The Child at the grave of his mother. BY JOHN LAWSON.

Awake! my mothers! The ground is cold, the wind is bleak, And rushes wildly o'er thy head, And blows against my cheek.

Awake! my mother! Stay no longer eleping here ! A dismal place, and dark is this, And all around is drear.

Thine head was drooping, When so pale I saw thee last; And will thy drooping head repose, Lull'd by the passing blast?

A better pillow Lately gave thee sweeter rest, And when soft slumber stole thy woe, Thy bosom was my nest.

And thou was sleeping, When I fondly smil'd on thee, And kiss'd the lips so wan and cold, That would not speak to me.

Oh! wake my mother! Gloomy strangers laid thee here; The weedy turf is all thy bed, The hemlock rankles near. But thou art eilent,

Though I wander here alone, And gently bid thee come away, And give the winds my groan. The shricking night-bird,

Flits around this ug'y tree.
And fain would scare me from the place, But I will stay with thee.

The pale star shining, Waits to light thee to thy home, Its beams are sad-thy darling calls, And wilt thou never come !

Then, full of anguish, Let me close my weary eyes! And nestling in the grass I'll sleep, For here my mother lies!

PAUL'S DOMESTIC INFALLIBLE COLUMBIAN OIL.

THE inventor of this highly esteemed medicine is a native of America, and the composition is the production of America, and the composition in the production of the production of pompous foreign certificates of persons from whom by the great distance that separates us 'tis impossible to obtain information, therefore the public has better security for their money as there cannot be the least shadow of deception to cover his medicines for he simply appears before the community with his invention and an experimental detail of the various cases in which it really is so wonderfully effectious, and in which he is supported by the following certificates of respectable characters, whose names are not only subscribed, but their persons may be also consulted, being residents within the circle of our own neighbourhood. The following are the complaints in which the Columbian Oil has been found so efficacious and rarely ever fails of effecting a cure, viz: Rheumatism, Consumption, Pains in any parts of the body, but particularly in the back and breast, Colds and Coughs, Toothach, Pleurisies, Cholic, Cramps, External and Internal Bruises, Sprains and Flesh Wounds, Scalds and Burns, Whooping Cough & Mumps, and Dysentary or Bloody Flux, Croup and the summer complaint in children, and in a weak stomach that is caused by indigestion, a constant sinking and loss of appetite, it will as as a powerful bracer to the relaxed fibre and restore it to its proper tone

It seems also as if nature had ranked it the first of the class of all pectorals and expectorals for the relief of the breast and lungs, as it scarce ever

It seems also as it nature had ranked it the first of the class of all pedorals and expedorals for the relief of the breast and lungs, as it scarce ever ails of removing obstructions in either, particularly those who are troubled with Phthisick or Athenic complaints who in the 20 of marking larly those who are troubled with Phthisick or Asshmatic complaints, who in the aft of walking tast, stooping or lying down, are almost suffocated, half a teaspoonful of the Columbian Oil will render some relief instantaneously, and if continued agreeable to the directions in such cases, will prove a radical cure by producing the full power of inflation to the lungs and free expansion to the breast.
