryland, this thirtieth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eleven, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the thirtieth.

EDW. LLOYD. NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council, August 1.

The above Proclamation to be published twice in each week for the space of six weeks in the Whig, Sun, and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore; Maryland Gazette and Maryland Republican, at Annapolis; and the Star, at Easton.

50 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber on Wednesday, the 5th inst. living in Anne Arundel county, on the north side of Severn River, about five miles from the city of Annapolis, the two following negroes, to wit: a negro man named STEPHEN, and a negro woman named MARY, his wife. Stephen is black, about five feet six or seven inches high, 36 or 37 years old, well made, his hair remarkably long, and a little round-shouldered; he has a sharp rough face, has a small scar on his cheek, not certain whether the right or left, and when he laughs shows the loss of one or two teeth; he has a fear on his right instep, from the cut of an axe, which occasions him to have a moderate limp when walking; his dress when he went away unknown. MARY is a small black woman, five feet four or five inches high, about twenty-five years old, smooth black face, has lost one upper tooth in front and two below; as to her dress it is unknown, as they have taken away with them clothing of different kinds. The above reward will be paid for apprehending the said negroes, and lodging them in any goal so that I get them again, or twenty-five dollars a-piece.

FOREIGN.

By an arrival at New-York.

LATE FROM PORTUGAL & ENGLAND.

By the arrival this day of the Erie, Robinson, in 38 days from Lisbon, we learn that the French had succeeded in relieving Badajos, by a reinforcement of troops, and that such as had not entered, had fallen back to Lereña, near Seville. No action had taken place on the advance of marshals Soult and Marmont, as the English had taken the precaution to raise the siege and fall back to Elvas; but on the French returning to Lereña, the English had again advanced and invested Badajos. The Prince of Orange and suite had arrived at Lisbon from England, & Lord Pager was daily expected. Gen. Bessford was about returning to England. It was reported at Lisbon on the 4th of July, that the advanced army under gen. Blake had entered Seville on the 28th of June, but it was believed that he would make but a short stay, and return to raise the siege of Cadiz. Marshal Soult had detached 20,000 troops to cut off Blake, but his success was considered doubtful. Five transports with troops under convoy of a frigate was entering Lisbon when the Erie came out. It was said to be very sickly at Badajos, and no battles had lately been fought.

Markets entirely stagnated—Flour $ 11 1-2 to 12 1-2—no sales.

By the above arrival we have received London papers to the 27th June inclusive, 2 days late, and Lisbon Gazettes to the 7th of July. Extracts from the London papers follow.

FALMOUTH, JUNE 22. Sailed the Duke of Kent, Packet, for Halifax and New-York; and the Duke of Clarence, Packet, for Lisbon.

LONDON, JUNE 26. A gentleman who arrived from Copenhagen yesterday, informs us, that according to the accounts received at that city from St. Petersburg, matters were still in suspense between France and Russia; but that a favourable termination of the differences was expected, owing to the state of the latter power's finances. This gentleman had received a Copenhagen paper, purporting to be an official document from France, relative to the complaints of that government against Russia. This instrument demanded of Russia, that she should shut her ports against all trade whatever, until her flag, and that of every other nation, should be respected by Great-Britain.

The Argo frigate capt. Warren, will fall in a few days from Portsmouth with Mr. Linton and suite, for Constantinople.

JUNE 27. The idea of an immediate rupture between France and Russia gains ground; particularly since the arrival of a mail from Anhalt last night. It is mentioned in several letters both from Stockholm and Gottenburg.

Gottenburg, June 17. Our letters from Stockholm, speak in positive terms of a war between France and Russia. The Russians are fortifying Aland, where there are 10,000 men. The storm is certainly gathering, and will most assuredly be very severely felt.

The following letter is from a gentleman in an official situation: "Gottenburg, June 17. Our account of to-day corroborates what appears in the news-papers, viz. a Rupture between Russia and France." Add to these letters the fact of the Danish army being ordered to hold itself in readiness to march—and the circumstance of so large a portion of the French and Rhenish troops moving towards the frontiers and also the circumstance of so many of the French generals having been ordered to Paris.—Malfena, Mortier, Junot, Ney and others; generals who would have been kept in Spain if their services had not been wanted elsewhere. To all this you must unite the important omissions in Buonaparte's Speech—the omission of all mention of Russia—the rage he vents against us for endeavouring to stimulate other powers against France, and the doubtful indecisive manner in which he speaks of the continuance of peace upon the continent.

The Anhalt mail has brought us another proof of the benefits which Sweden is to derive from her new Sovereign, and of the sense she has of those benefits.

Helsingburg, June 25. A serious insurrection took place among the peasantry in the neighbourhood of Malmo, on the 17th and 18th inst. on account of the conscription; from 12 to 1500 men assembled armed with Scythes, hails, forks, &c. The military were called in to disperse them; and a dreadful scene ensued, 40 of the peasants were killed and 130 wounded, besides 200 taken prisoners, the others retired to their homes. Similar acts of insubordination have occurred in other parts of the kingdom, some of which have been pardoned, and others visited with death & the severest punishment the law can inflict. It would seem as if these deluded men viewed the conscription not as a measure dictated by motives of national policy and benefit, but as the copy of a similar measure originated by a great continental power (France) and adopted only from a congeniality of designs and sentiments with that power.

There is a rumour in circulation that Sir Joseph York will immediately be despatched to the coast of America, with a squadron, of which the Venguer, Edenburgh and America will form a part.

Some letters by the Malta mail announce the important intelligence of peace having been between Turkey and Russia. They add, that an official communication of that event, had been received. If that had been the fact, it would have been transmitted to his majesty's government, who have not received any such information. Yet we do not think the intelligence improbable. The last Paris papers stated that the armistice had not been broken and we know the anxiety which the court of Petersburg has manifested to put an end to hostilities with the Porte, under the impression that it would soon have occasion to employ its arms in another quarter.

Some time ago we mentioned that the ARCHDUKE FRANCIS, one of the emperor of Austria's brothers, had left Vienna secretly, with all the valuables he could collect. We now find that he has made his escape to Malta from whence he means to proceed to Messina. The motives of his departure from his brother's court and territories, are not yet known.

Mr. Wellesley is appointed chancellor of the exchequer for Ireland, and has in consequence vacated his seat in parliament, in order to be re-elected, for which purpose he left town last night for Ireland. He has expressed his determination not to accept any part of the salary or emoluments belonging to that office.

Government have agreed to grant LICENCES TO FRENCH SHIPS to come to British ports in ballast, and receive on board cargoes of coffee and sugar; but those ships are not allowed to import articles of French produce in return.

Windoor, June 26, 2 P. M. No alteration has taken place in the king's health for the last three or four days; but from the general composure of his majesty's mind, very favourable expectations are indulged. No bulletin has been sent to town for the last two or three days; but this morning the following was transmitted:

"The king remains much in the same state as he was yesterday, at least there is no alteration for the worse."

Vienna, June 9. The bankers and principal merchants in this capital have been convened at the court banker's, where the minister of finance told them that the government were perfectly acquainted with the manoeuvres of some of them which were injurious to the exchange. They were told that it was the last warning they would receive from government, and that they would hereafter be severely punished. They were forbidden to draw bills of exchange on each other in order to fend the specie out of the country, and thus ruin commerce. Since this writing, the course has a favourable change.

Paris, June 21. The Grand Duke of Baden departed this life on the 10th, after a reign of 65 years. He is succeeded by his grandson.

BOSTON, AUG. 16. FROM PORTUGAL. Capt. Soule arrived yesterday, left Lisbon on the 4th of July, at which time Lord Wellington was still on the frontiers, the French not having advanced into Portugal. No great battle had taken place since that of Albuera. Capt. S. makes it certain that the account in the N. York Morning Post of a tremendous battle, which closed on the 19th of June, leaving 12,000 French and 9000 British dead on the field, is a total fabrication, with all the circumstances attending it. There had been no fighting of any consequence, after the attacks made on Badajos mentioned in lord Wellington's letter published some days since. His lordship's head quarters were at Elvas, but a small distance within the limits of
