

POET'S CORNER.

SELECTED.

The following beautiful lines are taken from the Boston Review.

Sure to the mansions of the blest,
When infant innocence ascends,
Some angel brighter than the rest,
The spotless spirit's flight attends.
On wings of extacy they rise Beyond where worlds material roll;
Till some fair filter of the skies,
Receives the unpolluted soul.
There, at the Almighty Father's hand, Nearest the throne of living light,
The choirs of infant seraphs stand And dazzling shine, where all are bright.
Chained for a dreary length of years
Down to these elements below,
Some stain the sky-born spirit bears, Contracted from this world of woe.
That inextinguishable beam,
With dust united at our birth,
Shed a more dim discoloured gleam,
The more it lingers upon earth.
Clad in this dark abode of clay
The dream of glory faintly burns;
Nor unobscured, the lucid ray,
To its own native fount returns.
But when the lord of mortal breath Decreases his bounty to resume,
And points the silent shaft of death,
Which speeds an infant to the tomb.
No passion fierce, no low desire,
Has quenched the radiance of the flame;
Back to its God the living fire Reverts unclouded as it came.
Oh, Anna! be that solace thine;
Let hope her healing charm impart:
A soothing, with melodies divine,
The anguish of a mother's heart.
Oh! think the darlings of thy love Divested of its earthly clad,
Amid unnumbered faints above, Bask in the bosom of their God.
Of their short pilgrimage on earth
Still tender images remain;
Still fill thy bliss for their birth, Still filial gratitude retain.
The days of pain, the nights of care,
The bosom's agonizing strife,
The pangs which thou for them didst bear,
No! they forget them not with life.
Scarce could their germinating thought conceive, While in this vale of tears they dwell, Scarce their fond sympathy relieve The suffering thou for them has felt.
But there the soul's perennial flower Expands in never-fading bloom;
Spurn at the grave's poor transient hour,
And floats immortal from the tomb.
No weak unformed idea, there, Toils, the mere promise of a mind;
The tide of intellect flows clear,
Strong, full, unchanging and refined.
Each anxious care, each tendering sigh,
That wrung for them the present's breath, Dwells on remembrance in the sky,
Amid the raptures of the bliss.
O'er thee, with looks of love, they bend,
For thee the Lord of life implores,
And oft from sainted bliss descends, Thy wounded quiet to restore.
Oft in the stillness of the night
They smooth the pillow for thy bed;
Oft till the morn's returning light,
Still watchful hover o'er thy head.
Hark! in such streams as fountains employ,
They whisper to thy bosom, peace;
Calm the perturbed heart to joy,
And bid the streaming sorrow cease.
Then dry henceforth the bitter tear,
Their part and thine inverted see!
Thou wert their guardian angel here,
They guardian angels now to thee.

PAUL'S DOMESTIC INFALLIBLE
COLUMBIAN OIL.

THE inventor of this highly esteemed medicine is a native of America, and the composition is the production of American soil, consequently it is in every sense of the word domestic, it is not puffed up with a numerous train of pompous foreign certificates of persons from whom by the great distance that separates us 'tis impossible to obtain information, therefore the public has better security for their money as there cannot be the least shadow of deception to cover his medicine, for he simply appears before the community with his invention and an experimental detail of the various cases in which it really is so verily efficacious, and in which he is supported by the following certificates of respectable characters, whose names are not only subscribed, but their persons may be also consulted, being residents within the circle of our own neighbourhood. The following are the complaints in which the Columbian Oil has been found so efficacious and rarely effectual of effecting a cure, viz: Rheumatism, Consumption, Pains in any parts of the body, but particularly in the back and breast, Colds and Coughs, Toothach, Pleurisy, Cholera, Cholerae, External and Internal Bruises, Sprains and Burns, Wounds, Scalds and Burns, Whooping Cough & Mumps, and Dysentery or Bloody Flux, Gout and the summer complaint in children, and in a was stomach that is caused or indigestion, a constant sickness and loss of appetite, it will act as a powerful bracer to the relaxed fibre and restore it to its proper tone.
It seems also as if nature had ranked it first of the class of all pectorals and expectorants for the relief of the breast and lungs, as it scarce ever fails of removing obstructions in either, particularly those who are troubled with Phlegm, or Asthmatic complaints, who in the most suffocating, stooping or lying down, are almost suffocated, half a teaspoonful of the Columbian Oil will render some relief instantaneously, and it continued agreeable to the directions in such cases, will prove a radical cure by producing the full power of inflation to the lungs and free expansion to the breast.

CERTIFICATES OF ITS EFFICACY.

No. 1. Sept. 1809.
I do certify, that I have been ailing nearly two years with a hectic cough and violent impression at the breast—I applied to the most eminent physicians and could get no relief from my low state of health, until I got Paul's Columbian Oil, and found immediate relief. I take this method of informing the public of the efficacy of this valuable medicine, from the cures which I have experienced.
—I think it an incumbent duty to offer the same to the public.

No. 2. Sept. 1809.
Sir,
From the great benefit I received from your Columbian Oil, I am induced to state, I was taken with a violent sorethroat, about the 16th of August, which continued till the first of the month, when I applied your oil externally, and washed the part affected with the oil diluted in the same quantity of molasses, which took away pieces of pusill flesh and healed my throat in about 48 hours.
N. B. I also certify, that I nursed my grandchild, and infant of 17 months old which was taken about the first of August with slow fevers and loss of appetite. We immediately applied for a physician, who gave every attention for about 10 days but all to no effect; the child was given up by the physicians, and had every appearance of death, when I applied for Paul's Columbian Oil, and gave five drops morning and evening, for five days, when the child began to recover, and is now in perfect health.

No. 3. Sept. 6.
I hereby certify, that I had a cough and pain in my stomach for upwards of two years, when I was recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil. I procured one phial of that valuable medicine, which has restored me to a good state of health again.

No. 4. Feb. 12, 1809.
I have great reason to be very thankful for being recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil I had been afflicted with a violent pain in my back, so that I was not able to walk. I procured one phial of the oil, and I received immediate relief, & I have been very well ever since.
N. B. I had a violent toothach about two or three months ago, when I dropped a few drops of the above oil on some lint, and applied it to the tooth affected, and I received immediate relief.
ELEANOR ELLIOTT.

No. 5.
Sir,
I comply with your request of stating my opinion of Paul's Columbian Oil, being an effectual remedy for the tetter worm. I have been afflicted with the tetter in my hand for 12 years, and have made trial of many medicines which have been recommended, but all to no effect. Hearing of Paul's Columbian Oil, about the 15th of January last, proving an effectual cure for the ringworm and similar complaints, I immediately got a phial of your Oil, and applied it agreeably to the directions for about two months successively—when the tetter left me, and has not made its appearance since.
SUSANNA PURDEN.
N. B. My Susanna, a child aged 20 months & 6 days, was taken about the middle of July last, with a violent cough, which the neighbours said was the whooping cough; I gave her a drop of the Columbian Oil, which gave her immediate relief, and proved an effectual cure.
