PAUL'S DOMESTIC INFALLIBLE COLUMBIAN OIL.

THE inventor of this highly esteemed medicine is a native of America, and the composition is the production of American soil, consequently it is in every sense of the word domestic, it is not puffed up with a numerous train of pompous foreign certificates of persons from whom by the great distance that separates us 'tis impossible to obtain information, therefore the public has better security for their money as there cannot be the least shadow of deception to cover his medicine, for he simply appears before the community with his invention and an experimental detail of the various cases in which it really is so wonderfully efficacious, and in which he is supported by the following certificates of respectable characters, whose names are not only subscribed, but their persons may be also consulted, being residents within the circle of our own neighbourhood. The following are the complaints in which the Columbian Oil has been found so efficacious and rarely ever fails of effecting a cure, viz: Rheumatism, Consumption, Pains in any parts of the body, but particularly in the back and breast. Colds and Coughs, Toothach, Pleuritis, Cholera, Cramps, External and Internal Bruises, Sprains and Flesh Wounds, Scalds and Burns, Whooping Cough & Mumps, and Dysentery or Bloody Flux, Cramp and the summer complaint in children, and in a weak stomach that is caused by indigestion, a constant sinking and loss of appetite, it will act as a powerful bracer to the relaxed fibre and restore it to its proper tone.

It seems also as if nature had ranked it first of the class of all pectorals and expectorals for the relief of the breast and lungs, as it scarce ever fails of removing obstructions in either, particularly those who are troubled with rheumatic or Asthmatic complaints. who in the act of walking fast, stooping or lying down are almost suffocated, half a teaspoonful of the Columbian Oil will render some relief instantaneously, and if continued agreeable to the directions in such cases, will prove a radical cure by producing the full power of inflation to the lungs and free expansion to the breast.

CERTIFICATES OF ITS EFFICACY.

No. 1. Sept. 1809.
I do certify, that I have been ailing nearly two years with a hectic cough and violent impression at the breast—I applied to the most eminent physicians and could get no relief from my low state of health, until I got Paul's Columbian Oil, and found immediate relief. I take this method of informing the public of the efficacy of this valuable medicine, from the cures which I have experienced—I think it an incumbent duty to offer the same to the public.

No. 2. Sept. 1809.
Sir, From the great benefit I received from your Columbian Oil, I am induced to state, I was taken with a violent sore throat, about the 20th of August, which continued till the first of the month, when I applied your oil externally, and washed the part affected with the oil diluted in the same quantity of melleas, which took away pieces of purid flesh and healed my throat in about 48 hours.
N. B. I also certify, that I nursed my grand-child, and infant of 17 months old which was taken about the first of August with slow fevers and loss of appetite. We immediately applied for a physician, who gave every attention for about two days but all to no effect; the child was given up by the physicians, and had every appearance of death, when I applied for Paul's Columbian Oil, and gave five drops morning and evening, for five days, when the child began to recover, and is now in perfect health.

No. 4. Feb. 13, 1809.
I have great reason to be very thankful for being recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil. I had been afflicted with a violent pain in my back, so that I was not able to walk. I procured one phial of the oil, and I received immediate relief, & I have been very well ever since.
N. B. I had a violent toothach about two or three months ago, when I dropped a few drops of the above oil on some lint, and applied it to the tooth affected, and I received immediate relief.
ELEANOR ELLIOTT.
No. 5.

Sir, I comply with your request of stating my opinion of Paul's Columbian Oil, being an effectual remedy for the better worm. I have been afflicted with the tetter in my hand for 12 years, and have made trial of many medicines which have been recommended, but all to no effect. Hearing of Paul's Columbian Oil, about the 15th of January last, proving an effectual cure for the ringworm and similar complaints. I immediately got a phial of your Oil, and applied it agreeably to the directions for about two months successively—when the tetter left me, and has not made its appearance since.

SUSANNA PURDEN.
N. B. My Susanna, a child aged 20 months & 6 days, was taken about the middle of July last, with a violent cough, which the neighbours said was the whooping cough. I gave her six drops of the Columbian Oil, which gave immediate relief, and proved an effectual cure.

[LXVIIIth YEAR.]

CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Saturday January 11.

Mr. Bacon presented the petition of sundry merchants of Boston, stating that they had purchased anterior to a knowledge of the president's proclamation of November 2d, 1810, various goods and wares of British manufacture and growth now in Canada, Nova-Scotia, &c. and praying leave to import them. Referred to the committee of the whole to whom was referred the bill on that subject.

Mr. Little offered a resolution the substance of which was, requesting of the president a list of the American ships and vessels captured under the authority of the British government, together with the value of their cargoes, since the treaty of amity, commerce and navigation of 1794, as well as the amount of indemnifications for such captures and condemnations.

Mr. Bigelow wished the honourable member would consent to amend his resolution by saying, "under the authority of the British or any other foreign government," as he could not see the propriety of selecting the British government.

Mr. Little observed that he did not wish his resolution to be amended, having a distinct object in view.

The resolution was laid on the table. The house went into committee of the whole, Mr. Bassett in the chair, on the Volunteer Bill.

The amendments of yesterday were still pending. After considerable debate the committee rose without coming to a decision upon them, reported progress and had leave to sit again.

The house then adjourned.

Monday, Jan. 13.

Mr. Bassett took the chair in committee of the whole on the volunteer bill. Mr. Nelson continued a short time the speech he commenced on Saturday, but his voice, owing to a cold, failed him, and he was obliged to desist. Mr. Milnor spoke against the doctrine that the militia could be marched out of the U. States. Mr. Macon spoke against the bill.

Mr. Poindexter offered an amendment, the substance of which was, that the volunteers should sign a writing, and should be liable to be marched out of the union. Mr. Bacon amended that amendment by a proviso; provided the state to which the volunteers belong consents.

Mr. Key spoke at length against the amendment and proviso; endeavouring to prove that the states could not give such consent; that the volunteers could not offer it; and that congress could not accept it. The constitution allowing the call of the militia only in three cases: to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, and execute the laws; and that no officer commissioned by any state, could exercise command out of the territory of the U. States.

Five members only supported the proviso, and sine the amendment.

The committee of the whole rose, reported progress, and the house adjourned.

Tuesday, Jan. 14.

The house took up the volunteer bill as reported by the committee of the whole yesterday, with amendments. The question was on agreeing to the amendments. Various propositions were made to amend the amendments, and much animated debate took place, in which great diversity of opinion prevailed as to the principles and purposes of the bill.

Mr. Bacon moved to strike out 50,000 & insert 20,000, and to confine that number solely to the defence of the U. States within its territory, and not suffer them to march out for the purposes of foreign conquest. He contemplated bringing forward a proposition to raise a different force and for a different purpose, by modifications of the first bill reported by the committee of foreign relations.

Mr. Nelson considered it unnecessary, the president having already power over the militia.

Mr. Grundy said Canada was the object; and as the militia could not be marched out of the territory of the U. S. it would be necessary to pass another bill for volunteers who could on certain terms be marched out of the union.

Mr. Randolph spoke an hour against the amendment. He would not have the militia called except as the constitution pointed out. He considered the principle dangerous, that of placing the militia. He ridiculed the idea
