RICH. HALL, of Edw'd. county, Oct. 10, 1811.

CONGRESSIONAL.
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
Saturday January 18.
A bill for the relief of Ninian Pinkney, was read twice and referred to the committee of the whole.
A resolution of Mr. Condit was carried, on his motion for the appointment of a committee to examine and report the substance and situation of the correspondence that had taken place between the ministers of this government and the British ministry on the subject of impressments of American seamen.
The Navy Bill was taken up in committee of the whole, Mr. Nelson in the chair, Mr. Cheeves continued his speech of yesterday. Mr. C. continued the current of his irresistible arguments, that a naval force was the cheapest and most efficacious that the United States could maintain, for the support of our commercial interest, our Atlantic defence, our national independence, profit, prosperity and honour.
Mr. Seybert and Mr. McKee followed in opposition to a navy—and the house adjourned half past three o'clock.

Monday, Jan. 20.
Mr. Mitchell presented the petition of Wells, merchant of New-York, praying permission to import certain goods purchased in England before the President's proclamation of February last. Referred.
Mr. M. also presented the petition of Charles Whitlow, of the city of N. York, praying permission to occupy a tract of ground lying west of the capitol in the city of Washington, (originally intended for a Botanic Garden) for the purpose of improving it as an agricultural and botanical garden, stating his experience in business of this kind in Europe. Referred to the committee on the district of Columbia.
Mr. M. likewise laid before the House the petition of Benj. Jacobs, of New-York, praying for remuneration for a lost certificate of public debt. Referred.
Mr. Morgan presented the petition of Wm. Locke and others of N. Jersey, manufacturers of certain kinds of paint, praying for an additional duty on foreign paint. Referred.
Mr. Bacon observed, that the committee of ways and means had received a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury, in answer to an enquiry addressed to him by the committee which they deemed of public importance; and therefore, contrary to their usual practice, the committee had directed him to communicate it to the House, in order that it might be printed for the use of the members, as it might be some time before the committee would be able to make their report, and by having the letter of the Secretary of Treasury before them, and their attention drawn to the subject, the House would be better able to meet the consideration of it, when it shall be brought before them by the committee. Mr. B. then laid the letter of Chairman of the committee to the Secretary of the Treasury with his answer [containing his budget of proposed taxes for meeting the expenses of war] before the house, which being read

Mr. Mosely proposed that 5000 copies of the communication should be printed. This motion was seconded by Mr. Milner, who, on account of its importance, contended for the necessity of making it as public as possible. It was opposed by Mr. Bacon, as improper and as incurring an unnecessary expense. Improper, because it would be giving an undue sanction to a letter to one of the committees of the House, which had not been acted upon (and which it was unusual to publish at all); incurring an unnecessary expense, because the letter of the Secretary would undoubtedly be printed in every newspaper in the U. States, and by this means be made more generally public, than it would be in any other way—Motion negatived, 75 to 42.

Mr. Maxwell then moved that 1000 copies be printed. This motion, after some observations from Messrs. Wright, Fisk and Findley, in which they urged the impropriety of giving any countenance to a letter, containing propositions which would not probably be agreed to by Congress, and which would serve only unnecessarily to alarm the people, was negatived 60 to 52.

Mr. Davenport moved to have 500 copies printed; which motion was also negatived, and the usual number ordered to be printed.

The house then resolved itself into a committee of the whole, Mr. Nelson in the chair, on the bill concerning the Naval Establishment, when Messrs. Basset and Mitchell, each spoke at considerable length in favour of the bill. After which, the committee rose, and had leave to sit again. Adjourned.

Tuesday, Jan. 21.
Mr. Brigham presented a petition praying permission to import certain goods from G. B. Referred to the committee of the whole house to which was referred the bill reported by the committee of commerce and manufactures on that subject.
Mr. Tallman presented a petition praying the restoration of a vessel and cargo seized under the non-importation law. Referred as above.

Several of the petitions of a similar nature, were presented and referred.
Mr. Mitchell presented a memorial from Steph. Edgar and A. Macomb of New-York, praying the restitution of money by them paid, in part, for lands, which lands became forfeited to the U. States, by reason of the non-fulfilment of the original contract (owing to their being engaged in the East India business, which absorbed all their floating capital and rendered them unable to comply with their engagement, but from which the government derived a revenue of 100,000 dollars) and were resold and brought more money than they were to have paid for them, for which reason they pray congress to refund the money by them originally paid in part.—Referred to the committee of claims.

Mr. Bibb presented the memorial of Georgia, praying compensation for a vessel and cargo, which they under the faith of the President's proclamation that the edicts of France were repealed, had fitted out for that country, which vessel had been captured under the Orders in Council, referred to the Secretary of State.
The Speaker laid before the house statements from the departments of War & State containing a list of clerks in the several departments with the compensation allowed to each.
Also a report from the Secretary of State in obedience to a call of the House for a list of persons who have made any new or useful inventions.

Mr. Little called for the consideration of his resolution relative to depredations committed on our commerce by the British. After two attempts to ascertain the sense of the house (a quorum not voting!) he withdrew his call.
The house went into a committee of the whole on the Navy Bill, Mr. Nelson in the chair. Mr. Johnson spoke a long time against it. He was for a strong military force to take Canada, after which we should need no standing army nor any navy.
Mr. Lowndes, in favour of the bill, the second time of his speaking, was greatly admired by those who could hear him, and for that purpose members crowded round his seat. His mildness and modesty of manner, increased attention, and the elegance and correctness of his matter, gave much satisfaction, and those who heard it pronounced it very argumentative.

Mr. Law, the first time of his speaking in the house, acquitted himself in a very able manner in favour of the bill; showing that we had all the materials for a navy; that it was a necessary defence of our commerce, and of our maritime frontier; that if we had proceeded, as we commenced 15 or 16 years ago, with a navy, we should not now be troubled with French edicts nor British orders in council.
Mr. Roberts spoke some time against the bill, when the committee rose and the house adjourned.

Wednesday, Jan. 22.
Several unimportant petitions were presented and referred.
The house went into committee of the whole Mr. Nelson, in the chair, on the Navy bill.
The motion made by Mr. Cheeves to fill the blank in the first section, that for repairing the present public vessels, with 180,000 dollars, was carried by a large majority.
Mr. Cheeves moved to fill the blank in the second section with one million of dollars towards the building of ten frigates. The calculation of the committee was, that the whole cost would be one million seven hundred thousand, but that sum would purchase the timber and be sufficient for the work till another appropriation should be made.
Mr. Rhea was opposed to going farther at present than repairing. He moved to strike out the second section.
Mr. Smilie was in favour of striking out.
Mr. Newton spoke against striking out, & in favour of a navy.

Mr. Clay (Speaker) spoke at length in favour of an increase of the Navy.
Mr. Boyd spoke in favour of striking and was followed by Mr. Blackledge on the same side.
Mr. Cheeves & Mr. Mitchell spoke against striking out and in favour of an increase of the Navy.
The question was taken on striking out, for it 47, against it 52.
The committee then rose.
A message was received from the President of the United States, containing resolutions of the legislature of New-Jersey approving of the President's message, proceedings of congress, &c. Adjourned.

Thursday, Jan. 23.
A few unimportant petitions were presented and referred.
THE NAVY.
The house again went into a committee of the whole, Mr. Nelson in the chair, on the Navy Bill.
On motion to fill the first blank in the second section (number of frigates) with seven Mr. Widgery spoke some time in its favour. He was afraid the house had the hydrophobia, they dreading water like sheep.
The motion was lost by a large majority.
On motion to fill it with six, thirty only rose in favour.
Five was proposed, and lost, 52 to 43.—Four was negatived, 49 to 44—and three, 49 to 45.
Two being proposed Mr. Calhoun spoke against so contemptible a number. As did Mr. Basset, who proposed four 74's instead of frigates. Motion lost, 54, 39.
The vote taken yesterday not to strike this section was reconsidered and the section was stricken out.
Mr. Cheeves moved to fill the blank in the 4th section (for the purchase of timber, &c.) with $ 200,000 annually for three years.—Mr. Rhea moved to strike out the section.—Messrs. Clay (the Speaker) Wright and Mitchell, opposed the motion. It was lost, and the motion of Mr. Cheeves carried by a large majority.
The committee then rose and the house adjourned.

Friday, Jan. 24.
Mr. Emmott presented the petition of Richard James, praying leave to import property from Jamaica, of which Island he is a native, and which by the non-importation law he is forbidden to bring. Referred to the committee of commerce and manufactures.
Messrs. Lacock and Finley presented petitions from sundry inhabitants of Pennsylvania, praying alterations in the Post Office laws, so as not to infringe the Sabbath.—Laid on the table.
Other petitions, of a private nature, were presented and referred.
Mr. Gholson from the committee of claims reported a bill for the relief of col. Jonathan Williams. Twice read and referred to the committee of the whole for Tuesday next.
The house went into committee of the whole on the amendments of the Senate to the bill authorising the Secretary of the Treasury to decide in the case of ship Eliza Ann, belonging to Ezekiel Hubbell. The amendments were agreed to in committee of the whole and subsequently confirmed by the house.
Mr. Avery (N. Y.) had leave of absence during the session.
Mr. Nelson again took the chair in committee of the whole on the Navy Bill.
Mr. Gold spoke at length in favour of the bill.
Mr. Cheeves moved to fill the blank appropriating money for a Dock yard &c. with $ 100,000, motion carried.
Mr. Rhea from fear the public vessels might be Copenhagened, moved to confine the dock yard at or near the city of Washington.—Motion lost, and the place left to Executive discretion.
The committee of the whole then rose and reported the bill as amended.
The question was taken by Ayes & Noes on agreeing with the committee of the whole in filling the blank of the first section (repairing present vessels out of service) with $ 480,000, Ayes 90, Noes 23.
The next question was on agreeing with the committee of the whole in striking out the second section, (for building additional frigates.)
Mr. Williams was in favour of striking out, and spoke at length to that purpose. He was answered by Mr. Cheeves.
On motion of Mr. Quincy, who wished to trouble the house with a few remarks it being now almost 4 o'clock, the house adjourned.
